Notice.—Sunday School children from eight to twelve years of age will please meet Prof. C. J. Thomas at the New Tabernacle, to-morrow (Wednesday) evening at 5 o'clock. The adult choirs will also pleas meet him at the same place on Thursday evening at half past seven. Parents and Sunday School teachers are respectfully requested to use their influence in securing a full attendance of children at the meeting to-morrow evening; the time for rehearsals is now limited, and as there is considerable work to do a full attendance, at each rehearsal called, of all who are to take part in the Jubilee, is indispensa-

Left Behind.-Day before yesterday three well known individuals could have been seen a few miles south of this City, with elongated countenances, making their way to town, one of them hugging a sus picious-looking stone bottle. Just before that, a spanking team attached to a buggy had dashed along the road northward, making breakneck time to the City. The explanation of the trio was that they had get out of the carriage to take a drink of water, when the horses left them. The appearance of the three denoted, however, that the water might have been considerably diluted.
