CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Bill Passed.

WASHINGTON, 10.—Hamlin moved that the twelfth section, which provides that only the package or case containing the items undervalued shall be forfeited, was agreed to.

The section stricken out in committee of the whole, which provides for the examination of books and papers upon the order of a court, was reinserted, and amended so as to allow the owner to be present when they were examined, and to have the custody of them when they were not being examined in court, and the section was then adopted and the bill read a third time and passed, 38 to 8.

Coukling opposed the bill as one of the most extraordinary ever formed, and predicted that it would return to torment its inventors, that it would greatly impair the revenues of the government and produce disorder. He took occasion to defend the action of the government officials in the Phelps, Dodge and Co. case, and argued in favor of the forfeiture of the entire invoice, for fraud in part, as the only way to arrest frauds.

Edmunds agreed that Phelps, Dodge & Co. were guilty, and got off remarkably easy.

Stewart's motion was rejected, 12 to 31.

Sargent moved to amend the 12th section by changing the penalty so as to make the fine not to exceed five thousand nor less than five hundred, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, agreed to.

HOUSE.

Geneva Award Bill Passed.

WASHINGTON, 10.—Bass opposed, Wilson, of Ind., supported, Butler's substitute.

Eldredge favored conveying into the treasury the money paid under the Geneva award.

Frye, of Maine, spoke of the influence of insurance companies on Congress, and said they even sent some of the best lawyers in the country to Geneva, where they appeared at the same time as the counsel for the United States and now send them here as lobbyists. He mentioned the name of Evarts in this connection, and Tremaine defended the latter from the imputation, while Butler, of Mass., repeated the charge. Frye continued his speech, and repeated the statement made yesterday, that the amendment in relation to mutual insurance companies was got into the bill by a fraud. He wanted the clause struck out, and mutual insurance companies placed on the same footing as stock companies, to be paid in case they lost, and only in that case.

Ward, of Ills., and Hale, of Me., spoke in favor of Butler's substitute.

At 3 o'clock Butler, of Mass., rose to close the debate.

Poland complained that the time had not been fairly apportioned to the minority of the committee, and asked Butler to yield fifteen minutes to Beck. Butler declined, notwithstanding Poland rather persistently urged the request, and proceeded with his argument. He presented statistics showing the immense profits of one mutual insurance company, and said it came here now, and asked for nearly four and a half millions to be added to the amount it had already robbed the sailors and merchants of, by its war premiums of ten, fifteen and twenty per cent.

At the close of Butler's speech he yielded five minutes to Starkweather, who spoke in favor of Butler's substitute, after which the House proceeded to vote on the bill and the amendments. Frye's amendment striking out of Butler's substitute the proviso in relation to mutual insurance companies was agreed to, yeas 137, nays not counted. The various amendments offered by Tremaine to the Butler substitute were rejected. Poland's substitute was rejected, yeas 92 nays 141. Eldredge then moved to lay the whole subject on the table, rejected, 59 to 107. Butler's substitute for the Senate bill was then adopted, 132 to 10, and the title was changed to "A bill to provide for the just and equitable distribution of the moneys paid in pursuance of the Geneva Award."

EASTERN.

The Mitchell Scandal.

WASHINGTON, 10.—Senator Mitchell appeared before the Senate committee on privileges and elections to day, in answer to the charges relating to the alleged scandal connected with his early life. He invited and challenged the fullest investigation into all the charges preferred against him. The committee then privately considered the matter and, as a result of their full deliberations, unanimously came to the conclusion that there was not a sufficient basis for any charge preferred against Mitchell, to justify any further investigation, and they directed their chairman to report to the Senate accordingly.

WESTERN.

Another Suicide—Two Earthquake Shocks—Hot Weather.

SAN FRANCISCO, 10.—There was another suicide to-day: George S. Mull, bookkeeper for ex-mayor Selby, took poison.

There were two severe shocks of earthquake this evening at Mission San Jose, but they were not felt here.

The weather here and throughout the State is excessively warm.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

An Important Congress.

LONDON, 10.—The Times Berlin correspondent says that the Congress, which assembles at Brussels next month, to consider the subject of international rights in time of war, will first codify the recognized usages of international law which affect the actual conduct of war; it will then enact a new code in the form of an international treaty, which promises to become the first law common to the whole world. A draft of the treaty has been made. It has 76 clauses, stating the rights, obligations and mutual claims of belligerent States and individuals, and specifying what arms may be legitimately used in war, and making regulations for the treatment of prisoners.

Cambetta Insulted—Cotton Mill Burned—Protective Alliance Formed—Trouble with Turkey and Egypt.

The Paris correspondent of the Daily News reports that while Gambetta was waiting for the Versailles trains he was hustled and insulted by a band of well known Bonspartists, led by Moalon M. Pietres, former secretary, and Cassanova, an officer of the Imperial Guard; the latter attempted to strike Gambetta.

The extensive cotton mills of Moselre & Mar, Manchester, are burned; the loss is estimated at 250 thousand.

A special dispatch from Berlin says the governments of Germany, Servia and Roumania have confidentially informed the other European powers that they have concluded an agreement to mutually protect their interests and position against the designs of Turkey.

Dispatches to the Daily Telegraph from Berlin, assert that the differences between the Khedive of Egypt and the Sublime Porte are serious, and intimate that grave complications in the East are probable.

FRANCE.

Deputies Guarded, &c.

PARIS, 10.—The Assembly, today, by a vote of 348 to 337, adopted an amendment to the municipal electoral bill, fixing the age of electors at 21 instead of 25 years, as proposed by the government, which was thus defeated on a vital provision of the bill.

A strong guard was placed on the train which conveyed the Deputies from Versailles to Paris this evening, in order to protect the Bonapartists against Gambetta's supporters.

On the arrival of the parliamentary train here last evening, several Bonapartists accosted Gambetta, and defied him to repeat the offensive words used in the Assembly.

The Imperialist journals contain violent attacks on the Left, and there is general uneasiness over the quarrel.

A document similar to that read by Girard, in the Assembly yesterday, has been discovered circulating in the Paris barracks.
