SOLDIER TURNS QUICK TO ACT.

But Their Efforts are in Common With Those of the Mussulmans Against Christians.

FRANCE BECOMING AROUSED.

American Commander Wanted to Land Marines, but Others Thought Such Action was Inadvisable.

VERY DISQUIETING IN SYRIA.

Druses are in Arms and Fears of an Uprising and Massacre in Lebanon are Entertained.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The navy department has received a cablegram from Rear Admiral Cotton, dated Beirut yesterday, saying that there were no serious disturbances in Beirut Monday night. The situation there is improving and public feeling is growing quieter.

Usual Assurance.

Rome, Sept. 9.—A communication from the Italian ambassador says the Turkish minister of foreign affairs has assured him that the most energetic measures will be taken to suppress those who are responsible for the recent conflict at Beirut. The minister added that there need be no fear that any serious incident would re-occur, and asserted that the ports were confident that the insurrection in Macedonia would be "suppressed in one week."

This is Different.

Constantinople, Sept. 9.—Consular accounts received here from Beirut today differ from the Turkish government's version of the recent outbreak there. The val of Beirut was not on board the United States flagship Brooklyn when the first trouble occurred, and the Turkish version, contrary to the official version, the despatches say the Mussulmans first attacked the Christians and the troops which intervened almost to a man, prevailed among the Christians, many of whom have left Beirut and sought refuge in Lebanon.

CHRISTIAN DEMANDS.

The foreign-consuls at Beirut met on Monday and decided to make serious representations to the local authorities, asking for the preservation of order. They also decided to telegraph to their respective governments or ministers at Constantinople, demanding the recall of the incompetent val of Beirut, and requesting that warships be sent for the protection of the Europeans.

Nazim Pasha, val of Syria, was ordered from Damascus to Beirut, where he arrived yesterday.

The ports announced that Nazim Pasha was sent to Beirut with two battalions of troops to take temporary charge of affairs there. The val of Beirut, it is alleged, has been deprived of his authority, but will "probably remain inactive at his post during the stay of Nazim Pasha at Beirut."

WARSHIPS GOING.

It is considered probable that France will send warships to Beirut and her example is likely to be followed by other powers. Several of the diplomats here drew the serious attention of the ports on Monday to the situation at Beirut, demanding that measures be taken to prevent a further outbreak and insisting on the recall of the val who was in office when the outbreak occurred. No further consular dispatches have recently been received from the vilayets of European Turkey. It is believed here that the rigorous repression exercised by the Turks in the vilayet of Monastir will result in uniting all the Christians against the authorities.

CONCENTRATE TROOPS.

The ports intend to concentrate 50,000 to 70,000 troops at Adrianople. It is said that 2,000 insurgents have been surrounded at Kirk-Kilise, 32 miles from Adrianople, and official circles here momentarily expect news of surrender or annihilation. Notwithstanding the large number of troops concentrated at Adrianople, the val of Hamidieh cavalry, to which the sultan presented colors Sept. 4, will leave there this evening for Adrianople. It is alleged that the dispatch of these troops can only have one meaning, namely, massacres in which the same part as the Christians did before the Russo-Turkish war.

WRITERS IN DENVER.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 9.—The party of Washington newspaper correspondents en route to Ogden, where they will attend the National Irrigation congress next week, arrived in this city this morning. A program had been arranged which gave them a day here. As guests of the Denver Real Estate exchange, the visitors, after breakfast at the Denver Athletic club, were taken on an automobile trip through the city. During the afternoon they were entertained by various clubs. A banquet will be given by the Real Estate exchange in honor of its guests at the Brown Palace this evening and at midnight the correspondents will depart for Cripple Creek.

RUSSIA'S FLEET.

A high diplomatic authority asserted today that when Russia submits to the ports her proposals for the pacification of Macedonia she may dispatch her Black Sea squadron to Turkish waters and it may make a much longer stay there than did the Russian squadron at Inlaba bay.

BRITAIN AND AUSTRIA.

The St. James Gazette today says an arrangement has been arrived at between Great Britain and Austria which will come into operation under certain eventualities.

DON'T LIKE WARSHIPS.

The Turkish embassy issued another statement today declaring that the reports of massacres emanate from the Bulgarian side and are purposely exaggerated in the hope of securing European intervention. It reiterated disbelief in the seriousness of the Beirut situation and adds:

BREAKING THE UNION.

Members Take Off their Badges and Return to Work.

Seattle, Sept. 9.—Seattle is in the peculiar position this morning of having the strike of the city of one of the unions of the streetcar system and at the same time almost a full complement of cars in operation. At 1 o'clock this morning the executive committee of the union voted to declare a strike because of the refusal of President Furth of the Seattle Electric company to grant any of the demands made by the union or to submit the demands to arbitration. The committee also voted to recognize the union, the reinstatement of all men discharged by the company because of their connection with the union since the strike last March, a wage scale of 40 cents an hour, time and a half for overtime and on legal holidays and other unimportant days. When the order to strike was promulgated the strike was declared and the employees of the union badge and went to work.

California State Day.

San Francisco, Sept. 9.—The fifty-third anniversary of the admission of California into the union is being observed today. Several cities of the state are celebrating the event on a large scale, but by far the largest gathering is at San Jose, where the Native Sons of the Golden West are holding their annual celebration. The order is composed of 125 parlor, with a membership exceeding 15,000, and with it are allied the Native Daughters of the Golden West, with a membership of 6,000. The first parlor of Native Sons was organized in 1875, with a membership of 22. The Native Daughters of the Golden West were organized in 1880, with 43 members on the charter. Both organizations have grown tremendously and yield great strength, especially politically.

Plate Glass Association.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 9.—The annual meeting of the American Plate Glass association is in session here today. President Sherburne of Boston, says no changes will be made in the price list this year. The outlook is as good as usual and the outlook is far from encouraging. The strikes throughout the country have had much to do with the situation.

Window Glass Muddle.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 9.—Another effort to clear up the muddle into which the repudiation of the Detroit agreement by the independent glass workers in Pittsburgh is to be made at a meeting of the National Window Glass Jobbers' association here tomorrow. The meeting will be attended by representatives of the largest manufacturers and it is said some means will be adopted to get the factories into shape for a late start but on other lines than was proposed by the Detroit agreement.

Judge Flanagan Dend.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 9.—Judge Charles E. Flanagan, a prominent pioneer citizen, died today after a long illness, aged 75 years. He was a candidate on the Democratic ticket for governor in 1892. He was a prominent figure in the life of the city and was a member of the Minnesota Historical society.

Movements of Steamers.

New York, Sept. 9.—Arrived: Majestic from Liverpool. Graf Waldersee from Hamburg. Queenstown—Arrived: Teutonic, from New York. Southampton—Arrived: Philadelphia from New York.

Another Union Fight.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Acting upon the advice of the Chicago Employers' association, a candy manufacturing concern closed today and between 1,500 and 2,000 persons were thrown out of work as the result of the strike action taken by the Candy Makers' union yesterday. The employers say that the boycott will continue until the candy makers resume administrative right in the three provinces of Manchuria under certain conditions, but the report is regarded as well founded.

Japan Sees Light.

London, Sept. 9.—The Japanese legation here sees in the Russian cessation of hostilities regarding the lifting of the war clouds in the far east. No confirmation has been received of the London Times' Pekin dispatch saying that the Russian government has agreed to the Chinese foreign office, saying that New Chung and Moukden shall be evacuated by the Russians on Oct. 1, and that the Russian government will resume administrative right in the three provinces of Manchuria under certain conditions, but the report is regarded as well founded.

Steamer Missing.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 9.—The steamer John Duncan, which left Kelly's island and for this port last evening is missing and there is some fear that she has foundered. The vessel carries a crew of 15 men. It is said the boat was leaking very badly when she started for Cleveland in a heavy sea.

BURTON STUDIES TRANSPORTATION

United States Representative Investigates Waterway and Rail Methods in Europe.

RECEIVES SPLENDID TREATMENT

Europe Affords Better Opportunities Than America for the Study of the Subject.

COURTEOUSLY RECEIVED.

Berlin, Sept. 9.—The Prussian cabinet has decided to again propose to the Landtag the construction of a great cross country canal to connect the Rhine, Weser and Elbe, thus completing the emperor's proposed system of inland waterways. Congressman Burton, chairman of the rivers and harbors committee of the house, who has returned here from his inquiry into the river and harbor improvement in eastern and southeastern Europe, says this is the only canal project seriously considered in Europe that compares in expense to the proposed Erie canal improvements. The Rhine-Elbe canal was estimated to cost $60,000,000, though it is now thought it will cost considerably more.

Mr. Burton, who is accompanied by Maj. F. Mahan, United States engineer, and Mr. J. G. Quinn, secretary, Mr. Floyd, was received most courteously in the countries through which he passed. Russia provided Mr. Burton a steamer for his transportation and Prof. Tononov and other engineers went with Mr. Burton and his party on the Volga from Tver to Tzaritzin, 1,500 miles. Mr. Burton spent 11 days on the Volga and then visited the Black Sea harbors, the Danube and the upper Elbe.

FAVOR WATERWAYS.

Speaking of his investigations, which were begun early in June, Mr. Burton said: "We found illustrations throwing light upon almost every proposition in the river and harbor works of the United States. Everywhere in Europe there is a disposition to make increased use of the inland waterways, whether rivers or canals. The value of these means of transportation is coming to be more and more appreciated. In Germany and portions of Russia the quantity of freight carried by water is increasing more than that carried by rail. There is a strong movement for the improvement of the inland waterways and there is a growing opinion in favor of tolls on the waterways which are improving. It would seem that Europe affords better opportunities than America to study the relations between railroad and waterway transportation, because frequently a state and a canal also owns the railway, and building canals also owns the railway. But for various reasons, the field is not much better. In some countries the policies adopted towards the two methods of transportation are widely different. In others, the railways and waterways are managed by different government departments, each trying to make a good showing, and the competition which arises is almost as keen as in the United States."

AT AN EARLY DATE.

Street Car and Light Companies Will Consolidate This Year.

Manager Campbell of the Utah Light & Power company said this morning that the report published in yesterday's "News" relative to the proposed merger of the Light & Power company and the street railway company was correct, and the move is only in line with what has been extensively and successfully accomplished in the east. For the Consolidated Railway & Power company to become independent of the Light & Power company and establish a suitable power supply of its own, would in the course of the next five years call for an outlay of half a million dollars. This can be avoided by merging with the Light & Power company that is already supplying the street car company with motive power. The steady tendency throughout the country, except perhaps, in Chicago and New York, is for power companies and street car companies to consolidate, thus avoiding the operation of two separate and independent power plants, and saving a great deal of money.

VALUABLE NAME.

Cognomen of David H. Moffat Used to Sell Stock, But Mr. Moffat Quered It.

Swindlers find the name of D. H. Moffat a convenient one in scheming to defraud credulous persons, because he is widely known as one of the prominent financiers of Colorado. The latest attempt to use his name for the purpose of separating victims from their coin is reported from Los Angeles.

OREGON'S DELEGATES

Portland, Or., Sept. 9.—A special to the Oregonian from Olympia, Wash., says: Gov. McBride delegates to the Eleventh National Irrigation congress, which meets at Ogden, Utah, Sept. 15-18: H. Blanford of Walla Walla, S. C. Thomas M. D., of Seattle, William Edgcombe Miller of Spokane, Arthur Gunn of Wenatchee, Richard S. Eskridge of Seattle, C. E. Packard of Waterville, C. G. Elliott of North Yakima, and E. D. Comings of Seattle. The delegation from this state is not entirely full as yet.

Daphne Direct Wins.

Charter Oak, Sept. 9.—Daphne Direct won the Hartford Futurity for three-year-old pacers in two straight heats today. Time, 2:15.4, 2:15. Elice Douglass was second.

WHEAT CROP WAY SHORT.

Reports thus far received place the output of the winter wheat crop at 50 and 60 per cent of the usual yield. However, the spring wheat crop is reported good all through Utah and Idaho. Local millers have not been able to get hold of sufficient wheat of late, and so considerable eastern flour has been shipped in to this market, but the local supply will be more satisfactory from now on. There is a good and steady demand for all mill stuffs.

SENSATIONAL FIND.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from San Francisco, says: The body of a day-old infant has been found at North Beach, with a cord about its neck, showing that it had been strangled. The body was wrapped in a copy of the Buffalo Evening Times, on which was a yellow label, reading: "Hon. J. K. Jones, Washington, Arkansas, Evening Bulletin." This was wrapped in a copy of a San Francisco newspaper. The police department is trying to find out who has arrived recently from Arkansas and what possible connection the former chairman of the Democratic national committee has with the case.

SHOOT STRAIGHT.

Guardsmen Will Have to Do That to Carry Off the Prizes Offered.

The following order was issued today from the office of the adjutant general of the national guard, under the title of Special Order No. 45: With a view to the encouragement of the members of the guard and the attainment of a high degree of efficiency in target practice, it is deemed advisable to offer a prize or prizes to be given to individual members or organizations that make the highest score during the season. For the purpose of determining the kind of prize to be given and whether or not there shall be more than one, a board of officers is hereby appointed which will convene on the call of the presiding officer thereof at the earliest practicable moment, and make a report to the board. Detail for the board: Lieut. Col. J. D. Ford, Lieut. Col. A. A. Sweeney, Capt. W. V. Webb. By order of the commander in chief, Charles S. Burton, adjutant general.

L. D. S. UNIVERSITY OPENS.

Teachers Keep Busy Registering Many Students.

Teachers are very busy this week at the Latter-day Saints' university which has just commenced its sessions for the ensuing school year. About 500 students have thus far applied for registration. The regular four-year courses are well patronized. The fall work of the business college is also just beginning, and includes both the L. D. S. and the Salt Lake Business College. The kindergarten school will open next Monday in the Lion house. The night school and the special courses in music and Sunday school kindergarten will open in October.

WOMAN BADLY HURT.

Wife of Deputy Sheriff Meets with a Painful Accident Today.

The wife of Deputy Sheriff W. B. Booth met with a painful accident about noon today by which she severely bruised her left hip and either sprained or dislocated her left elbow. She was standing on a vegetable wagon in front of her residence at 130 north West Temple, looking at some vegetables when she attempted to move to one side to allow her little son to climb up on the wagon, when she missed her footing and fell to the ground, injuring herself as stated above. Dr. Ewing was called, but had not arrived at the time this report closed, so the exact injury to her elbow is not known at the present time.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

Sheriff Emery Was Notified First But Officer Sperry Got There First.

The credit for arresting Peter Kline and recovering a team of mules which he is charged with stealing from Thomas Sullivan at Bingham last Saturday night, is claimed by Officer Sperry, of the police department. It seems that the police department and the sheriff's office were notified of the presence of the team near the Hot Springs at about the same time. The sheriff had instructed the people at the springs to notify him in the event that they returned being E. C. Gamble and his deputies had been out looking for them nearly all of Sunday night. On Monday morning he was notified of their passing the springs and hastened in pursuit. Officers Sperry and Rogers had also received notice and started for the place in the patrol wagon. They beat the sheriff there by a narrow margin and returned the mules and team to the police station, while the mules were turned over to the sheriff for safe keeping.

President Roosevelt Watching Developments in the Disturbed Eastern Situation.

EXHIBITS NO APPREHENSION.

Has Perfect Confidence in Admiral Cotton. Who Has Ample Power To Protect Americans.

SECY. HAY ALSO CONFIDENT.

Vigilance of Authorities Will Not be Relaxed and Prompt Action Will be Taken if Necessary.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 9.—President Roosevelt is watching the developments of the situation in Turkey carefully, but without serious apprehension. The reports made by Minister Lelshman at Constantinople are not disquieting in tone. On the contrary the minister is inclined to take an optimistic view of the situation as far as this country is concerned. The anti-Christian outbreak is serious, but it is not regarded as likely that, through it, American interests or American citizens will suffer. Admiral Cotton at Beirut, in whom the administration has great confidence, is clothed with ample authority to afford such protection to Americans and American interests as he may deem wise. This fact, coupled with the assurance of the ports that United States property and people in Turkey are quite safe, has tended to relieve the minds of President Roosevelt and Secy. Hay from apprehension of serious consequences. The vigilance of the United States authorities will not be relaxed, however, and every precaution will be taken to insure the safety and protection of American interests.

PRESIDENT ENTERTAINS.

The president entertained at luncheon Paul Meador of Chicago, vice president of the Santa Fe railroad system; Francis E. Leupp of Washington, and Lieut. Gordon Johnston of the army. Who was a member of the president's regiment of rough riders. Mr. Leupp, who is a Washington newspaper correspondent, was appointed by the president several months ago as a commissioner to make an investigation of alleged Indian frauds in the Oklahoma territory. He has completed his work and today made his report to the president.

ARCHBISHOP HARTY CALLS.

Later in the afternoon Archbishop Harty, who will sail very soon for Manila, paid his respects to the president and talked at length about the situation in the Philippine islands.

INVITED TO DINNER.

Colgate Hoyt, president of the Ohio Stock and Bond Exchange, was invited to attend the annual dinner of the society to be held next winter. While no definite answer was given, it was understood the president indicated he would be unable to attend the dinner.

MISS FERRIN'S RECEPTION.

Charming Affair at Clayton Music Co. Parlors Last Evening.

Miss Lucilla Ferrin was the recipient of a charming reception at the hands of her former teacher, Mme. Swenson, last night. The affair took place in the handsome saloon of the Clayton Music company, which was elaborately decorated in honor of the event. Chairs for over 100 people were provided, and all were filled. Miss Ferrin, who has been known as one of our most accomplished sopranos, and whose success with the Salt Lake Opera company are still well remembered, has been absent for a year past studying under Mme. Von Klenner in New York, an old time friend and associate of Mme. Swenson. Miss Ferrin is about to return to New York to resume her studies, and last night's affair brought together a large number of her old friends and associates, who came to bid her goodnight. During the evening Miss Ferrin, accompanied by Prof. McClellan, rendered five songs as follows: "The Nightingale," "Lullaby," "The Merry Month of May," "Miss Ferrin was rapturously applauded after every number, but as she was not feeling especially strong, having been ill for some time past, she did not accept an encore. Her friends were charmed to notice her advancement in trills, runs and her high notes, to say nothing of her general improvement in style.
