

SALT LAKERS IN GOTHAM

"Janet" Visits Washington and Calls on Utah's Senators and Representative Relief Society Reception in New York—Broadway Rouse and His Peculiarities.

Special Correspondence.

New York, March 10, 1902.—Washington is noted as the second most beautiful city in the United States. New Orleans is said to excel the capital in point of situation, and luxuriance of flowers and foliage, but it is doubtful if there can be found a cleaner or more fascinating place to live in than Washington. Its public parks, trees, flowers, and broad streets, are the admiration of foreigner and native alike.

It is a great theatrical town, every playhouse being filled the whole season. Maude Adams is now there for a two weeks' engagement, and "standing room only" is the sign at every performance. It may seem strange, but it is not a musical place; the opera rarely visits it, and concerts are scarcely known, but society just revels in dinners, teas and social entertainments. There is quite a colony of Utah people living in Washington, and being a visitor for a few days, we felt it a duty and a pleasure also, to call upon our two senators and our congressman at the Capitol, Hon. J. L. Rawlins, Hon. Thos. Kearns, and Hon. George Sutherland. Mr. Rawlins being an old friend, a very pleasant few moments were spent in recalling mutual acquaintances in Salt Lake. Mr. Sutherland, although a stranger to us till now, proved to be a most delightful gentleman. I believe there is an impression abroad that he is exceedingly popular with all Utah people, and certainly his affability and generosity here have endeared him to everyone from home. Senator Kearns being out of the city for the day, we were unable to meet him, but from all we hear, he too, is very popular in Washington. It was with regret that we learned of his absence. The writer, accompanied by Miss Grace Cannon, devoted the day to listening to speeches in the senate and house, and in taking lunch in the famous restaurant of the Capitol.

Hon. Frank J. Cannon, our former senator, with his wife, and two daughters, Zannie and Olive, has been in Washington for the past year. Their eldest daughter, Mrs. Alonzo Hyde, Jr., has been visiting them for a few weeks, and left for Salt Lake March 1, her mother accompanying her. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon have held services every Sunday in their rooms on Twenty-second street and Pennsylvania avenue, since they came to Washington. As there is no branch of our Church here, they conduct a Sunday school, which gives way to regular sacrament service when any of the Elders are here. These of the Saints who are residing, or visiting here, are welcome in joining in these pleasant reunions. During the women's convention, two weeks ago, some interesting meetings were held at Mr. Cannon's place, Mrs. E. B. Wells, Mrs. M. Y. Douglass, Mrs. Susa Y. Gates, and Mrs. Beattie, Smoot, and Dusenberry participating.

Mr. Israel E. Willey is an employee of the census department, who was appointed by Senator Kearns; he is also a student of the Columbia law school, which he attends evenings. With his wife, who was formerly Miss Emily Cannon, and his sister-in-law, Miss Grace Cannon, he occupies a cosy flat on East Capitol street. They also have a brand new baby there, which is the pride and admiration of the colony.

Mr. Ben Leroy Rich, son of President Ben E. Rich, is a messenger at the senate, and also a law student of Columbia school; he lives at 606 North Carolina Ave., where he and his wife, always extend a warm welcome to any Utah friends; he is certainly well-fitted for the position he fills, having a fine address and a courteous bearing to everyone.

There are also five young men from Utah here who are engaged in different occupations. Claude King of Philmores, who is attending the National law school; Mr. Boshard of Provo, and Mr. Dunning, who are employed at the census office. Mr. Nelson, brother of A. C. Nelson, superintendent of public schools of Utah, is acting as private secretary to Congressman Sutherland, and Walter Hurd is secretary to Senator Rawlins.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Ford are living at Tacoma Park. Their two daughters, Mrs. Grace Lawrence, and Miss Cherry Ford, are with them. Mrs. Ford was formerly Miss Seraph Young, daughter of Brigham H. Young. She left Utah with her husband many years ago, and has been unable to visit her home since, Mr. Ford being an invalid. It has required all her time to care for him; her unselfish devotion is well known by all her friends.

Miss Agnes R. Lane, so well remembered by the people of the Brooklyn conference, is engaged by the Chase Stock company and is playing this week in Washington. She is doing fine work, but it is too hard a life and is beginning to tell on her health. She is an ambitious girl, and deserves all the praise she is getting from the management and the papers. She is greatly missed in our New York circle, and we are looking forward to her return this summer with much pleasure.

At the Sunday services in the rooms of Hon. F. J. Cannon, we met a Mrs. Shilling, formerly of Utah, but now a resident of Washington. She is a sister of Mrs. Curtis of Logan, so well known there for her many charities, and also as the proprietor of the Temple boarding house. Mrs. Shilling's husband is in Oregon at present, but she and her daughters have a large rooming house on Twelfth street, near New York avenue. It was a pleasure to meet her, and have a chat on mutual friends in Logan. She is a faithful attendant at all the meetings here whenever the opportunity presents itself.

In the corridor of the capitol, the familiar face of Mr. Charles Walker of Salt Lake was seen. He and his wife are at the Raleigh for a few weeks.

The New York Relief society of the Latter-day Saints tendered a reception on March 6 at Winterburn hall, 250 west Twenty-third street, to the visiting ladies of the home Relief society, who have been in Washington attending the convention. Mrs. E. B. Wells, Mrs. Annie T. Hyde, Mrs. Susa Y. Gates, Mrs. M. Y. Douglass, Mrs. Ida Dusenberry, Mrs. P. Y. Beattie and

Mrs. Teenie Taylor, officers of the Relief society, and Mrs. C. S. Burton, Mrs. Catherine Laine, are acting president in the absence of Agnes Rose Lane. A fine program was given, Frost, McQuarrie making an address of welcome which was followed by a song from Miss Ruth Wilson, Mr. O. U. Bean gave a reading from his play of "Cointinon," which will be produced in Utah at the Elks' carnival in August. Miss Emma Lucy Gates sang Mascagni's "Ave Maria," and Elder Lawrence Taylor gave a guitar solo. Selden J. Clawson gave a historical narrative, "The Charge of Balaklava," followed by a recitation from Mrs. Davis. Dancing was next in order, and was interspersed by songs from Miss Gates. A very nice luncheon was served, making the evening one of pure enjoyment. Maj. R. W. Young, Col. N. W. Clayton, wife and daughter, Mr. Robert Patrick, Jr., and the entire "colony" were present to welcome our friends from home. Mrs. Annie Hyde very feelingly thanked the people for their hearty reception, and by request Mrs. Susa Y. Gates spoke for a few minutes. It was a most enjoyable time for everyone, and one long to be remembered by our visitors, as well as by those who are making their homes in New York.

In the death of Charles Broadway Rouse, the blind millionaire, New York has parted with an eccentric landmark, and Broadway, from which famous thoroughfare he took his name, has lost one of its best-known figures. Mr. Rouse was a character, a type, a mixture of southern loyalty and northern grit and perseverance. He was known in the commercial world for the honesty and uprightness of his dealings. It was his proud boast that he "owed no man a dollar." His method of business was unique; high wages he never paid, and every man in his employ was given his wages each night. Nearly three years ago Mr. R. C. Easton was introduced to Mr. Rouse by a friend, and from that time until he died a week ago, "Bob" was always a welcome guest at the house. He had a peculiar way of addressing his friends, and when Mr. Easton sang "Annie Laurie" for him, he at once gave him the name of "Bobby Burns," which name has clung to him ever since. Mr. Rouse entertained every Sunday evening, and those he liked were invited to dine with him at 7 o'clock. "Bobby Burns" received this invitation, and it held good as long as Mr. Rouse lived. He was an atheist, a great admirer of Robert Ingersoll and always attended Mr. Ingersoll's lectures during his life time. He was known as a great philanthropist; his public gifts have been printed far and wide, but his many private acts of charity, which he showered upon those less fortunate than himself, are the deeds that are recorded in heaven.

JANET.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

Awaits the eyes of the fair ones of Salt Lake and vicinity. In this Exposition will be found a large assemblage of dainty, recherche models from Gay Paris, the Home of Millinery Inspiration, as well as the many chic and striking Novelties of American origin whose footsteps never lag in the fashionable procession. The value giving Millinery Power of our store will be demonstrated anew by the Display of small prices--as it is our object to make it known as the Millinery Corner, where variety and style can be had for less money than elsewhere. Keep your eye on this Department and watch our window Beautiful White Dress Fabrics.

Cobwebby, tissue white Novelties for Graduating and Confirmation Dresses simple and girlish in their Beauty. Most Exquisite and varied Stock in this city, so hundreds of people say. If we undertook to tell of all, it would take this entire Page--there would be so much, but if you'll come you'll surely find just what you want--and the price will suit you.

We quote some of them for they have peculiar claims for favor: Paris Brillante, Satin A Jour, Mateo Crepe, Mercerized Damasses. The new Plumetis, French Lawns, Wash Chiffons, Mercerized Grenadine, Silk Finished Persian Lawns, and there are dozens of others.

Effective Styles in New Spring Trimmings.

Choice, Select and Exclusive Novelties are here in endless variety. From the least to the most Expensive. All beautiful, all precious to the eyes of those, who love symmetry and its felicitous expression.

You will find it interesting to see them and there is not a doubt of your finding just the thing to strike your fancy.

For everything adapted for spring, 1902, Dress Garmentures is to be found here and Prices of Starting Littleless on All.

THE NEW AND FASHIONABLE SUITS

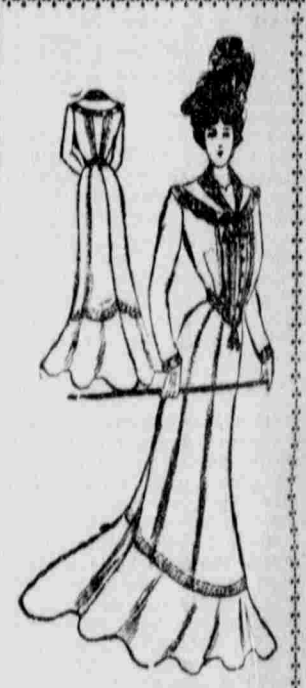

They are not tailor made suits, strictly speaking. They are what should be called Demi Costumes. Of course they are designed by tailors, made and finished by tailors (and high class tailors, too), trimming is the feature that drops the plain tailor-made effect from them.

Our First Suit Display

Should create quite a furore among the lovers of beautiful effects in feminine dress.

OUR PRICES.

are not thrown on to the cost haphazard. Every garment is closely scrutinized. GOOD VALUE is uppermost in our minds. Because a suit or any other garment is exceptionally good we do not figure it "AT ALL THE TRAFFIC WILL BEAR." Our limit is struck, and that means the LOWEST PRICE that ever that garment could be retailed at, from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

BEAUTIFUL STYLES at....

$15. $18.50 $20. $22.50 $25. $30. to $55.

THE NEWEST AND MOST FASCINATING WASH FABRICS.

Charming airy summer fabrics. Our showing just now is at the high tide of perfection. Supremacy in this department is a law. There must be more here than elsewhere, and better. The varieties must be greater and choosing easier. Then the prices must give every customer every possible advantage. So it is with our cotton fabrics. Think of anything that Best Makers have made best this year and you will find it here. The Cotton Conjurings of all lands are exhibited. All wants are represented. Too many weaves and styles to describe, the handsomest are:

Mohair Silk Embroidered Grenadines. Hand loom Embroidered Mohair Swisses. Embroidered Linen Etamine. Embroidered Sole More. Embroidered French Batistes, Gage Traverses. Persian and Satin Stamped Linen Batiste. Sole Brilliant. Pine Apple Mohair Grenadines. Gauge de Sole. Argentine Foulards. Nebulose a Bande and the Reliable McBride Irish Dimities.
