

THE NEW COMPENDIUM.

A very complete and useful work is about to be given to the community. We briefly referred to it before, being the Compendium of the Doctrines of the Gospel, compiled by Apostle Franklin D. Richards and Elder James A. Little. Since the work of a similar character published by Brother Richards many years ago has been out of print, the call for a Compendium for the special use of the Elders has been very great, and the new, larger, and more improved work about to be on sale, fills a positive and urgent want.

The new Compendium is of suitable proportions to be easily carried about by the traveling ministers of the Gospel, but is at the same time quite exhaustive, embracing every principle and doctrine of the plan of salvation necessary to be included in such a work, and has over 300 pages. The manner of treatment adopted is first a brief statement, or argument of the subject, and then are introduced the sustaining quotations from the Bible, Book of Mormon, Doctrine and Covenants and Pearl of Great Price, standard works of the Church, and the inspired sayings of the Prophet Joseph Smith. The compilers have very wisely selected only the clearest and strongest quotations bearing upon the particular points treated instead of introducing a multiplicity of proofs.

Among the useful and striking features of the work is an excellent chronology of the Book of Mormon, for which the compilers are indebted to Brother George Reynolds. It also has a collection of gems from the Prophet, and a chronology of Church history. The index is arranged so that any subject upon which the reader desires to inform himself can be turned to with without the slightest difficulty.

This book is designed for the special use of Elders in the ministry, to whom it will be of priceless value, but will also be of general benefit to the whole community of Saints, and a great aid to the honest in heart in their researches after the principles of the Gospel of Christ.

In the New Compendium the latest editions of the Church works have been used.

The price ranges from one dollar to two dollars, according to binding.

Miss Chester and Two Orphans.—The Home Dramatic Club come to the front this evening with the announcement of the two plays named above, together with the farce of Box and Cox, the Careless orchestra and the well known vocalists Misses Agnes Olsen and Nellie Bruce, as their bill of attraction for the approaching Conference season. Miss Chester, the play concerning which so much has been heard in amusement circles, is a drama of an elevated character, from the pen of the well known author, Florence Marryat. It was performed at the Baldwin Theatre, San Francisco, during the past season, by Wallace's company, and in their hands it met with a most favorable reception from the public. The copy from which the Home Club perform was secured through the good offices of the well known actress Miss Annie Adams. On the same evening as this performance, the Club will present the famous old character sketch, of Box and Cox. This noted farce is a capital selection for these comedians, and in the hands of Mr. Wells, Mr. Spencer, and Mrs. Snell, it will lose none of its popularity. The new drama and the farce will be presented on Thursday evening. On Friday, the first night in Conference, the Club will reproduce the drama in which they achieved their first success, the world renowned Two Orphans. The preparations which the Club have made for this production are the most complete of any they have yet undertaken, the prodigious cast being filled with the best available talent. It will be seen that the ladies and gentlemen of the club will assume several roles different to those they have been accustomed to, Mr. Wells appearing as Jacques and Mrs. Snell as Le Foccard. The Two Orphans will be represented by Miss Dwyer and Miss Clawson. The duties which Mr. Evan Stephens has written for Misses Olsen and Bruce will be sung in Act 2d, and will be the first piece in which these two popular young ladies have been heard together. The full and complete Careless Orchestra appears each night.

Reserved seats will commence selling Wednesday morning.

TO THE PEOPLE.

The high tuition exacted by professors of music has placed it so completely in the hands of comparatively few, and beyond the reach of many. Hundreds of dollars are sometimes spent in obtaining a knowledge of music, and many would be glad to continue lessons, having once made a good start, who are prevented by circumstances. The public demand a change. In the interest of THE PEOPLE we have arranged a system of classes for the piano, organ and guitar, whereby the youth of our city who have not already engaged teachers, can have an opportunity of learning music, with a fair prospect of obtaining a thorough course at much less expense than by the old method of individual lessons. Those preferring the latter can also be accommodated at reasonable rates. We have noted with pleasure the good work of Brother Evan Stephens. His successful endeavor to encourage us all to work for the good of the people at large. The 21 pupils selected from the Sabbath Schools for one term on the Organ gratis were to have commenced this week, but owing to a few wards not reporting, those classes will delay until next Monday, when it is hoped all will be ready. Our terms to additional classes will be 20 cents per lesson for each pupil on either instrument—piano, organ or guitar. Two lessons per week. Also classes in Telegraphy at 10 cents a lesson. Very cheap and useful.

Respectfully, FLORA SHIFF HILL, H. J. HILL, Box 227, 1st South, opposite 14th Ward Assembly Rooms.
