SAN FRANCISCO, 29 .- The Cy. hrenes brings Honolulu dates to October 17th. The kingdom was quiet. John P. Zephrina Kahoa-dil, one of the leaders in the recent dil, one of the leaders in the recent riotous demonstration in favor of Queen Emma, had been convicted of treason, and sentenced to be hanged on the first Friday in March next. The king was considering the question of the entire recon-struction of his cabinet. Honolulu papers say that, while the person-nelle of the Embassy about to go to Washington to negotiate a recipro-city treaty, is not all that could be desired, still the members are well qualified for their eminent mis-sion.
