I wish you, brother, if you can make it convenient, to come to this place and take down the items, which I would like to have published to the world, through the Millennial Star, as a miracle of God's power. I remain your brother in the Gos pel of peace, love and union, John Simpson, jun.

DURHAM, Dec. 12, 187

Prest. L. J. Herrick: . Dear Brother,-According to the request contained in the enclosed letter, I visited brother Simp-son, and learned that while he was working in the pit at Witton Gilbert, a large stone, nearly five feet square and from five to seven inch es thick, fell upon him, directly across his body, and crusted him to the ground. His brother, who was working close by, could render him no assistance; but he dispatched a boy, with all haste, for help. In the mean time his brother, who was an Elder in the Church, laid his hands upon him and prayed that God would preserve his life. When help came, it required about GROCERIES when help came, it required about six men to remove the stone from off his body, and when brother John Simpson was taken up and examined by one of the overmen of the pit, he said life was extinct, but the brother again prayed for him and he was restored to life and to his friends. He is now able to resume his work.

resume his work. We acknowledge the hand of the Lord in this matter. Your Brother, H. S. GOWANS.

Millennial Star, Dec. 23. FORNEY AND THE GOVERNMENT. -Instead of admiring the policy dictated by the idea that a country can't be governed too much, Col. Forney seems to be of the opinion that this country is getting along tolerably well, not so much by the aid of profuse and meddling government, as in spite of it, as witness the following from a Western "New York, Jan. 14. "John W. Forney, in a lecture last night on Public Life," said of Grant—'He takes his own counsel and follows his own counsel, and he seems to think that, having been called to the presidency as a neward for his great military services, he can do precisely as he pleases, and no one doubts that he is doing it. (Applause and laughter.) The main questions of the day have nearly all been settled. Both parties are uniting quietly on Both parties are uniting quietly on the same general platform, and we are beginning to realize that there is such a thing as a great people prospering without the govern-ment. The whole plan of adjust-ment, whether we consider the war itself, the subsequent disbandment of the armies of both sections, the emancipation of the slaves, the suffrage of the colored men, the success of our paper currency, the settlement of our difficulties with England, the manner in which we have survived the panic—all these are unquestionably the product of the admirable workings of our free institutions more than the result of any statesmanlike sagacity."

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE.-Washington, January 14. — The subject of woman's suffrage was before the House Committee on Territories to-day. Wilcox, delegate from the New York Woman's Suffrage Society, said that woman suffrage in Utah originated in an address before the same committee five years ago. Delegate Cannon of that Territory Delegate Cannon of that Territory admitted this statement was substantially correct. Wilcox claimed that enfranchisement was first proposed as the only practical mode of extirpating polygamy, and it would have that effect if the secresy of a vote was secured by abolishing marking of ballots with numbers or otherwise; that till accessy was or otherwise; that till secresy was secured, woman's suffrage had not a fair trial, and he said farther that the woman's suffrage element was unanimous on this question, and that, in the forthcoming political combination this element would be powerful. Mrs. Hieneman of Pittsburg, agent of the Pennsylva-nia Woman Suffrage Society, said if suffrage could be taken from wo-men it should be taken from men for the same reason. She objected to extension of the common law of 1776 to women of the Territory of Utah. Carey stated that the Poland bill, which he would accept, simply operated to substitute common for civil law and was not modified for civil law and was not modified by decisions of the Legislature. To this Wilcox assented, and McKee, chairman of the committee, stated that the committee desired this and nothing more. Carey said the Mormons enfranchised the women of Utah to out-vote the Gentiles, and they had no purpose or desire to elevate their women thereby. This latter allegation was emphatically contradicted by Cannon.—Sacramento Union.

Young men out of employment in New Orleans are advised by the Picayune to go into the country, buy a few acres of land and go to raising plums, peaches, figs, grapes, oranges, etc. Very luxurious advice, this is.
