Three Crooks Do Not Relish Either Day or the Date.

"Friday the thirteenth," with apologies to Hon. Thomas W. Lawson, might be termed the title of a little drama to be enacted in Judge Diehl's court one week from today.

The case is that of the state vs. W. H. Appleyer, Lee Blend and George Howard, charged with burglary and larceny. The defendants are three of the four men arrested Saturday morning last for entering a room in the Cliff House and by means of threats of instant death, robbed two railroad men of about $50 in cash, a gold watch and chain and a gold article. The fourth man, Edward Carroll, slipped by under Wilkinson Monday morning, went out with the chain gang and made his escape.

The three remaining defendants, by counsel, entered pleas of not guilty in Judge Diehl's court this morning, and the trial date was set for the afternoon of Friday the thirteenth.

It is understood the accused do not relish the idea of being placed on trial on that date. As to Carroll's feelings in the matter, nothing is known, as he neglected to leave his address when he quit the gang and so far has not set fit to communicate with the police.

"Doan's statement cured me of scepticism and had convinced me a long time. The cure was permanent," Hon. W. Matthews, Commissioner Labor Statistics, August, Me.

FREDENTHAL IS HELD.

Al Fredenthal, charged with assault with a deadly weapon on a man named Hills, will have to face the district court on the charge named in the complaint. Yesterday, Fredenthal was given a preliminary hearing and Judge Diehl took the case under advisement. It is understood the state has made out a prima facie case although he expressed the opinion that the man would not be convicted by the jury. The ball was left to the people fixed was allowed to stand.

Yours respectfully,
ADOLPH SCHATZ."

We repeat with increased vehemence that the ordinary safe is neither protection against burglar, fire or water.

We urge you to put your valuable possessions in safe vaults, where fire cannot reach them, where moth doth not corrupt nor thieves break through and steal.

TESTING WOODS.

Three of the largest associations of hickory manufacturers, the National Wagon Makers Association, the Carriage Builders' National Association, and the National Hickory Association have completed a series of co-operative tests with the United States Forest Service and the trade considers the results important. The tests covered a close study of the problems of different types of wood used in vehicles and implements, supplemented by mechanical tests to ascertain the relative strength of different woods and different forms of construction and to test the accuracy of the present system of grading.

ERRORS IN GRADING.

In a report of the tests made by H. B. Holroyd, forest assistant, and H. S. Betts, engineer in timber tests, of the forest service, the fact is brought out that there is an error of over 50 per cent in the grading of vehicle stock due largely to the practice of manufacturers against the use of red hickory.

It is shown that in clear stock weight for weight, the red hickory is as strong as the white. By bringing this fact to the attention of the manufacturers, it is hoped that much of the hickory which was formerly left as waste in the woods will be utilized by the trade and thus prolong the rapidly disappearing supply of hickory.

SUPPLY LIMITED.

Such practical results as are given in the report, when a letter to the forest service, at Washington, was written for any one who wishes to get information on the different types of hickory, it is shown conclusively the value of such studies in solving problems connected with the grading of stock, the utilization of new for old woods, and the conserving of our future supply of timber. The supply of good hickory in the trade is limited.

To start with, this company has never bought or sold a pound of eastern butter on this market or any other market. In the past year we have handled about one million pounds of butter and our product is equal to that which is bought from Utah and Idaho creameries. Every pound of this butter has been of the very highest and best grade that we could buy or manufacture, and from the best creameries in this section and we do not think that there has been one iota of our butter questioned by state or government officials as being impure or adulterated, or in any manner below the standard grade.

We are opposed and have been to the dumping of cheap inferior butter on this market as long as there is sufficient quantity manufactured in our own state for our own consumption, and any steps that may be taken toward excluding from our market cheap eastern products of this kind shall have our very earnest support.

We will continue our regular weekly quoting three grades of butter at three distinct prices: Elgin Extras, Utah Creameries and Utah Storage for which there is a steady and growing demand at relative prices.

Elgin Dairy, Creamery & Supply Co. is ready to supply private plantings of the tree, whose wood is becoming more precious each year.

AS TO SUBSTITUTES.

Reports are made from time to time of the discovery of suitable substitutes for hickory in foreign countries. The two woods which come nearest to having the quality of the hickory seem to be mahogany and teakwood, and the teak wood, both of Australia. Only time will tell whether these woods will prove satisfactory substitutes. In the meantime, American hickory users will be obliged to conserve the present supply and take steps to guarantee a future supply by developing private plantings of the tree, whose wood is becoming more precious each year.

UNEQUALLED AS A CURE FOR CROUP.

Besides an excellent remedy for colds and throat troubles, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is unequalled as a cure for croup. When given so soon as the croupy cough appears, this remedy will prevent the attack. It is used successfully in many thousands of homes. For sale by druggists.

LIKES DENVER SCHOOLS.

Supt. John W. Smith Returns from Trip to Washington.

John W. Smith, superintendent of the Jordan school district, who was a delegate to the late National Educational convention at Washington, D. C., arrived home today. He visited various places in the east after the gathering was over and on his way home stopped two or three days in Denver, where a thorough inspection was made of the public schools and one of them is devoted entirely to manual training. This latter is said to be overflowing and commands high prices. Nearly all of the students making application for entrance. Regular graduation takes place from the grades twice each year, and one principal told Mr. Smith that 65 of his pupils desired to enter the manual training high school, while no accommodation was provided for over 35.

Mr. Smith spoke of the high terms of the proceedings of the convention. He says the visitors from Utah were treated most kindly and that the papers read by Superintendent Nelson and Prof. William M. Stewart were listened to with great interest. Mr. Nelson's contribution was "Relation of Prof. Stewart discussed the "whole subject in line with the convention as to the relative values of agricultural and normal schools in the education of teachers."

Middleton, Conn., 12 of Feb., 1908.—Dear Sir: Read in the News Paper that you got to see 15,000 people in the city. The weather was terrible. Friday the thirteenth.
