Fontainebleau on Fire—Rebellion in Central Asia.

LONDON, 15.—Lispatches from Paris bring the rumor that a portion of the forest of Fontainebleau is on fire.

FRANCE.

Votes of Urgency Carried.

PARIS, 15.—The constitutional bill prepared by the Left Centre was introduced in the Assembly to-day, and the vote of urgency was carried by 345 against 311.

The chamber of the Assembly to-day was crowded with deputies and spectators. Casimir Perier introduced the constitutional bill of the Left Centre, and moved that its consideration be declared urgent. He said the country demanded the termination of the provisional state, and urged union again Bonapartism and demagogism.

The speaker was frequently interrupted by the Right, and warmly applauded by the Left. Laboulaye supported the motion. He said that recent events had shown the danger of a provisional condition, that a monarchy was impossible, and that a republic was the government for all, and that its establishment would inspire the country with confidence.

Gen. Changarnier, of the Right Centre, and Raoul Duval of the Right, opposed the resolution. The Kerdal, of the Right, warned the members that if the majority of the Assembly was changed, Marshal MacMahon would resign his duty to resign the Presidency. The vote was then taken on urgency, and resulted in year 345, nays 311. All the ministers voted against it. The bill was referred to a committee of thirty.

La Rocheboucaud and the Duc de Bisaccia, of the extreme right, then introduced the following resolution, which was read amid profound silence: "The Assembly declares that the government of France is a monarchy; that the throne belongs to the head of the house of Bourbon; that the title of Marshal may assume the title of Lieutenant of the Kingdom, and that the national institutions shall be determined by an agreement between the king upon a committee of representatives." Great excitement followed the reading of the resolution. La Rocheboucaud moved that it be referred to a committee of thirty, but the motion was rejected by a majority of 100. The ministers, with the exception of Falloux, voted against it. The Assembly adjourned till tomorrow.

It is stated that La Rocheboucaud resigned his position as ambassador to Great Britain before introducing the resolution. The Bonapartist deputies held a conference before to-day's sitting, and came to the conclusion that it would be useless to introduce a counter motion against the Deft Centre.
