BISHOP EDWIN STRATFORD

[illegible] Funeral Services Held in the Tabernacle —Beautiful Floral Tributes.

[illegible] Schools Process In which Judge Farr Gets Rid of Three Months —Ogden Locals.

The funeral services over the remains of Bishop Edwin Stratford of the Ogden Tenth ward were held in the Ogden Tabernacle Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Counselor Henry W. Griffiths presiding. The funeral was largely attended at the family residence at 1:45 o'clock, and was conducted to the tabernacle in carriages. Bishop T. J. Pendlebury, Richard Howell, Horace Hooper and George Nebeker were the pall bearers. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful, and were a credit to Ogden city. The choir of the ward rendered several selections during the services, and Miss Ida Stratford sang a solo. The speakers were Bishop Pendlebury, Counselor Griffiths, Elder Joseph Fairbanks, Bishop Hooper and President Angus M. Cannon. The latter said that Bishop Stratford was a man who had lived his religion. He was a man who was always ready to help the poor and needy, and was a friend to all. He was a man who was always ready to do his duty, and was a faithful Latter-day Saint. He was a man who was always ready to help the poor and needy, and was a friend to all. Gay Fatality Shot at Colton Double Wedding—Prosecutions by Wholesale.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Oct. 11.—In the Fourth district court yesterday W. S. Pierce filed suit against David Hansen to oust him from peaceful possession of a certain mining claim in American Fork canyon. Upon the ground being staked out a notice of preemption was served upon the defendants, returnable November 6th, which was duly served.

BOY FATALLY SHOT.

The remains of William Arrowsmith, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arrowsmith of Lehi, were brought down from that place last evening for burial. The boy died from the effects of a gunshot wound received by his own hand about 3:30 o'clock Monday evening, he being accidentally shot by the discharge of a shotgun in the hands of a young man who took them in the city this afternoon. There was a large attendance at the funeral, and the floral tributes were very beautiful.

The circumstances of the deplorable affair, as ascertained by Mr. Smith are as follows: It appears that much was to have been done at the home of Mrs. Arrowsmith's sister in Lehi on Sunday, and young Arrowsmith came to Lehi and had a shotgun which he did not understand the use of. He was showing it to Mr. Smith a short time before the shooting occurred, when attempting to show the young man how it was operated, but it appears that he did not know that it was loaded. The gun was discharged, the load entering the chamber being raised.

Mr. Smith says that the receiver pointed to the ceiling when he took it, and as the cylinder would not fit he turned the receiver down to the floor. In this position the weapon of the fatal shot was discharged, the load striking the boy in the left side of the abdomen with fatal effect. Young Arrowsmith turned in front of the receiver, and the load struck him in the left side. He ran out and then fell over dead.

Mrs. Arrowsmith, the mother of deceased, was in Provo attending the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Hulda Sharp, when the accident occurred and was the means of it being communicated to her. Her grief was almost beyond control, and is now lying in a critical condition, a physician being in attendance.

Joseph H. Arrowsmith of Lehi and the mother in an effort to be near her son. He is a former resident of Provo, and has many relatives in the town.

A DOUBLE WEDDING.

There was a double wedding held in the county court house today. The contracting parties were Miss Carrie M. and Lydia Crook, 16, both of Payson, and John Hoots, 21, of Salem, and Emma Crook, 18, of Payson. The brides are sisters. License to wed was also granted to Attorney H. H. Henderson nominated Mr. Browning.

Attorneys George W. Lowe and J. E. Bellamy extended Middleton's nomination, while Charles A. Howells and Attorney Wolfe paid a glowing tribute to his worth.

The speech was simple, terse and forceful. He seemed to have remarkable confidence after the delegates. The ballot resulted: Browning, 15; Middleton, 4. Chairman Johnson declared Mr. Browning the nominee for congress and the enthusiasm and the convention adjourned.

ANOTHER SALOON FIGHTS.

Last night Con's experienced another action brought by investigants were a man named McMurray and Mollie Jones, known as Mollie Fair. As yesterday was Democratic convention day, for one to read up the evidence in the case. The action arose a little way when McMurray, a horse dealer from Idaho, who is here attending the fair, went in and stepped into the saloon to get a glass of beer, and for reasons as to him and Mollie Jones, who was in the saloon, for Brooks entry and threw the glass with the beer at her, hitting him a blow in the face. Mollie Jones, it is said, then ran out and down the street, for she was soon overtaken by the police and placed under arrest for disturbing the peace.
