Injunction Dissolved—A Loss.

NEW ORLEANS, 23.—The injunction recently issued against the school at the instance of Paul Trevigne forbidding the board from establishing separate schools for white and colored children was, today, dissolved by Judge Righter, of the Sixth district court.

A syndicate of eminent financiers in Europe have proposed to loan the State of Louisiana $12,000,000, with which the State must call in and pay off her present debt at par, with interest to date of retirement. The State must then issue the same amount of bonds to the syndicate, bearing 5 per cent. interest, principal and interest made payable in forty years. Under this arrangement the State would be required to pay only about $550,000 per annum on account of principal and interest, instead of $800,000 which is now required to pay interest on the State bonds. It is believed, however, that this proposition cannot, under the Constitution and present State laws be accepted.

Simon Cameron the Man—Hayes will Veto.

CHICAGO, 23.—The Times' Washington special says the English mission having for a long time gone begging, and Secretary Evarts having dropped Don Cameron a note requesting his advice as to who should have it, that Senator was too delicate to suggest his father, but has called a meeting of the republicans of Pennsylvania, at his house, and they unanimously settled on Simon Cameron as the man for the place. The cabinet has the matter under advisement, and it is difficult to see how Simon's appointment can be avoided.

It is stated the President has said that if Congress passes a bill repealing the resumption act, he will veto it.

Don't Believe in the Ostrich Policy.

The Tribune's Washington special says the newspaper publications of the doings of private caucuses of the State delegations are denounced as infamous betrayals of confidence. It happens, however, that many republicans attend these meetings who do not believe in the ostrich policy, and whose refuse to allow any clique of men, for their own purposes, to use a party gag and whip to keep from the public the very acts of their representatives, and so the public is pretty well informed of the sentiment here. The fact is patent that many republicans in Congress disagree with the President on some features of his policy. The most astonishing feature is that an experienced cabinet and members should think the public deceived as to the real sentiments of the party or that final adjustment of differences can be avoided by postponement. The plans already proposed for adjusting the differences are as cowardly as impolitic. The few leaders declare unity paramount. Others say that skilled democratic politicians will soon compel the House to meet squarely the issues pending, and directly approve or disapprove of the administration, and that every republican member must be left to vote according to his conviction, regardless of the result.

Removal of Troops.

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., 23.—The United States troops, stationed here since the riot troubles, leave to-morrow.

An Interpretation of Hayes' Order Wanted.

WASHINGTON, 23.—The republican Senators and Representatives, friendly to the administration, are earnestly endeavoring to draw from the President an authoritative interpretation of his order concerning office-holders' participation in politics, which shall officially state that it was not intended to forbid office-holders actively supporting party nominations, but only to prevent their dictating whom the party should nominate. These friends of the President have advised at least two members the Cabinet that if he does not take some such action, the republicans will certainly lose all the States in which elections will be held next month. After which, they intimate that he need expect no consideration with his party.

Senator Wallace's Long Bond Bills.

The bill introduced by Senator Wallace, to authorize a long bond for the investment of savings, directs the Secretary of the Treasury to issue, in lieu of an equal amount of 4 per cent. bonds, authorized by the act of July 14, 1870, a sum not exceeding $100,000,000 of United States coupon bonds, in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, in equal sums, each denomination redeemable in coin of the present standard value after sixty years from the date of their issue, and bearing interest, payable semi-annually, in such coin, at the rate of 3.65 per cent. per annum. These bonds are to be exempt from all taxation. The remainder of the bill is as follows: The Secretary of the Treasury shall keep said bonds for sale at the different sub-treasuries, and shall dispose of the same at par and accrued interest for coin or for United States legal tender notes, at the rate at which they may then stand in the market, and such legal tender notes shall be re-issued, but their proceeds and the coin received for such bonds shall be applied to the redemption of outstanding 5.20 bonds of the United States.

Anxiety About the Hayes Policy.

There is a good deal of anxiety expressed regarding the probable introduction of a resolution in the House endorsing the presidential policy, and several of the House party leaders say, that although they do not intend to antagonize the President, they are not quite ready to either endorse or disapprove his course, and will, therefore, do all they can to prevent the introduction of any such resolution. None can now be introduced, under the rules, before Monday at the earliest.

More Railroad Trouble.

PITTSBURG, 23.—Trouble has occurred at a point near here, where the Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railroad tracks are being laid across the tracks of the Lawrence and Newcastle road. The workmen have torn up the track twice and trouble is expected to-night.

Leading oil men, to-day, resolved to protect the market against the bear raid of the refining company.

FOREIGN.

FRANCE.

No Ministerial Changes—Imprisoned.

PARIS, 23.—The Moniteur, semi-official, says at the close of this morning's council, President MacMahon plainly informed Messrs. De Broglie and Fourtou that the idea of ministerial changes could not be entertained at the present moment.

The tribunal of Marennes sentenced Deputy Mestreau to one month's imprisonment and 2,000 francs' fine for insulting President MacMahon and the ministers.

Banquet to Gen. Grant.

Leading American residents of Paris met at the American legation to-day, and decided to give Gen. Grant a splendid subscription banquet on Saturday. Five hundred guests, including ladies, have been invited. Minister Noyes informed the meeting that President MacMahon would not be present at the dinner at the legation on Monday, but would at the subsequent reception. Gen. Grant will probably visit President MacMahon on Tuesday. On Wednesday President MacMahon will give a dinner at the Elysee to Gen. Grant and the American legation.

SPAIN.

Religious Toleration.

MADRID, 23.—It is announced that a ministerial circular will shortly be issued, stating that the spirit of the constitution favors a large and comprehensive toleration of dissenting religions.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 23.—A correspondent at Biela reports that the Czarowitch is pushing forward against Rasgrad, leaving one corps to operate against Rustchuk.

The Post authoritatively denies that Col. Valentine Baker and other English officers have been sent to Constantinople.

A correspondent telegraphs from Ragusa that the inhabitants of Wassowitch district, Montenegro, numbering 21,000 are stricken with famine.

An Erzeroum dispatch, dated Tuesday, contains the following: Mukhtar Pasha is safe. He occupies a strong position at Yenickoi, west of the Saghanlu Dagh. Ismail Pasha's retreat and junction with Mukhtar is seriously menaced.

The London Grain Market.

The Mark Lane Express says: The weather this autumn has been very favorable to northern agriculturists, and the apprehensions felt some five or six weeks ago for the ultimate safety of the crops proved groundless. In the north, wintry weather has set in, accompanied by a heavy fall of snow, and the outstanding corn, which, however, is inconsiderable, will stand little or no chance of ripening. Farmers appeared determined to lose no time in sowing, and have been devoting their energies thereto rather than threshing. This is testified to by the small supplies which have been received at the country markets, and also by the active demand for seed wheat. Under this pressure an advance of one to two shillings per quarter has taken place in some instances. The improvement, however, has not been felt in Mark Lane, where factors have not been successful in establishing an advance. Nevertheless, the tone of the market has not been depressed for English wheat. To the natural inherent strength of trade, based upon the enormous consumption requirements of the country, must be attributed the fact that, although last Monday's return showed that the week's imports of foreign wheat into London was nearly 90,000 quarters, previous rates were maintained for all except American and Indian descriptions. We have now very nearly arrived at that period which may be considered a crisis in the trade as far as regards the influence of imports upon prices. The rapid approach of winter will positively withdraw Russia as a source of supply, and if so marked a decline takes place before the actual closing of the Baltic ports there appears sufficient strength in trade to withstand the action of America without any present range of values undergoing any alteration during the winter. These remarks must only be considered of value supposing no outrage takes place in political affairs, as any pacific demonstrations on the part of the contending nations would as certainly weaken the situation as a sudden termination of the war in the east would depress the value of wheat.

AUSTRIA.

Mobilization.

VIENNA, 23.—Russia has ordered the mobilization of all Cossacks not yet in active service. These will amount to ninety-one regiments.

WEST INDIES.

Confiscated Property.

HAVANA, 23.—The Official Gazette publishes a royal decree authorizing the minister for the colonies to grant certain indulgencies for penalties imposed by civil tribunals and courts martial on those guilty of treason and rebellion.

The Infidencia property confiscated to the State on account of such treason will be restored on appeal in due form to the government, if the recusants submit within the term of four months. The returned property will not be permitted to be sold on mortgage until two years after the entire pacification of the Island. The proceeds of said property, until its return, are to be applied to the war fund, and no reclamation will be allowed for indemnification for total or partial destruction.

GERMANY.

Exciting Debate Anticipated.

BERLIN, 23.—The Prussian Diet met yesterday. An important and exciting debate is to take place on Friday on the resignation of Count Von Eulenberg, Minister of Justice, and on the continued absence of Prince Bismarck from the capital. The debate is likely to extend to the constitutional relations between the Cabinet and Diet. Deficit of 15,000,000 marks is anticipated in the German exchequer.
