Special Correspondence. American Fork. Utah, Aug. 18.—El-der George Jacklin of this place, passed away Sunday, Aug. 12, 1906, in the skih year of his life. For two years past he has been a great sufferer with point's disease, and he welcomed right's disease, and he welcomed aright's disease, and he welcomed asath. He embraced the gospel in death. He empraced the gospel in England in his youth and was true to the last. Impressive obsequies were held in the Third ward chapel Aug. 15. He leaves a wife and large family of children. JAMES GARDNER CALLED.

JAMES GARDNER CALLER. James Gardner, who passed away Aug. 14, 1966, was born at Longton. Lancashire, England, June 4, 1829, and was the son of William Gardner and gardner and the son of William Gardner, who were both members of Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day, Saints. James Gardner, with his widowed mother, emigrated to America in 1855. He was married on board of ship to Miss Threifall. His mother died of the cholera at Atchison, Kansas, on the way to the valley.

cholera at Atchison, Kansas, on the way to the valley. Mr. Gardner and his wife came to American Fork Oct. 9, 1855, where they lived and died, his wife having passed away Dec. 20, 1896, leaving a family of two sons and four daughters. Mr. Gardner's life has been a useful, stren-uous one, replete with trials, and hard labor, out of which he has come like the precious metal, pure and without trons. His life was ever an open dross. His life was ever an open book for all to read and profit by, each page written in honesty and truth, clean and pure; and to be acquainted with him was to respect; to know was but to love. For many years he was a teacher in the American Fork Sunday school, and for sometime was superintendent of same. He was the oldest member of the American Fork choir, and president of that organization for a number of years. He was ever active in the municipal affairs of the city, holding a membership in the city council for 13 years, and for the last 10 years acting as sexton. Stern integrity and hon-esty of purpose characterizing every official act.

He was buried from the First ward chapel Aug. 17. Appropriate remarks were made by Presidents S. L. Chip-man. J. H. Clark and A. J. Evans of the state presidency; also Elders Webb and Frackeston, his life companions;

Epilepsy Fits St. Vitus Dance

Are nerve diseases, and unless checked, lead to destruction of both mind and body. The weak, shattered nerves must have something to strengthen and build them back to health. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is a remarkable nerve tonic and stimulant. It strengthens the nerves, relieves the nervous strain, and influences refreshing body-building sleep and rest. Persistent use seldom fails to relieve these afflictions. "I was taken with epiloptic fits; had eleven in less than 12 hours. My father sent for our family physician, but he could do very little for me, and I grew worse every day, and at last they had three doctors with me, and I still got worse. My father heard of Dr, Miles' medicines and bought a bottle of Nervine and a box of Nerve and Liver Pills. I had taken only a few doses until I began to feel better, I took 12 bottles, and It cured me sound and well. It has been worth all the world to me. I recommend it wherever I go. You may use this as a life-long testimonial to the merits of your medicine, for I am enjoying the best of health, and feel that my life and health is due to this wonderful medicine." #### SEMICOLON AND VIZ

The semicolon has nowadays a much closer relation with the comma than with the colon. In the days of the scribes it shared with the colon a func-tion now confined to the period, viz., of departing the second states of scripts. When the Gothic letter was abandoned for the Romen, a curlous result ensued in the case of the ab-breviation of videlicat (viz). The semi-colon was detached from the i, but no longer as a point. It took the shape of the letter is assembled in Gothic of the letter it resembled in Gothic serie, though not in Roman print, and hus really gave a twenty-seventh letter a our alphabet--a pseudo x. Not un-taturally it acquired the sound of xr ss, as is exemplified in the lines from 'Hudibras;'

Naturally, too, it ceased even to siglify a contraction, for our printers follow it with a period (viz.) for that purpose; and if the practise observed by Goetz at Cologne, of using a zed for a period, had prevailed, we might have seen the old form vizz arise --- Atlantic Monthly.
