

NORWAY'S ACTION STIRS UP SWEDEN

People of Stockholm Make Great Patriotic Demonstration of Loyalty to King Oscar.

CRISIS CONSIDERED SERIOUS.

Emperor William Disapproves of Norwegian Policy—Some Talk of a Republic.

Stockholm, June 7.—The Norwegian coup d'état was answered here tonight by a great patriotic demonstration of loyalty to and sympathy with King Oscar. A great procession, accompanied with bands, went to Rosenbad castle, where the bands played the national anthem.

In a few minutes the king and other members of the royal family appeared on the balcony of the castle and were enthusiastically cheered by the demonstrators while a number of ladies advanced from the crowd and presented to the king a bouquet.

Though greatly excited over the situation, the populace remains outwardly calm.

King Oscar held a council this evening in which the situation was considered.

Newspapers of Stockholm, commenting on the action of the Norwegian authorities, take an extremely serious view of the crisis. The Nya Dagbladet says:

"The Norwegian government has exceeded all limits, but undoubtedly it acted according to its conviction that it was for the country's welfare and no Swedish party or politician will attempt to persuade or compel Norway to maintain a union which has become a burden. The Swedish army will meet by extraordinary session in a fortnight and will speak in the name of Sweden. Meanwhile the king of the union speaks in the name of the union and has already protested against the revolution which is contemplated in the Norwegian kingdom."

The Swedish says:

"The revolutionists have now unmasked themselves and have trampled upon the union and upon their oath of allegiance to the king. As a result, all able able Norwegians employed in our diplomatic service must be removed. Sweden cannot be represented by men belonging to a country which organizes a revolution, degrades its king and breaks all ties of union."

TALK OF A REPUBLIC.

London, June 8. The revolution in Norway, although anticipated and peacefully effected, has come to Europe with unexpected suddenness, and the question is asked with some anxiety whether it will mean immediate complications. Had Russia not been involved in a difficult war in the far east, it is doubtful whether Norway would have taken the present momentous step, which is not likely to be regarded with approval by European powers.

Emperor William's omission of his customary tour of Norway this year seems to indicate his disapproval of the Norwegian policy, and the fact that the coup d'état is not unlikely to eventuate in the establishment of a Norwegian republic would alone be a reason why the emperor should commend himself to the monarchal powers. British sympathies appear to be strongly on the side of Sweden and King Oscar, more especially as an English princess is about to marry a prince who is in direct line of succession to the English throne.

Should King Oscar consent that one of the princes of the house of Bernadotte become king of Norway, and the two countries be able to conclude an offensive and defensive alliance, it would be regarded here as a satisfactory arrangement, but this is little hoped for, and the Morning Post expresses the very general view in suggesting that it is eminently a case for The Hague tribunal.

AS VIEWED IN RUSSIA.

St. Petersburg, June 8.—The struggle between Sweden and Norway and the prospects of a dissolution of the union, one of the present objects of which was the making of common cause against Muscovite influence, is followed with close attention in Russia. Ever since Peter the Great broke the night of Sweden at the battle of Poltava in 1709 and annexed the Baltic provinces and part of Finland, Russian policy has been directed towards weakening the power of her ancient enemy. After the completion of the annexation of Finland by Alexander I, many Russian statesmen looked forward to the obtaining of an ice-free port on the Norwegian coast. A narrow tongue of Finland cuts deep into Swedish-Norwegian territory, at the end of which there is a mile of deep water and the harbor of Lofen.

Russia within recent years has been active on this frontier country, where railways have been surveyed and Russian influence is so strong that fishermen and other Norwegian inhabitants refer their disputes to the Russian authorities.

The sympathy of Sweden for the Finns in the struggle against the Russianification of Finland has given a tinge to the side of Russia, which naturally regards with complacency the diminution of Swedish prestige.

Russia, however, is in no position to

GEN. TREPOFF SAYS HE IS IN NO SENSE A DICTATOR

St. Petersburg, June 7.—Gen. Trepoft, assistant minister of the interior, today assisted the correspondent of the Associated Press at his headquarters in the chancellery of the governor-generalship and discussed the responsibilities of his new position and the policy he intends to follow in curbing the radical political agitation.

With his added duties, Gen. Trepoft is a busy man. Though showing in every line of his face and movement the vigor of his body, he has handled the problem of preserving order in St. Petersburg, the general scene to have aged 10 years since he assumed the reins of the capital. He said:

"It is a mistake to suppose that I am in any sense a dictator. In addition to the position of governor-general of St. Petersburg, his majesty has simply placed in my hands the control of the police regime in Russia and authorized me to use the police force for the purpose of maintaining order. I am fully conscious of the heavy task before me, but I hope to discharge my duties to my emperor and restore public tranquility and order."

My policy will be to prevent unlicensed political agitation and to confine political movements strictly within the scope of the law. My appointment does not mean in any way a change in the program of the reforms which will proceed parallel with the work before me. The reforms proposed have been going on for the past 15 years. He is 50 years old. He came to St. Petersburg from Moscow, and has been identified with the Russian revolution since 1880.

The embezzlement was accomplished by making use of checks sent to the Smithsonian institution in payment of miscellaneous transactions.

WIFE BEATER IS GIVEN TWENTY LASHES.

Portland, Or., June 7.—The "whipping post" law, passed at the session of the legislature January last, was carried into execution for the first time today upon Charles McGinty, convicted of wife-beating. McGinty was convicted in the state circuit court and sentenced to receive 20 lashes, the maximum punishment.

The lashing was performed by Jailer Grafton, under the direction of Sheriff Thomas Ward, and under supervision of Asst. County Physician C. C. McCormack. The whip was a braided blacksnake, made of rawhide, with four lashes.

McGinty, after receiving the sentence, was hustled to the jail, where he was stripped to the waist, and his manacled hands tied to a door in the jail corridor high above his head. Although no attempt was made to be unreasonably cruel, the beating was as severe as the powerful jailer was capable of administering. Blood was drawn at the fourth blow from the lashes.

McGinty endeavored to be game throughout the whipping, but the suffering he endured was his own, with groans and strain at the manacles binding his wrists.

When the punishment had been concluded McGinty was released from the manacles, and with but slight assistance walked to the receiving room of the jail and a few minutes later left the jail unassisted.

McGinty, who is a strapping young fellow, was punished for having repeatedly struck his frail wife and for having blackened her eyes because she refused to pay over to him her earnings for him to squander.

Every now and then some one will think there is a splendid opening to fix up something like Postum cereal and advertise the same way and take some of the business.

An imitator is naturally ignorant of food values and how to skillfully make a cereal coffee on scientific lines.

Such men first think of preparing something that looks and tastes like the original, with no knowledge of how the grains should be treated to prepare them so that the starchy part is transformed properly and the valuable nourishing elements made digestible.

Such imitations may be foisted on the public for a short time, but the people are critical and soon detect the attempt, then the imitators go out of business.

Something like 400 of these little factories have been started in various parts of this country in the past 2 years and practically all of them have gone the "long journey." Just lately a new hope to insert itself in public favor by copying the style of the Postum advertising in the papers.

This is a free country and every man who makes an honest product and honestly labels it has reason for some recognition, but the public has the right to know the facts.

Postum is the one original and genuine cereal coffee, made skillfully and for a definite purpose. It has stood through all the wars of the imitators, has won the approval of the physicians and the people.

People who really seek to free themselves from the coffee habit and at the same time to rebuild the soft gray matter in the nerve centers and thus render the nervous system broken down by coffee, can rely on Postum. There's a reason.

GEN. BOYNTON'S FUNERAL.
Laid to Rest in National Cemetery at Arlington.

Washington, June 7.—With distinctive military and civic honors, the former boisterous his rank in two wars and the latter his notable record in other spheres of service to his country, Gen. Henry Vanless Boynton, soldier, journalist and publicist, was buried today at the National cemetery at Arlington.

The ceremonies, devoid of ostentation, in accordance with the wishes of Gen. Boynton, were attended by a host of friends he had made in over half a century of active public life. Though a civilian at the time of his death, the services, in accordance with special orders of the war department, were in conformity with the rank of brigadier-general, which he once held in the United States army.

King Emmanuel Is Generous.
Rome, June 7.—The generosity of King Victor Emmanuel is placing at the disposal of the International Agricultural institute the revenues of an estate valued at $2,000,000 has given a fresh impetus to the hopes concerning the new institution. The chief difficulty was the question of finances.

The general feeling among the delegates now is that the munificence of the king and the good will with which they entered on their work have resulted in producing a scheme of an entirely practical nature, which will not only be beneficial to agriculture, but will also promote the cause of international co-operation generally.

RADICAL REFORMS IN EQUITABLE LIFE.

Resolutions Suggesting Their Adoption Adopted by the Directors.

EXPENSES TO BE CURTAILED

Complete Harmony of Action Between The Alexander and Hyde Forces.

New York, June 7.—Resolutions suggesting radical reforms in the management of the Equitable Life Assurance society were adopted at today's meeting of the directors. These affect all the high officials and pressage a sweeping curtailment of the society's general expenses. The resolutions also imply many important changes in the financial policy of the society.

Today's session was attended by 28 of the remaining 33 directors, the resignations of Joseph T. Low and Marvin Huggitt, the latter of Chicago, having been submitted during the meeting and making a total of 12 resignations since last Friday. A majority of those present have from the outset been on the side of Vice President Hyde. Among the so-called neutrals or conservatives present were Braxton Lyle, the only remaining member of the defeated Finch committee, and Charles Stewart Smith.

From all accounts there was complete harmony of action between the two factions, the resolutions being unanimously adopted. It was again denied, however, that any "coalition" of these factions had been effected.

The essential features of the formal statement issued at the adjournment follow:

A resolution was passed requesting the committee to report their nomination for chairman of the board to the board of directors at an adjourned meeting to be held at 1 o'clock on Friday next, and it was resolved that if the nominating committee failed to make such nomination, the committee would be invited from members of the board at that meeting.

Further resolutions were passed for the reorganization of the executive committee, with the president, the vice president (Hyde) and controller as ex-officio members and four directors who are not officers.

The resolution was passed that the salaries of the executive officers should be reduced to correspond with those paid by other insurance companies, and that the amounts to be hereafter determined upon.

A further resolution was passed to reduce the general expenses of the society.

It was also resolved that no advances on account of any agency expenditures should be made without the approval of the executive committee; also that all investments made by the executive committee be subject to the approval of the board, and that amounts of deposits uniformly carried in banks and trust companies should be reduced to correspond with the amounts invested in approved securities.

The resolution calling for the reorganization of the executive committee was adopted, and the resignation of Messrs. Tarbell, Wilson and McIntyre, the second, third and fourth vice-presidents respectively, it is altogether likely that other members of the committee will retire, including William A. Wheelock, who has long been seriously ill, and several members now closely identified with financial institutions with which the Equitable has relations.

Joseph T. Low presented his resignation in person, advancing ill health as the chief reason. Mr. Huggitt telegraphed his resignation.

Dr. Hendricks continued his investigation of the Equitable officers and directors today, those before him including Vice President Wilson and Senator Dewey. Mr. Hendricks hopes to submit his report to Gov. Higgins by the middle of next week.

Wrote Letter to Alice Roosevelt.
Bloomington, Ill., June 7.—Today secret service men from Washington arrested John Johnson, a Swede, for writing a letter to Alice Roosevelt. Johnson said that he was sent here from Sweden to marry Miss Roosevelt, and communicated his mission in letters to the president's daughter. The arrest followed.

Johnson was at once taken to Jacksonville and recommitment in the asylum. He was a former inmate, but has been out for two years. He is regarded as harmless, and has been working in a grocery store here.

Moore Elected to Congress.
Houston, Tex., June 7.—John M. Moore, Democratic nominee, was elected to Congress from the Eighth congressional district in the special election.

ME TOO.
The "Tail Enders" That Follow Genuine Articles.

It is sometimes interesting to watch the curious imitators make to get the public to buy imitations of genuine goods.

Every now and then some one will think there is a splendid opening to fix up something like Postum cereal and advertise the same way and take some of the business.

BERIAH WILKINS DEAD.

He Was Editor of the Washington Post.

Washington, June 7.—Beriah Wilkins, owner, editor and publisher of the Washington Post and formerly representative in Congress from Ohio, died suddenly today, heart failure at his residence in this city. Mr. Wilkins had just returned from his accustomed drive with Mrs. Wilkins, and was sitting in a chair in his room when the end came.

Since he suffered a stroke of paralysis two years ago while on a visit to New York, Mr. Wilkins had given his entire attention to the recovery of his health. He had not been confined to his bed for some months, and no immediate participation in his serious condition was anticipated. When he awoke from his carriage at the conclusion of the drive he mentioned feeling unusually indisposed. A physician was hastily summoned and immediately responded, but too late to render assistance. Mr. Wilkins was a veteran of the civil war.

Weaver Dismisses Policemen.

Murdered by Unknown Man.
Spokane, Wash., June 7.—Dudley Cullen was shot by an unknown man on the platform of the W. & C. R. R. depot at Walla Walla last night. The body was discovered a little after midnight by the operator and a conductor who heard the shot fired. They are first affected, and when they become normal the aching across the joints ceases. In hopes that my testimonial may induce to use Dean's Kidney Pills, I am writing this letter. I am unhesitatingly allow it to be published.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST

Investigation Will Only Strengthen The Proof We Give in Salt Lake City.

How can doubt exist in the face of such evidence? Read here the endorsement of a representative citizen of Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Sarah Pearson, rear of 342 Ellis street, says: "I honestly think I inherit liver and kidney complaint attacks of which I have had for years. I had a sister who died of kidney trouble, and many a time I have been very anxious about my own condition for the persistent aching just across the joints, which radiated toward the shoulders, which hurt when I stooped or lifted anything, often kept me in misery. When there was added to it backache, trouble with the kidney secretions and dimness of vision, I knew my kidneys required attention. I had used a great many remedies for kidney complaint and liver trouble, some of which may have had a slight effect, but from none I obtain half the satisfactory results as from Dean's Kidney Pills, procured at the F. J. Hill Drug Co. store. This remedy acted directly upon the kidneys. You can tell that from the behavior of the kidney secretions. They are first affected, and when they become normal the aching across the joints ceases. In hopes that my testimonial may induce to use Dean's Kidney Pills, I am writing this letter. I am unhesitatingly allow it to be published."
