

CANAL TREATY NEGOTIATED.

Discussed With Languid Interest
By English Press.

BASED ON DAVIS AMENDMENT

No Marked Revival of the Quid Pro Quo Argument—Wiser Councils Prevail.

New York, Oct. 9.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: Rumors that the canal treaty has been negotiated on the basis of the Davis amendment are discussed with languid interest by the English press. There is no marked revival of the quid pro quo argument of which much was made when the Senate amended the former treaty and there is evidence that wiser councils prevailed, and that there is a disposition to settle the canal question in its own way with the confident feeling that it will then turn about and return the favor by disposing in a generous spirit of all controversies affecting Canada.

One comment that is heard is that the American government should find out precisely what is wanted and that the Senate should not increase its demands substantially. American control of one canal is regarded as a convenient set off for British control of the other inter-oceanic waterway.

TWO MEN KILLED.

Proprietor and Patron of a San Diego Saloon Shot Each Other.

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 9.—Two men were killed in a saloon here late last night.

THE DEAD.

James A. Posey, proprietor of the place.

Andy Quinlan, proprietor of a nearby saloon.

Posey was about 50 years old and Quinlan somewhat younger. The two men were standing on opposite sides of the bar. Angry words passed and they drew their revolvers and fired simultaneously. Posey sank down behind the bar and expired almost instantly. Quinlan staggered into the street and fell. He was picked up and taken into a nearby saloon where he died a few minutes later.

Berlin Municipal Matters.

Berlin, Oct. 9.—The Berlin radicals are perplexed by the refusal of the governor of Brandenburg to put before the Prussian minister of the interior the official record of Berlin with a view of obtaining Emperor William's sanction.

The Freisinnige Zeitung says: "What next? The municipal council has the right and is bound to complain to the minister of the interior concerning the governor's action, and ask for a decision from the crown. The governor has no responsibility in the matter except to the minister of the interior. He acts solely as a letter carrier."

The National Zeitung says: "Here Kaufmann's re-election has been rejected even more sharply than by nonconfirmation. At the same time the government has its moderation in desisting from the appointment of a state commissioner."

The re-election has met with the fate we predicted when vainly warning against it. The affair is deplorable. Interest in the restoration of normal relations with the crown and the needs of the administration of the city demand an election that would be sure of confirmation by the crown."

ISAIAH'S "FREE SOCIETY."

Postal Authorities May Not Admit It to the Mails.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Abraham Isaiah, publisher of a paper in Chicago, called "Free Society" formerly the "Firebrand" which was barred from the mails by the Chicago postmaster last week, has applied for re-entry of the publication to the second-class. Postmaster Coyne forwarded a copy of the paper containing an article by Emma Goldman on the assassination of President McKinley for a ruling on the question of its re-entry to the mails under any classification. The department will call on Postmaster Coyne for further information, and will probably test the subscription list of the paper by addressing persons on the list asking them whether they are actually subscribers. This is the actual procedure. There is no law, according to the officials, under which a paper can be barred merely on the ground that it is anarchistic in its utterances.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY RETIRES.

His Active Career in the Navy Ended Yesterday.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Rear-Admiral W. S. Schley ended his active career in the navy today when tomorrow he will go on the retired list by operation of law on account of age. His retirement will have no effect whatever upon the court of inquiry.

John L. Weiss, Private Charles L. McManus.

At the war department it is said that the names of Joseph I. Gordon, Gustave F. Schultzer and John Wannebo are subject to correction later.

The three officers killed in the fight are not mentioned in today's dispatches, their deaths having been reported in a dispatch sent several days ago.

AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker and L. H. Farnsworth at the Capital.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker and Mr. L. H. Farnsworth of Salt Lake City are at the Cochran. Mr. Walker is a very interesting gentleman and the senior member of the Walker bank of Salt Lake, a pioneer institution in the intermountain section, which he and his brothers founded many years ago, and which has been maintained successfully although they were not Mormons, and embarked in their enterprise at a time when the Mormons dominated the economical and financial affairs of Salt Lake City and Utah. He has also been concerned in the development of numerous mines in Utah, beginning this task when the Mormon Church forbade the development of the mineral resources of the Territory. He and Mrs. Walker, who is a very accomplished lady, were received at the White House by the President by special appointment a few days ago, and had a pleasant conversation with Mr. Roosevelt, who recalled the enjoyable trip he had to Utah in 1900, during two days of campaigning there.

"The increase in the mining wealth of Utah is marvelous," said Mr. Farnsworth, who is associated in the banking business with Mr. Walker. While we began to work our mines ten or fifteen years later than most of the adjacent states, we now have more paying mines comparatively than any other state in the Union. The activity in this industry with us now is very marked and has not yet by any means reached its culmination."—Washington Post.

PRIVATE SAUNDERS ALIVE.

Insane Soldier Who Leaped From Train Is Heard From.

Some of the officers at Fort Douglas have received a letter from Private Saunders of the Fourth cavalry, who leaped from the train in a temporary state of insanity, while traveling through the state of Nevada en route to the east. He was returning from the Philippines with the Twelfth battery and when the train was near Carlin, Nevada, traveling at a rate of forty miles an hour, Saunders leaped into the air and the train went on. The soldiers thought he was dead until a letter was received from him yesterday in which he described his experiences and asked for help. Capt. Newbell, at Fort Douglas, responded to the appeal and wired instructions to provide for the soldier until he reaches his post.

Lieut. Frank T. Hines is popular at the post, and consequently the officers and men are making it very pleasant for him.

Mrs. Cronkhite, wife of Capt. Cronkhite, and her two children, have arrived at the post and are comfortably ensconced in one of the pretty cottages.

NO POWER TO ACT.

State Medical Board Drops the Case of Dr. Edward S. Payne.

At the meeting of the state board of medical examiners last night it was decided that the board had no power to revoke the license of Dr. Edward S. Payne of this city on the basis of affidavits furnished by the county attorney's office charging him with having performed an illegal operation on Mrs. Anna Taylor and Miss Alice Crowther. It was held that under the law, Dr. Payne's license could be revoked only upon conviction before a court. The board therefore declares that it can do nothing effectual in the matter until the law is amended or until the complaining witnesses are willing to go into court and testify.

Licenses to practice medicine and surgery in this state, were granted last night to W. L. Gardner and Eva M. W. Gardner, recently from Pocatello; S. J. Townsend and Robinson; George B. Given, of Mant; William Donohoe, of Park City; Miles G. Varian, of Salt Lake and O. H. Avey of Cedar City.

Certificates to practice obstetrics were issued to the following: Edna E. Barber, Anna E. Peterson, Eleanor D. Johnson, Edith Hull, Sata H. Thompson, Anna Quist, Anno O. Pratt, Anna S. Worthington and Anna Landegren, all of Salt Lake City; Mary J. Wood, of Wayne, Ida; Mrs. A. Taylor, of Mancos, Colo., and Margaret B. Nielsen of Spring City.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The nuptials of Miss Zella Barton and Lewis C. Duncan were solemnized today in the Salt Lake Temple. Both the bride and groom were born and raised in this city and they were both employed at the "News" office. Mr. Duncan is the most skillful manufacturer of the wonderful linotype machine in Utah. The young couple never saw each other until a few months ago, when Mr. Duncan stepped down into the office to receive his weekly stipend. It was then their eyes met for the first time and they both knew that their fate was sealed. There will be a reception this evening at the home of the bride, 113 J street.

Mrs. McDonald and daughter Florence leave this week for California where they will make their home.

Mrs. John T. Treasure left on Monday for her home in Rock Springs, Wyoming.

The musical recital to be given tomorrow night by Mr. Eugene Herffly under the auspices of the music section of the Ladies' Literary club, promises to be a notable event. There has been a demand for seats almost beyond the seating capacity of the hall, and Mr. Herffly's musical abilities promise a musical treat.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dooley and Miss Dooley give a reception this evening.

Mrs. L. L. Archer has gone to Nevada to be absent six months.

Col. and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes will arrive home from their eastern trip tomorrow.

Mrs. V. L. Cox left yesterday to join her daughter, Miss Mamie Cox, in Seattle.

Mrs. James Hughes and child leave today for an extended visit in Ireland.

Mrs. Julia Taylor and daughter, Miss Lucile Taylor, leave at the end of the week for New York.

C. M. Phelps, Forestdale, Vt., says his child was completely cured of a bad case of eczema by the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of all counterfeits. It instantly relieves itching and restores the skin to its normal condition. Get the genuine. Corner First South and Main streets.

FOOD FOR THE POOR. PE-RU-NA FOR THE SICK.

Miss Frances Groschel, Secretary of the Menasha Benevolent Society, of 807 Clay Street, Menasha, Wis., writes:

"I heartily endorse Peruna, as I find in my work among the poor and sick in the city that it was a household blessing, bringing health and life back to many a poor family."

"I have used it myself when worn out with the heat or overwork, and have also found it a fine preventative for colds. I believe if Peruna would be issued to the sick as coal and food is issued to the poor, much suffering would be relieved, and from an economic standpoint it is one of the best medicines that could be used."—MISS FRANCES GROSCHL.

Miss Frances M. Smith, 844 Seventh Ave., New York, writes:

"Care and responsibility shattered my nervous system. Like other women under a great strain my system gave way. My food didn't seem to have any taste. My sleep was disturbed. I was just as tired in the morning as I was at night. And there was a lazy, weak feeling over me all day. A friend requested me to try Peruna. I am glad to be able to say that after taking six bottles of it I feel a new woman. My stomach is now in perfect order and I sleep well."—Frances M. Smith.

Miss Frances M. Smith is treasurer of the East Side Ladies' Aid Society. She is connected with a number of benevolent organizations and takes an active interest in the Tenement House movement. She recently appeared before a committee of the Legislature at Albany in favor of Tenement House reform.

Mr. J. F. McGinn, 508 W. Fifth St., New York City, writes:

"Fifteen years of the closest application to my own business undermined my constitution. When I went to bed nights I couldn't sleep and when I got up in the morning I had neither strength nor ambition. I had read so much about Peruna that I decided to try it as a tonic. Six bottles made a wonderful change in me. My stomach is now in perfect condition. I eat with relish and my food does me good. My night's sleep refreshes me and I wake up in the morning bright and active."—J. F. McGinn.

J. F. McGinn was a member of the New York Assembly for one term and a member of the old New York Board of Aldermen (Municipal Council) for two years. He is now connected with the Victoria Hotel on Broadway.

A U. S. Senator's Wife.

Mrs. Verona E. Roach, wife of Senator Roach, of North Dakota, writes from Larimore, N. D.:

"I can cheerfully recommend your excellent remedy, Peruna. Indeed, I know of no other remedy as good as yours. It is a grand tonic."—Verona E. Roach.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

STIRLING, CANADA.

GOOD CROPS WITHOUT WATER.

Growth and Prosperity Abundantly Evidenced—Wedding.

Special Correspondence.

Stirling, Alberta, Canada, Oct. 1.—The crops have been good here this year. Brother Grant's wheat averaged fifty-seven bushels to the acre, with no irrigation water on it. That we think is hard to beat in any other country.

After He Comes

he has a hard enough time. Everything that the expectant mother can do to help her child she should do. One of the greatest blessings God can give him is health, but to do this, she must have health herself. She should use every means to improve her physical condition. She should, by all means, supply herself with

The oats in the same field averaged seventy-five bushels to the acre. Where the ground has been properly cultivated excellent vegetable gardens have been produced. The first killing from here on the 24th of September. Most of the threshing is done. The weather is almost perfect, clear, warm days and cool nights. The big straw stacks and new granaries bespeak the prosperity of the people. New houses are being built and there has been a commendable growth here in the last year. Much ground is being prepared for the next year's crop.

CLARK-RICHARDS NUPTIALS.

Miss Lula E. Clark left here last Saturday night in company with Willard G. Richards of Magrath. They are off for the Salt Lake Temple, and will return man and wife. The intended bride is a daughter of Samuel and Nellie Clark of this place and the groom is a son of Levi and Lula Richards of Salt Lake City. They are an estimable couple and all join in wishing them joy in their holy venture.

OXFORD, IDAHO.

Fisher-Brossard Nuptials—School Suspended Through Scarlet Fever.

Special Correspondence.

Oxford, Hancock Co., Ida, Oct. 6.—The hospitalities of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Fisher were generously extended, at their home Friday evening, October 4, and thoroughly enjoyed by the many friends present at the wedding reception of their oldest daughter, Pearl, who, on Wednesday 2nd inst., in the Logan temple, was joined in matrimony to Clarence J. Brossard. Both of the young people have grown up in Oxford and have many friends who wish them a happy and prosperous life.

A good portion of the community met No. 7, O.S.L. train at the station Sunday afternoon the 6th inst., and heartily welcomed home Elder J. H. Carlson who has just completed an honorable mission of two years' duration in the city of Chicago.

The primary department of the Oxford school commenced Sept. 16, with Miss Maggie Forest, of Pocatello, as teacher. There was a good attendance at the beginning, but during the second week, scarlet fever broke out in the family of Mr. J. W. Baker, and the school board deemed it advisable to discontinue school for a while. Both departments will, however, open tomorrow. Mr. Eli Beckstead having been installed as principal.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Fisher have both accepted positions as teachers in the Mink Creek schools of Oneida county, and began their labors Monday, Sept. 30th.

CLOSE SALOONS ON THE SABBATH

City Council Passes a Stringent Resolution.

ONLY TWO MEMBERS OPPOSE

Robertson and Whittemore Perfectly Satisfied With Existing Conditions in Salt Lake.

Only Councilmen Robertson and Whittemore opposed the Sunday closing resolution last night, but the resolution was adopted by a vote of 11 to 2 after a debate of over an hour's duration. All the members were present except Hewlett and Davis. The report of the committee of the whole read that the chief of police, Mayor and City Council be instructed to see to the Sunday closing, and Edgar Howe moved its adoption, which was seconded by Cottrell.

Fernstrom opened the debate by moving to amend by striking out the words "city council." Cottrell thought that if the Council went out, the Mayor should, too. Robertson said he "smelled politics" in the entire movement. He thought that the members of this Council are putting on a mantle of ultra morality. The Sunday closing law might have been enforced twenty months ago just as well as now. But there are men on this floor who are seeking for re-election. They think that by a hypocritical display of indignation at the laxity of the observance of the law they can make a grandstand play before their constituents. They would like to go before the people this fall and say "Your Mayor refused to enforce the ordinance against Sunday closing until we compelled him to do so."

Hansensten saw no reason why the Mayor should not be included in the resolution. If the ordinance was a bad one he wanted it repealed but if it was good then it was due to the people that it should be lived up to.

Fernstrom then withdrew his motion to strike out the Council. Robertson then launched out on one of his sarcastic tirades. He said among other things that one of the first things he did when he came before the present Council was an ordinance left over from its predecessor, calling for clear glass windows and drawn curtains on Sundays. The ordinance, he said, was referred to the committee of the whole which somehow forgot to meet and take the matter up. He thought that seeing the present administration was so near its close, and had done nothing in the matter so far it would be "honest" to leave it to the next Council. He moved that the matter be referred to the committee on laws and police in order that an ordinance might be drafted restricting the sale of liquor on Sundays. Whittemore seconded the motion.

Dr. Beatty questioned Mr. Robertson's seriousness in proposing such a measure. He thought that the member from the Fifth ought to be aware that no restriction short of absolute prohibition would be practicable. He said he could see no politics in the move. The Council was not divided on party lines. It would be better to have an imperfectly enforced law than no law at all. The Council would, he said, stultify itself if it did not act when it had such a golden opportunity.

Thomas agreed with Dr. Beatty and so did Cottrell. C. R. Howe could not see how a man who voted for the report should lose any votes. Saloon men said there was no suggestion of gain in Mr. Brown's philanthropic proposal, and the street committee will try to unravel the conundrum.

HACK VETO SUSTAINED.

The Council last night sustained the Mayor's veto of the hack stand ordinance, and the matter was referred back to the laws committee.

A. S. Brown asked permission to replace battered streets signs with his own expense. There was no suggestion of gain in Mr. Brown's philanthropic proposal, and the street committee will try to unravel the conundrum.

MEETING OF WAR VETERANS

Officers Are Elected and New Members Are Taken In.

The Indian war veterans of Salt Lake county met last night at the Thirteenth ward meeting house and held the annual election of officers. The election resulted in the choice of Captain Adam Paul to serve again as department commander; W. L. Binder, vice commander; C. H. Banks, assistant adjutant general; James Hague, assistant quartermaster general; James E. Malin, chaplain; delegates to the state encampment next August; Alma Pratt, E. Jeremy, John R. Jones, Richard Carlisle, Willard Snow, Henry Bird and Orson P. Arnold.

The new members enrolled are W. P. Appleby, Thomas Dodson, William M. Ball, James Hague, N. P. Gray, John W. Snell, Henry Coulam and James E. Malin.

MAY BE THE ISSUE.

Deseret S. S. Union to Support Candidate Favoring Sunday Saloon Closing.

A meeting was held in the offices of the Deseret Sunday School Union in the Templeton block last evening at which were present representatives of the Mutual Improvement Association, the Deseret Sunday School Union and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The object of the meeting was to define the course the societies will take in the present campaign in relation to the saloon question. H. J. Walker of the Sunday school committee said that the Sunday schools proposed to see that the saloons were closed on Sunday and they would support whatever candidate would enforce the ordinance regardless of his political affiliations.

George A. Smith representing the Y. M. C. A. made a few forceful remarks in favor of a good moral atmosphere and thought that if the fight were waged with morality vs immorality there were enough right thinking people in the city to carry the fight for the former.

Mr. Cutler said that the Sunday schools would support the candidate who would stand unalterably in favor of keeping the saloons closed on Sunday.

Mr. Badger pleaded for quick action in the matter and a whole hearted movement. After considerable discussion the meeting adjourned without taking any definite step, but there will be a meeting Friday evening at which no doubt decisive action will be taken. The Young People's Christian Union, the Ministerial association and the Y. M. C. A. will be invited to send representatives to the meeting which will be held in room 401 Templeton building, at 7:30 o'clock.

Those present last evening were the Misses Felt and Thatcher of the Y. M. C. A.; Miss Anna Baker of the Y. M. C. T. U.; George A. Smith and Carl A. Badger of the Y. M. M. L. A.; and H. J. Walker, H. S. Cutler, J. W. Saville and Eugene M. Cannon of the Deseret Sunday School Union.

30 Minutes

of soak and rinse with Pearline washing for every hour of hard rubbing with old-fashioned washing. You save half the time. It's easier, pleasanter, healthier work. Soaking the clothes in Pearline and water loosens the dirt so that you rinse it out with little or no rubbing. This soaking is absolutely harmless to the clothes; takes hold better, does the work more thoroughly, makes it easier to get things clean than with any soap.
