LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

EASTERN.

Arrested-Died at Sea.

NEW YORK, 3.-The captain and plot of the City of Hartford, which was in collision on the river this afternoon, have both been arrested and locked up in default of $5,000 bail, to await the inquest.

Stilleman Witt.

A prominent citizen of Cleveland, who sailed for Europe in the steamer Scavia, a week ago, for the benefit of his dearly-remembered wife, Mr. Witt was largely interested in the railroad enterprises of the west.

Mr. Tracy's Case.

Mr. Tracy's attack of paralysis is more serious because of being complicated with Bright's disease of the kidneys. Mr. Tracy has for many years been a leading spirit in Wall Street, and his illness had a decided effect on the stock market. In the early dealing the market was strong, the prices advancing from one-eighth to 3/4 per cent, the latter Panama; but on the announcement of the critical condition of Mr. Tracy, the market became heavy, and prices have since fallen one-half to two per cent. It is not known what Mr. Tracy's interest in the market is, but it is not believed to be large, every one, however, seemed disposed to wait expectations before extending operations.

A Dramatic Scene in Court.

The Tribune, to-morrow, publishes the following: "One of the most dramatic scenes of the trial, and the only one which has relieved the monotony of its later days, occurred at the opening of yesterday's session, and was evidently a surprise to all but one or two of the spectators. Mrs. Tilton, who came into court at the usual hour, accompanied by Mrs. Field and Mrs. Ovington, and had seated herself in her place, the judge, after of, and a little apart from, the mouth of the court, which was again in force; indeed the court was unusually crowded, particularly with ladies, some of whom stood peeping through the doorway into the court, and others, and one of whom brought an opera glass, which she levelled at the principal characters of the trial drama. The court had no sooner been organized than Mrs. Tilton, rising like an apparition in her place, and facing his honor, cried out in her low voice, a little tremulous from embarrassment, 'Judge Nelson, the judge heard of my husband's deceit, and looked around as if to discover whence the attention had been called, when his attention was called to Mrs. Tilton by a spectator, who sat near and who repeated her call, at the same time pointing towards her. Mrs. Tilton, seeing that she had attracted the judge's attention, spoke up, saying, 'Your honor, I have a communication which I hope your honor will read aloud.' The judge, in answer, turned to the matter, and the envelope held by Mrs. Tilton was given him, and he, remarking that it was addressed to the judge, passed it to him, who, after reading the communication said: 'Mrs. Tilton, this matter will be considered deliberately, as soon as the judge has decided on the matter, he will have been heard a hush had fallen upon the audience, and every eye had become fixed upon her slight figure, the only one standing in the center of the room. Her face flushed a little when she perceived the general attention which she had attracted. Her husband sitting ten feet in front of her, had turned in his seat when he heard his wife's voice, but he did not look at her. His counsel naturally looked and looked full at her, as did also Beecher's, and the necks on the bench behind the judge were stretched forward. The full contents of the communication were made public, and all parties to the suit decline to give a copy for publication. Judge Nelson said the matter was one to be decided by the court, and he would not withstand Mrs. Tilton's desire that it be read aloud. He felt compelled, at least for the present, to consider it as a confidential one, and even should Mrs. Tilton consent to its immediate publication he should decline to give a copy for publication at once. He said the matter would be considered to-day, then if both the counsel for Tilton and Beecher consented, and Mrs.
Tilton insisted, it might be made public. It was observed that about 10 o'clock, it was a matter between the judge and Mrs. Tilton, and he did not feel at liberty to say anything relative to the matter. The latter was made known to-day. It is understood that it embraces, first an appeal, on Mrs. Tilton's part, to the court to be heard in defense of her own character and the character of the late husband; second, a protest against the injustice of the failure of either side to call her; and third, a solemn and pathetic assertion of her innocence of adultery."

Raw Silk Imported.

The monthly circular of the Silk Association of America reports the imports of raw silk for April as 408 packages, 272 of which came via Panama.

Lost.

St. Louis, 3.-Mrs. Divan, wife of John Divan, a railroad man of Kansas City, or Jefferson city, and her two little girls, aged seven and eight years, were lost on the steamboat St. Louis, and six or seven days passengers are supposed to be lost, but their names cannot be ascertained.

No Harm Done.

CHICAGO, 3.-Dispatches from points in Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Missouri and Minnesota report that very little if any damage was done to the wheat by Saturday's frost; the only harm done seems to have been to early regulated fruit suffering little if any.

Appointed - "Alabama" Claims Court.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 3.-Curtis S. Burnham, of Richmond, Ky., has been appointed Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, vice Jno. I.
Hartley, resigned.

In the court of commissioners of the Alabama claims, to-day, the following cases were submitted upon testimony, and argument of counsel, Hon. Cornelius Cole appearing for the claimants, and Hon.
J. A. J. Creswell for the U. S.; No. 82, Levison Bros., of San Francisco, vs. the U. S.; Nos. 53 and 55, Main and Winchester, of San Francisco, vs. the U. S. To-morrow is set for the argument.

Business in the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court decided case No. 238, the Mutual Life Insurance Company of N. Y. vs. Young Admiral of Young in error to the Circuit Court for the district of California. In this case numerous points of interest were raised on argument, but the decision turned on the question as to how far a contract of insurance, or to insure, had been actually concluded. The deceased applied for a policy of insurance to the general agent of the insurance company, giving the company at San Francisco, giving his note for the first payment of the premium, and taking from the agent a receipt, which stated the note as cash, and stipulated for the delivery of the policy, on certain terms set out in the receipt if application should be accepted by the company. The application was accepted and the policy was sent to the general agent, but the policy delivered in amount from the premium, and the terms of payment from the terms in the receipt, and the deceased died without having assented to the policy as sent to the agent. The Court ruled that there was no binding contract between the parties, and that the receipt was only a qualified acceptance by the company by sending the policy, and that it not having been accepted by the deceased there was no meeting in the minds of the parties, and the contract was reversed, with directions to enter judgment for the company.

Wm. W. Morrow, of San Francisco, was admitted to practice in this court. Cutler McAllister, of San Francisco, was also admitted to practice in this court.

No. 827, the U. S. vs. Urbana, Ohio, an Indian land case, was argued, on appeal from the District Court of the U. S. for the district of California; on motion of J.
D. McPherson it was ordered that the Court that the appeal in this case be docketed and dismissed with costs.

No. 828, Jas. P. Robinson, vs. Jno.
Satterlee, Adner & Co., on appeal from the Circuit Court of the U. S. for the district of California, on motion of Cutler McAllister it was ordered by the Court that the appeal in this case be docketed and dismissed with costs.

Superseded - Indians Suffering.

Lieut. Col. Updon, commandant of the cadets at West Point, has been superseded by Col. Thomas H.
Neil; this is in accordance with the rule adopted, to change every four years.

Lieut. Col. Hatch, of the fourth U. S. cavalry, commanding Fort Sill, telegraphs the war department as follows, under date of April 10:
"Frequent complaints having been made by the Indians camped near this post that they are suffering from hunger, I have made an investigation and find the complaints well founded. The following is the ration allowed by the Indian war department: Beef 3 pounds sugar, one lb. salt, one lb. bread half a pound; to a hundred rations four pounds of coffee, three pounds sugar, one lb. salt, one lb. sugar, half lb. tobacco. This ration was established when the Indian could partly support himself by hunting, but with no other help it is barely enough to prevent hunger. It is not, however, all issued, as there has been no flour there not over one-third the authorized amount has been issued during the present fiscal year. There is no grain, and not even two-thirds of the regular ration has been made during the same time. The beef lately issued has been shamefully spoiled, so that the gross is altogether out of proportion to the net weight. Acting Indian Agent Howard acknowledges that the beef lately issued was unfit for food, but states that he had for it, the increase of the proper authority is the condition of affairs at the Wichita agency is worse than this. There has been no flour there for a long time; the agent is absent and the Indians are killing and eating their horses. Endorsement by General Pope. Respectfully forwarded by the commanding General of the army, through the office of the Assistant Adjutant General of the military division of the Missouri.
The military division of the Missouri is specially invited to the evidence of maladministration of Indian affairs, which exists at the Ft. Sill and Wichita agencies. It is idle to expect that these Indians will remain peaceably upon their reservations with the prospect of starvation in doing so, and so long as this maladministration exists the military authorities cannot be, and will not consent to be, held accountable for any outbreak which may occur on the part."

A Centennial Celebration.

CHARLESTON, S. C., 3.-The centennial of the German Flag, the only surviving military company of those who were organized in Charleston, May 3rd, 1775, upon receipt of the news of the battle of Lexington, was celebrated to-day by an imposing demonstration.
The parade was observed as a general holiday. A battery of the first
