

Legislature. The "Mormons" did not vote.—The first session of the Fifty-first Congress adjourned.

Thurs. 2.—Great excitement at Gutrie, Oklahoma, over the question of locating a permanent capital for the new territory.

Fri. 3.—The annual report of Governor Thomas, of Utah, to the secretary of the Interior, was published. It contained recommendations for harsh measures against the "Mormons."

Sat. 4.—The semi-annual conference of the Church commenced in Salt Lake City, and continued for three days. On the 6th President Woodruff's manifesto was accepted by unanimous vote by the conference.—Peter Lauritzen killed by a Jersey bull at Moroni, Sanpete Co.—James H. Jenkins, of Gosben, sentenced to two years imprisonment and costs, John A. Powell to one year and costs, Zachariah S. Taylor to six months and $50 fine and costs, and Lauritz B. Miller to six months and $50 fine and costs, were incarcerated in the Utah Pen. They had transgressed the Edmunds law.

Sun. 5.—A general Primary Conference held in the Assembly Hall, Salt Lake City.

Mon. 6.—In the First District Court, at Provo, Charles W. Rawlinson was sentenced to one month's imprisonment and $25 and costs, for adultery, Arthur H. Campbell to 18 months, for adultery, Aaron Hardy, of Moroni, to six months and $300 fine and costs, for unli. coh., and Rasmus Justeson, of Spring City, to two years and costs, for adultery.—The Territorial fair opened in Salt Lake City.

Tu. 7.—In the Third District Court, Judge Zane ruled that membership in the Mormon Church should no longer be a barrier against aliens being admitted to citizenship.

Wed. 8.—Charles King committed suicide in Salt Lake City.—Judge C. C. Goodwin nominated for delegate to Congress from Utah, by the Liberal convention, held in Salt Lake City.

Thurs. 9.—The People's Party Territorial convention renominated John T. Caine for delegate to Congress.—In the First District Court, Hyrum S. Crane was sentenced to one year's imprisonment for breaking the Edmunds law.

Fri. 10.—Elder H. C. Hansen, one of the Pioneers of 1847, died in Salina, Sevier Co.—Elder John R. Jones, of Johnson Springs, Iron Co., met with a serious accident from the effects of which he died the following day.

Sat. 11.—The steamship Wisconsin sailed from Liverpool, England, with a company of Saints on board, including several returning Elders, in charge of S. P. Jensen. The company arrived in New York Oct. 23rd and in Salt Lake City a few days later.

Sun. 12.—Samuel Robinson, a boy, was killed near Salt Lake City, by being run over by a hand-car on a railway track.—Henry W. Naisbitt released from the Utah Pen.

Mon. 13.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, James E. Clark, of Kaysville, Davis Co., was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 for unli. coh. In consideration of the manifesto just issued no imprisonment was imposed.—Samuel F. Miller, a member of the U. S. Supreme Court, died at Washington, D. C. He had always been a friend to the "Mormons."

Tu. 14.—Elder Evan Williams, of the Sixteenth Ward, Salt Lake City, died.—William Robinson, of Beaver, emerged from the Utah Pen.

Wed. 15.—The Leland Hotel, at Syracuse, N. Y., burned and eight persons perished.

Thurs. 16.—Elder John P. Ball died in the Third Ward, Salt Lake City.

Fri. 17.—Thomas L. Snead, a friend of the "Mormons," died in New York.

Sat. 18.—Mary and David Gembler, children of David Gembler, were burned to death in Salt Lake City.

Sun. 19.—The new meeting house in the Twelfth Ward, Salt Lake City, dedicated.

Mon. 20.—Dr. John Farnham Boynton, once an Apostle in the Church, died in Syracuse, N. Y.—In the First District Court at Provo, Warren B. Smith, of American Fork, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and $200 and costs.

Tu. 21.—A daring robbery committed at Wellsville, Wis.

Wed. 22.—James Stewart fell between railway cars and was cut in two near Morgan, Morgan Co.—Christian Ottesen released from the Utah Pen., having served his term for unli. coh.—Elisba Averett, a member of the Mormon Battalion, died at Glendale, Kane Co.

Thurs. 23.—Phebe S. Tingey, wife of Bishop John Tingey, died in Salt Lake City.

Fri. 24.—William Howard, John Brasher, Thomas Stalworthy and H. T. Stalworthy, arrested at Huntington, Emery Co., on charges of unli. coh.

Sat. 25.—Mrs. Knowles killed in a court room in Litchfield, Conn.

Sun. 26.—Joseph Lewis was killed by James K. P. Pipkin, on the Zuni Reservation, N. M.—Mobile, Ala., visited by a destructive fire.

Mon. 27.—John Larsen arrested in Salt Lake City, on a charge of unli. coh.

Tu. 28.—Joseph Turner released from the Utah Pen., having served a two years' term for adultery.

Wed. 29.—George Staples killed by a Holstein bull at Elsinore, Sevier Co.—Ira S. Hatch, killed through mistake, by a sheriff in the Zuni Mountains, N. M.

Thurs. 30.—The Spanish steamer Vizcaya collided with a schooner en route from New York to Havana, and eighty lives were lost.

Fri. 31.—The Census Bureau announces the population of the United States to be 62,622,250.

NOVEMBER.

The Sioux Indians on the reservations in the Northwest, engaged in ghost dancing, and the white settlers fled in panic from their homes, fearing the Indians would go on the war path. Heavy reinforcements of troops were sent to the agencies.

Sat. 1.—Evan Stephens succeeded Ebenezer Beesley as leader of the Tabernacle choir, Salt Lake City.—Elder George Barber died in Mexico.

Sun. 2.—Elder William Willes died in Salt Lake City.

Mon. 3.—A contract was signed for the erection of the first beet sugar plant in Utah to cost $400,000.—Elder Andrew Franzen died in the Sugar House Ward, Salt Lake Co.—Milton Dalrymple killed by a runaway at Preston, Bear Lake Co., Idaho.

Tu. 4.—The election for delegate to Congress resulted in 16,353 votes for John T. Caine, the People's candidate, and 6,906 for C. C. Goodwin, Liberal. There were 28 scattered votes. Caine's majority 9,419. The general election in the United States for members of the House of Representatives resulted in 240 Democrat, 83 Republican, and 3 Farmers Alliance candidates being elected. In one district, no election was held. This resulted in changing the Republican majority of twenty-four in the House of Representatives to a Democratic majority of about 130.

Wed. 5.—The United States attorney filed two suits for the forfeiture of the Temple Block under the escheat law.

Thurs. 6.—John Sholdebrand died in Salt Lake City.—A grist-mill burned near Mantle, Sanpete Co.

Fri. 7.—The entire town of Winslow, Pike Co., Ind., destroyed by fire.

Sat. 8.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Bishop James C. Hamilton, of Mill Creek, was fined $100 and costs, for unli. coh.—The Sevier branch of the Rio Grande Western Ry., completed to Fairview, Sanpete Co., Utah.

Sun. 9.—Elder Rasmus Peterson, one of the first members of the Church in Denmark, died in Pleasant Grove, Utah Co.

Mon. 10.—The monetary stringency caused a panic in Wall Street, and started a series of financial disasters throughout the country.

Tu. 11.—Joseph McMurrin, connected with the Collins affair Nov. 28, 1885, gave himself up in Salt Lake City.—The city council of Salt Lake City abandoned Architect Apponyi's plans for a city and county building.

Wed. 12.—The first through standard gauge train arrived in Salt Lake City over the Rio Grande Western.—The British torpedo boat Serpent foundered, and 178 men were drowned.

Thurs. 13.—Anders P. Schow released from the Utah Pen.

Fri. 14.—J. W. Abbott lost both his hands by the explosion of a blast, in Ogden Canyon, Weber Co.

Sat. 15.—William D. Newsom, of Salt Lake City, and Christian Anderson, of Fillmore, released from the Utah Pen., having served a term for breaking the Edmunds law.—Martin Weight arrested at Fremont, Plute Co., on a charge of unli. coh.

Sun. 16.—Jay Gould secured control of the Union Pacific.

Mon. 17.—D. G. Brian arrested in Plute County, charged with unli. coh.—In Ireland, the jury in the Parnell-O'Shea divorce case, declared Parnell and Mrs. O'Shea guilty of adultery; O'Shea was granted a divorce and the costs of the case were assessed against Parnell.—Thirty-eight laborers were drowned off the Dalmatian coast by the capsizing of a vessel.

Tu. 18.—The battle ship Maine, the largest vessel in the American navy, was launched at Brooklyn.

Wed. 19.—Father Samuel Turnbow died in Salt Lake City.—The first number of Korrespondenten, a Swedish weekly, was published in Salt Lake City by Charles V. Anderson and Otto Rydman.

Thurs. 20.—In the First District Court, at Ogden, Levi H. Wheeler, of North Ogden, was sentenced to twenty days' imprisonment for unli. coh.

Fri. 21.—The Salt Lake Hot Springs Ry. Company organized.

Sat. 22.—Tarlton Lewis, one of the Pioneers of 1847, died at Teasdale, Plute Co.—Levi S. Dunham, of Moroni, Sanpete Co., emerged from the Utah Pen.

Sun. 23.—The Sevier branch of the Rio Grande Western Ry. completed to Mount Pleasant, Sanpete Co.—Elder Ebenezer Russell Young died in Washlip, Summit Co.—King William III, of Holland, died at Hague.

Mon. 24.—Henry Mower emerged from the Utah Pen.—In the First District Court, Luke Sherwood was sentenced to two months' imprisonment for adultery.

Tu. 25.—Heber W. West, son of the late Bishop Chauncey W. West, was shot and killed at Pocatello.

Wed. 26.—Charles Francis Adams resigned his position as President of the Union Pacific; Sidney Dilton succeeded him.

Thurs. 27.—In the First District Court, at Provo, N. H. Groesbeck was sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment for alleged adultery.

Fri. 28.—John Cunningham, one of the early merchants in Salt Lake City, died at San Mateo, Cal.

Sat. 29.—Dr. Orlando D. Hovey died in the Nineteenth Ward, Salt Lake City.—Jesse B. Martin, of Scipio, emerged from the Utah Pen.

Sun. 30.—Theodor Jaspersen died in Salt Lake City.

DECEMBER.

The excitement about the Indian Messiah spread to the Aztecs in Old Mexico, and the Negroes in the surrounding country, the latter accepting of a black man as their Messiah.—The English Liberals withdrew their support from the Irish Parliamentary party on account of Parnell's re-election to the leadership. A movement was started among the Nationalists to oust Parnell.—Starvation and great want prevailed in Ireland, because of the failure of the potato crop.

Mon. 1.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Judge Zane sentenced Paul E. B. Hammer to pay a fine of $300 for unli. coh. John W. Snell acquitted.—In the First District Court, at Ogden, Lars Nielsen, of Lewiston, Cache Co., was sentenced to 30 days' imprisonment and costs for "adultery."—The second session of the first U. S. Congress opened at Washington, D. C.

Tu. 2.—John and George Chubb, formerly conductors on the Central division of the U. P. Ry., who had been arrested on charges of embezzlement, were acquitted.

Wed. 3.—Hotel Templeton opened in Zion's Savings Bank Building, Salt Lake City.—The Beach Lands investigation case, which has occupied the Third District Court a long time, closed.—In the Second District Court at Beaver, Judge Anderson, notwithstanding the manifesto, reaffirmed his ruling that