HAIR RENEWER.

The standard article is compounded with the most perfect care. Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as any other hair restorer. It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the vitality of the hair, and prevents its falling out. It is a perfect hair restorer, and its use is a guarantee of the best preparation for its intended purpose.

Dr. A. A. HAYES, State Surgeon of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purpose."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE.

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray to any other desirable shade, to brown, black, or auburn. It is easily applied, being in one preparation, and quickly and effectively produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Shooting and Lynching.

LARAMIE, Wyo., 13.—A shooting and a lynching in this county, says J. H. Capp last night shot and instantly killed R. R. Elgin, bookkeeper for Seagriff Bros., and dangerously wounded Mike Egan. The latter and a number of cowboys took Capp from custody and lynched him. The shooting and lynching in this county within three months.

The Seattles.

CHICAGO, 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Scoville are besieging the courts with various bills, cross bills, etc., directed against each other, and offending the public with most scandalous counter charges. Scarcely a day passes without one or the other appearing in some new place in the courts. Their bills are generally of the least possible interest, and their quarrels actively prompted by officious outsiders.

New Line.

A new line of traffic has been established between here and Omaha, and business has already been taken over it. It consists of the Omaha Central to Iowa City and thence off the St. Paul and Omaha road to Omaha. The Iowa pool will probably be somewhat disturbed by the new road.

Slit by an Editor.

St. Louis, 13.—About half past five o'clock this evening, John A. Cockrell, managing editor of the Post-Dispatch shot and killed Col. D. W. Slayback, a prominent lawyer, well known politician and ex-Congressman, in this city. At present it is unknown how the shooting occurred, as no one directly concerned in the matter will make a statement. H. W. Moore, city editor of the paper, who was sitting at his desk at the time, says that while Cockrell, Jno. MacGuffin, business manager, and Victor T. Cole, the foreman, were holding a business conference in the editorial room, Col. Slayback, accompanied by W. E. Clifton, entered the room and passed on toward the editorial room, the door of which was closed. Mr. Moore turned in his chair as the three passed by and he observed that Col. Slayback, as he opened the door, his left hand had his right hand in his pistol pocket, and in less than a minute after Slayback entered Cockrell's room and passed on toward the editorial room, the door of which was closed. Mr. Moore turned in his chair as the three passed by and he observed that Col. Slayback, as he opened the door, his left hand had his right hand in his pistol pocket, and in less than a minute after Slayback entered Cockrell's room and passed on toward the editorial room, the door of which was closed. Mr. Moore turned in his chair as the three passed by and he observed that Col.
