FOOTPADS MAKE VICIOUS ASSAULT

On E. H. Carr, a S. P. Machinist, Who is Attacked on Ogden Streets.

WEBER TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Senator Dolliver at the Grand Tonight
—Hearing of Gambling Charges
—Wedding Permits.

Ogden, Oct. 16.—The Ogden police, during the past two weeks, have had an unusual number of cases of assault to handle, all of which have been committed by hold-ups upon the victims they were attempting to rob.

Several days ago they were called upon to investigate the case that was reported by a young man from the Glasgow addition, who in exhibiting a pair of terribly burned eyes, stated that he was assaulted the previous evening by two footpads who threw blue vitriol in his face. A few days later another man, employed at the shops, was going to his home when two men pounced upon him and administered a terrible beating before he could escape.

Yesterday the police had another case reported to them, which appears to be the worst one so far. The victim in this case is E. H. Carr, a machinist employed at the Southern Pacific shops, who received injuries Wednesday evening that may result fatally. Carr stated to Dr. Powers, who attended him, that early in the evening he was going down Twenty-fourth street en route to his boardinghouse, and that when near the corner of Lincoln and Twenty-fourth street he heard steps behind him and before he could turn around he was struck upon the head and felled to the ground.

The next Mr. Carr remembered was when he came to in the residence of C. H. Monigan on Lincoln avenue, not far from the corner of the assault. In examining the man's wounds, Dr. Powers found that had the wound been a half an inch lower that death would have resulted instantly. The man was later removed to his boardinghouse on Twenty-third street.

A young lady named Monigan was a partial witness to the assault and stated that she was returning to her home when she heard a stone strike the pavement and this was followed by a man falling to the sidewalk and then she saw three men running down the street. She then found Carr and had him taken to her house.

SENATOR DOLLIVER AT THE GRAND.

Senator J. P. Dolliver of Iowa speaks at the Grand Opera House this evening at a rally, which is the opening of the Republican rally in Weber county. It is expected that the attendance will be very large. Three hundred seats have been reserved for the members of the Republican party who will come here from Salt Lake City.

PUTTING WIRES UNDERGROUND.

The Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company has a force of men at work in the business district underground preparatory to the removing of the poles in the paved districts.

FIRST MONTH OF SCHOOL.

The first school month for the year has just ended and the report of the attendance is far better than was expected from the reports taken at the opening of the school. The total attendance in all the grades outside of the high school was 4,200 and against the school is 41 making a grand total of 4,241, which is 252 more than the preceding year.

HEARING GAMBLING CHARGES.

The cases of the State of Utah against Oren Fisher and L. L. Carr, charged with conducting gambling games on Sunday and against William Douglas, for selling liquor on Sunday, have been taken under advisement by Judge Murphy. The defendants are all colored and are interested in the Assembly Club saloon on lower Twenty-fifth street and which is the "hang-out" for all the colored people of the city. The case is the result of the fight that certain factions in downtown made upon Ed Viator's application for a liquor license and which has been held up. Viator, who is also colored, had his friends get busy and bring Fair and Fisher in to court when he saw that they were fighting his application. The outcome of these cases are awaited with interest by the politicians of the city as both factions control a heavy colored vote.

COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Saturday morning at the Weber academy the county board of education holds a teachers' institute and will be under the supervision of County Supt. Thomas E. McKay and will be the general instruction of the teachers. Supervisor of Music Power will deliver a lecture on musical education and Miss Matilda Peterson will talk to the primary grade teachers. The final work of the institute will be a general discussion.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday afternoon to the following at the office of the county clerk: James H. Hall of Tremonton, and Azra Samuelson of Ogden. William J. Marshall, Lowndesboro, Ala., and Ida Nichols of Portland, Ore. James E. Erie of Canada and Julia E. Hawkes of West Weber.

POLICE COURT.

In the police court this morning before Judge Murphy, A. E. Blair was convicted of the charge of petty larceny that of stealing some watches and other things from the Greek railroad camp and was fined $50. H. Kelly, for obtaining money under false pretenses, was fined $20; in lieu thereof he will work for the city 20 days on the rock pile.

ATTENDED WILBUR WRIGHT.

Dr. L. L. Waters Spending a Few Days in Old Home Talks of Affairs.

Dr. L. L. Waters, son of the late L. Waters, the old time jeweler of this city, is in town from New York, whence he came to participate last Tuesday, in the dedication of a large and handsome granite headstone at his father's grave in the Jewish cemetery. All of the living members of the family were present, with Rabbi Freund of the Congregation B'nai Israel, who conducted the service.

Dr. Waters is the surgeon who happened to be at Fort Meyer when the aeroplane accident occurred that killed Lieut. Seiffert of the signal corps, and very nearly killed Wilbur Wright, the noted aviator, who was directing the machine. Dr. Waters says the aeroplane on starting had risen gracefully from the ground, and had encircled the cheering "to beat the band," when suddenly a piece of one of the propellers was seen to break off and fly into the air. Then the aeroplane took a sudden dive down toward the earth. Had it been 20 feet higher, it would have righted itself, but being only 55 feet high at the time, there was not enough "sea room" to manoeuvre in, and the great machine struck the ground with a force that demolished it completely, and dashed the two unfortunate occupants to the ground. Dr. Waters says the reports that stated Lieut. Seiffert suffered a crushed base of the brain are incorrect. His frontal bone was broken and parts pressed against the brain producing amplexic conditions, that proved fatal. Wright suffered a fractured left thigh, two broken right ribs, and a badly contused forehead. The army surgeons all rushed to help their brother officer, while Dr. Waters was the first one to reach the aviator who was conscious, and said his leg was broken. The State W. Hargrave reduced the fracture and got him into condition to be removed to the local army hospital, where he will have recovered in the course of the next two weeks. Dr. Waters woke up the next morning to find him conscious and his name in all the press dispatches.

The doctor says Wright called his attention to the fact that there had been only four fatalities in air navigation with heavier than air machines, while he pointed out the automobile accidents in the development of the motor principle in that special line had been vastly more numerous.

WITH THE POLICE.

Since a dozen business houses were galled a week ago by a clever forger, the police have been on the alert, and yesterday two minor check forgers were arrested, but as yet the master forger is at large.

Frank W. Hamilton, an aged attorney who likes to write names and who was released from the Utah state prison not more than two months ago, was arrested yesterday at 9:30 a. m. by Officer George Simpson. He was charged with forging a check for $25 and passing it at Gray Brothers. Hamilton forgot the name of Rob P. Lyon, who has been a life-long friend, and was assisting him to get another

PLANKS FOR "AMERICAN" PLATFORM

The so-called "American" platforms contain a great deal of falsehood, nonsense, and deception. But the following "principles" are part of the program, though not formally inserted in the platform, and should be considered by all voters:

1. The Chairman of the "American" party mass state convention in the Salt Lake theater Monday evening, Sept. 28, declared a war of extermination to be waged against the Mormon Church officials in the fall campaign. "To carry the county and judicial district for the 'American' party and thus start the machinery of the courts in motion to accomplish THE IMPRISONMENT or EXILE of the hand of twenty-six, this is the program of the 'Americans' as announced at the state convention."—Salt Lake Herald, Sept. 29.

A vote for the ticket supported by the Tribune is a vote for a program that includes the imprisonment and exile of every prominent Church leader. "Crucify! Crucify!" is the key note of the Tribune campaign.

2. Another declaration of principles involves the raising of the taxes on all farm property in the county. This was intimated in the Tribune during the bond campaign, as follows:

"Queer, it is not, that since the [smelter case] decision the farm lands have decreased in value for the purpose of taxation? In other words, the lands are not so valuable as they were, and farming upon smelter smoke was more productive from the dollar and cent standpoint of the farmer than the tilling of the soil. While there has been a large increase in the value of property for taxable purposes in Salt Lake City, there has been a decrease in the property outside, and the farm lands are not worth as much as they were a year ago. I SAY IT IS QUEER, but remember it is a fact."

A vote for the ticket supported by the Tribune means a vote for the increase in taxes, principally for the benefit of the politicians who are in it for "the spoils."

The following is Tribune doctrine:

"Apropos of the new and petty war recently started by the municipal government on the women of the town, the liquor dealers and the gambling fraternity, one of the 'enemy' said to us the other day: 'It may be a hard thing to say, and perhaps harder still to maintain, but I believe that billiard halls, saloons, and houses of ill-fame are more powerful reforming agencies here in Utah than churches and schools, or even than the Tribune.'"

"Freedom is the first requisite of manhood, and if it can be won without excesses, so much the better. If it can't, never mind the excesses; win the freedom."—Tribune, March 6, 1881.

A vote for the Tribune ticket is a vote for the establishment of the agencies of liberty mentioned in the editorial extracts reproduced.

Respectable "Americans" might, for the good of the party and the city, and in the interest of peace, revolt against the organ of hatred, indecency, and brutality. It is no credit to the party.

start. Hamilton took the arrest very coolly as if not aware of the seriousness of the charge, especially as this is not the first offense of the kind. William Potter, a brother of Potter brothers of Payson, Utah, was taken into custody last night by Detectives Burt and Chase and charged with forging and passing a worthless check. The arrest was made at the instance of Joe Nielson, proprietor of the Utah saloon. Nielson had cashed checks before for Potter, and therefore was not reticent about cashing a check for $15, for which Potter was arrested last night. The check was supposed to have been issued by Potter Bros., Idaho sheepmen, whose check he is alleged to have forged.

Of the five cases which came before Judge Diehl yesterday, four were simple cases of drunkenness and one was a case of complicated drunkenness. C. A. Walters, who was arrested Wednesday for instigating a saloon brawl in the Eagle Gate saloon in Commercial street, was considered by Judge Diehl the day of the arrest to be in no fit condition for trial, as he was under the influence of liquor when brought before the bar, and the case was shelved until yesterday, when one of the witnesses for the prosecution appeared in the same condition.

When William Yeager, the complaining witness, took the stand, Judge Diehl insisted before the witness was examined, that he would not permit the other witness, who was under the influence of liquor, to testify. Prosecutor Rogers replied that in that event he would have to ask for a continuance that he might have other witnesses present. Walters confessed that he had been drunk Wednesday and did not really know what he had done. Mr. Rogers suggested that if the defendant would plead guilty he would recommend that he be allowed to leave the city. Walters pleaded guilty and was given a suspended sentence.

An old woman, charged with drunkenness stood before Judge Diehl yesterday. She was perhaps 70 years old, and scantily clad, her eyes were watery and her hearing was impaired, all of which made her a forlorn and pitiable figure as she cowed close before the judge's bench. She said in a scarcely audible voice: "My name is Mary Williamson." She pleaded guilty to the charge, and with keen appreciation of the woman's forlorn plight, the judge promptly discharged her.
