

THAT GALT MATTER.

The tale told in the following explanation of the Galt matter is a true one.

Samuel Pillingford, the daughter of William Pillingford of Longmont, Colorado, married the late Mr. Galt.

One of the first things which Mrs. Galt did after her marriage was to visit her father and mother at Longmont. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Mary Galt, and her brother, Mr. John Galt.

On the way to Longmont, the party stopped at a small town called "Galt's." Here they were met by a man who claimed to be the son of Mr. Galt.

This man, who was named "John Galt," claimed to be the son of Mr. Galt and to be the owner of the property which Mrs. Galt had inherited from her father.

Mrs. Galt was very much interested in this man's story and was inclined to believe him.

She was also very much interested in the fact that this man claimed to be the son of Mr. Galt.

She was also very much interested in the fact that this man claimed to be the owner of the property which Mrs. Galt had inherited from her father.

and are entitled to the support of the people. By dealing with the merchants who give preference to the sale of Home Made goods, you help the Home Industry.

You help to give employment to worthy people; you help to keep money at home, which circulates in our midst and you get back a part of that money again in your business or profession. Keep this in mind; every dollar expended for Utah made goods, means more employment for honest labor; every dollar expended for goods manufactured elsewhere, means less employment for somebody living elsewhere, and whose interests are generally not with us. "Clearly begins at home." This is a time for both common sense and patriotism.

When you wish to buy anything, be sure to look over the following list before making your purchase:
