hit a grounder to Hall. Instead or fielding the ball to first Hall concluded he could beat the runner to the base. Luasi yelled to the twirler to throw the ball but Hall kept after Turk and looked rather dazed when his umps called the runner safe. There was a man on third and, of course, he scored. The next man up Hall smashed with the ball while Flick contributed to the general muss by booting the ball and then Dunn lined out a single, McQuaid had his turn and booted the spheroid and all this funny husiness cost three runs. The locals had itself batting clothes on and pounded out

During the thing training trip and the first few weeks of the season Hooper made such weeks of the season Hooper made such t poor showing that he was about to be sent back to the minors, but for some reason or another he was kept on the power. the payroli. When the season was a little over a month old, Hooper was tive a chance. He made good from the start and is now considered one of the great finds of the year. His bat-ting and fielding have been features of many of the Red Sox games.

EASY MONEY

Every day some of our clients are telling us their appreciation for the money we have collected from other day we gave T. C. Waltenspiel, the cigar man, a check in settlement of a claim that had been owing to him 16 years, and the same day we settled up an old claim owing to the Calder's Music Co., which company has long since quit business. In every instance the money was paid because of the red streaks of honesty. We collect for thirteen thousand clients scattered from Africa to Alaska. Turn in your claims and we will collect some for you.

CAPTAIN LOBERT OF CINCINNATI, WHO IS BATTING POORLY THIS SEASON.

What a game of contradictions and uncertainties this national pastime of ours really is! One year ago Captain Hans Lobert of the Cincinnati Nationals was belting the cover off the ball, and Mike Mitchell, who cavorts around in right field, was in the dumps, hitting enough air to supply the ozone trust. Nowadays "Mitch" is smashing the leather in his old familiar way, and Lobert is down with the infants in the nursery of the House of Swat. Now, there's one thing about baseball which is part of the bugomania which is responsible for its tremendous popularity-every fan body is entitled to his opinion, and no one is backward about expressing it. The possession of the captaincy and its attendant responsibilities is charged by some of the superficial observers as the cause for the Lobert slump. Captain Hans scoffs at the idea. There is no reason to believe that Lobert's batting will not improve, Perhaps he will cut loose with a consignment of good old bingles fresh from the wood before the season is a few weeks older. Lobert is a natural hitter, and when he does get to punching the ball into "the spots where they ain't," as that German baseball philosopher, Heinie Peitz, was wont to say, the outlook for Cincinnati will be more brilliant.

Now Haven, Conn., Jane 29.—Joy is unrestrained at Yale tonight over today's victory of the varsity buseball nine over its old rival. Harvard. The final score was: Yale, 4; Harvard. The final score was: Yale, 4; Harvard. The sevent came as the crowning feature of a day full of excitement and merrymaking for the thousands of Yale men for commencement and class reunions.

For an hour prior to the game, hundreds of fantastically-garbed Yale men, by funny antics on the green field, brought cheering from the spectators. The Sheffield scientific class of 1908 produced an immense piece of scenery representing a jungle, and from it emerged a big clephant. The center of the field was cleared and then a solitary hunter began banging away at the elephant until it fell over. Then the classes swooped down upon it and drew the carcass off the field, Another class had a possum in a tree.

The outcome makes it necessary to play off the tie for the championship. The tie mme will be played in New York Saturday.
