Capt. Lemly made immediate objection and Mr. Former processes of the contraction and the contr objection and Mr. Raynor presented an earnest plea to be allowed to read the signals. He was not permitted at that time to do so but it is understood that the signals alleged to have been sent New York to the vere dated at 8 a. m., on that date and was an invitation to accompany her to Siboney. The admiral's invita-tion was wig-wagged by Capt. Chadwick and was as follows:

"The admiral wishes to know if you will join him this morning in going to ee Gen. Shafter."
To this Capt. Taylor repiled at 8:37: "Werk aboard ship previously going on prevents me from going with you to-

Mr. Raynor contended that the signals were among the most important that the command of the fleet devolved upon Commodore Schley.

Capt. Lemiy replied that under previous rulings of the court the reading of the signals was clearly inadmissable. He, however, agreed that he would consult with Mr. Raynor and and that if, after this consultation the pestion including the reading of the Signals should appear proper, Admiral Taylor could be recalled and the ques-tion asked. To this Mr. Raynor consented and the court took a recess for luncheon.

A NEW DEPARTURE. New, Effectual and Convenient Cure

for Catarrh. Of catarrh remedies there is no end but of catarrh cures, there has always been a great scarcity. There are many remedies to relieve, but very few that really cure. The old practice of snufflag salt water and the washes, douches, powders and inhalers in common use are very little, better than the old fashioned salt water douche.

The use of inhalers and the applica tien of salves, washes and powders to the nose and throat to cure catarrh is no more reasonable than to rub the back to cure kidney disease. Catarrh is just as much a blood disease as kidney trouble or rheumatism and it cannot be cured by local treatment any more than they can be.
To cure catarrh, whether in the head, threat or stomach an internal antiseptle treatment is necessary to drive the catarrhal polson out of the blood and ystem, and the new catarrh cure designed on this plan and the remark-able success of Ttuart's Catarrh Tablets is because being used internally it drives out catarrhal infection through action upon stomach, liver and bowels Wm. Zimmerman of St. Joseph, relates an experience with catarrh which is of value to millions of suf-ferers everywhere. He says: "I negferers everywhere. He says: "I neg-lected a slight nasal catarrh until it gradually extended to my throat and bronchial tubes and finally even my stomach and liver became affected, but as I was able to keep up and do a day's work I let it run along until my hearing began to fail me and then I realized that I must get rid of catarrh or lose my position as I was clerk and my hearing was absolutely necessary.

"Some of my friends recommended an inhaler, another a catarrh salve but they were no good in my case, nor was anything else until I heard of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and bought a package at my drug store. They benefited me from the start and in less than four months I was completely cured of catarrh although I had suffered nearly all my life from it.

They are pleasant to take and so much more convenient to use than other catarrh remedies that I feel I cannot say enough in favor of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets."

A little book on cause and cure of catarrh will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. and the tablets are sold by all drug-gists in the United States and Canada.

FATE NOW IN THE HANDS OF JURY

After recalling Andrew Galland to the stand to make plainer a few points regarding the location of the alleged erime, the state this morning rested crime, the state this morning rested in the Bridge case. The defense called no witnesses and also rested.

County Attorney Loofbourow then opened the argument for the state. Mr. Loofbourow did not talk at great length, but he put before the jury succinctly all the alleged facts of the case. He drew a graphic picture of little Ellen being entitled to the scene of the len being enticed to the scene of the alleged crime, and asked why if the defendant had not committed any crime why he had instructed the youthful victim of his lust not to say anything about what they had done or he would be arrested. Counsel also drew attention to the testimony of the Galland boys who had accidentally witnessed the acts of Bridge and the little girl.

Attorney Wenger argued that the charge against Bridge was ridiculous.

"Wh: would appresent the charge against Bridge was ridiculous." would any sane man seek such a public place to commit such an act? District Attorney Eichnor concluded the arguments, after which the cour-delivered his instructions to the jury which retired at twenty minutes to 12

Mr. Eichnor dwelt upon the difficulty of prosecuting a case of this character and the excellent testimony which had been adduced. He reminded the jury how the child had sat on the witness stand with downcast eyes and embarrassed manner, and how she had answered the questions of counsel in so low a voice that even the court steno-grapher sitting at her side could no always catch her answers. But he drew attention to the fact that the child's testimony was clear and convincing and that the defense had been unable to break it down in even the slightest degree.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

After counsel had got through with the examination of the deputy county surveyor yesterday, the Galland boys who claim to have witnessed the eged offense, were called to the stand. Both Clarence and Andrew Galland nade excellent witnesses for the state. They testified that they had looked through a gap in the corral fence caused by the warping of a board and had plainly seen all the acts of the defendant and the child.

The increase of $508,728.13 or over 150.7 per cent in not due to any especially large deals, but to many small ones. A greater amount of business is being trans-acted through the banks this year than was the case in previous years. The telegraphic reports of the attitude of the sugar trust towards the beet sugar industry, caused a flurry in local sugar stocks during the past few days. There was a rush of small few days. There was a rush of small sellers with but few buyers till the stock fell from $15.70 the figure on Saturday to $14.70. Then a strong body urday to $14.70. Then a strong body of buyers appeared and a number of sales took place at $14.70, $14.85 and of the city court, treasurer, auditor, recorder, attorney. The report was adopted.

CREDENTIALS.

The credentials committee reported but one contest-that in district 36, in the Third precinct, and recommended the seating of the regularly reported delegation, and disallowing the claims of the contestants. This report was adopted.

NO SPEECH.

In taking his place as permanent chairman, Judge Henderson said that one good effect had come from his se-lection to receive the honor, and that was the fact that at least one speech had been done away with. He begged the convention to accept his remarks of the morning as sufficing for this afternoon, and hoped that the would at once preced to business. Accordingly the order of business as outlined by the committee was proceeded

CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.

The platform and resolutions committee being unprepared to report in its given order, the convention took a recess for five minutes in order to allow each precinct delegation time to name two members of the city campaign committee to be presented to the house. At the end of that time these names were presented and declared elected: First precinct—John Montgomery and

Geo. E. Hill. Second precinct-Ben D. Luce and L. Third precinct-Eli A. Folland and

Charles L. Berry. Fourth precinct-James Maxwell and . H. Dunning. Fifth precinct-Martin A. Mulvey and A. B. Jarman. VOTE FULL NUMBER.

It was decided by the convention that in cases where the delegations were incomplete on account of absentees the full vote of these delegations be counted in all ballots.

THE PLATFORM. At this point the committee on platform and resolutions announced itself as ready and Hon. Fisher S. Harris as ready and Hon. Fisher S. Harris read the following platform:

1-We favor the municipal ownership of all public utilities.

2-We believe that the parks of our city should be held in sacred trust for the people, and we believe that no power should be conferred on any man or men to give away these beautiful breathing places, which belong to our children. We believe that this princhildren. We believe that this principle should also apply to all other pub-

property. 3-We condemn the present administration for its reckless extravagance, in squandering the taxes gathered from e people, and for the appointment and employment of incompetent officers and employes, who hold their positions, not by reason of efficiency, but as a reward for political services.

We especially condemn its notoriously inefficient management of the street sprinkling, street and irrigation departments, and we promise the people that the nominees of this convention will, in the selection of appointive offi-cers and employes, make merit and not party service, the first consideration. Efficiency for the position will be the test of qualification for employment. 4-We direct the attention of the taxpayers to the financial condition of the city caused by the Republican mai-ad-ministration, the interest bearing-bonded indebtedness being now $2,798,000.

and, including our proportion of the state, county and other indebtedness, aggregating over $4,000,000, entailing an annual interest charge of over $160,000, the same being an actual mortgage on the same of every citizen.

5-We call attention to the negligent and incompetent method of keeping the city accounts. For lack of a proper system of accounting in many of the departments of the city government, neither the people, Mayor nor City Council are able to obtain a correct knowledge of the financial condition and operations of the municipality. A system should at once be adopted which will furnish to any citizen, at any time, and in published reports at stated per-iods, intelligible information showing the revenues and expenditures of the There has been no revision or codification of the ordinances of the city for many years and hundreds of ordi-nances have been passed, many appar-ently in force have been repealed, and it is impossible for anyone, lawyer or layman, to ascertain what ordinances are actually in force. We favor, therefore, an immediate revision and codifi-cation of the ordinances of the city. 7—The ordinances of the city, the enlightened moral sentiment of the com munity, and, we believe, the majority of those in that business, demand the Sunday closing of saloons. We therefore condemn the present administration for its disregard of the will of the content of th people and the ordinances of the city, and piedge our nominees to the en-forcement of the law. 8-Recognizing the large and constantly increasing number of our fel-low-citizens, who use the bicycle, we ledge ourselves to the passage and enorcement of such ordinances as shall give them the rights and privileges to which they are entitled, without in-fringing upon the rights and privileges of any other class of citizens.

3-We condemn the police department for its gross abuse of power, and for its permission of frequent violations of the law. It is a matter of public notoriety that minors have been permitted to frequent saloons and pool-rooms in the city. Not only should this abuse be at once corrected, but the license of any person permitting minors in a place where intoxicating liquors are sold, should be immediately revoked. 10-Upon this platform and declara-10—Upon this platform and declaration of principles we confidently ask the support of every citizen having the welfare of the city at heart, regardless of previous political affiliations. We pledge the nominees of this convention, ifelected, to give the people of Salt Lake City a wise, conservative, economical and business-like administration.

The following resolution was also resented by the same committee:

"Be it resolved, That the Democrats of Salt Lake City, in convention assembled, deeply deplore the cowardly as assimation of the late President of the United States and emphatically condemn the feachings and tendencies of demn the teachings and tendencies anarchy. We extend our heartfelt syn pathy to the widow and the nation their bereavement and though of di ferent political faith testify to our high appreciation as American citizens of the manly characteristics and able statesmanship of William McKinley," SALOON MEN'S FIGHT.

Mr. Whitaker proposed that the con vention adopt the platform by sections while a delegate from the Seventeenti while a delegate from the Seventeenth district moved an amendment to adopt the paper as a whole. This precipitated a lively discussion, which was principally pushed on the side of the anti-liquor-reform people by Mr. M. E. Mulvey, who declared that the platform was objectionable to himself and to many other members of the Democratic party, and its adoption in its present form, he believed, would mean the defeat of the party in the coming election.

Mr. Mulvey—"Mr. Chairman, I desire to say to Mr. Harris that I am not so small but I may be seen at almost any VOTED UPON SECTIONS After considerable discussion the con-vention decided by vote to consider the platform by sections and the reading of that instrument was proceeded with under that method. when it came to the section dealing with the city's bonded indebtedness there was some discussion as to the advisability of its adoption, but it was ultimately allowed to stand.

"THERE'S THE RUB."

When the section condemning the practice of allowing saloons to remain open on Sundays was read the hottest fight of the day was simultaneously reached and the contest was waxing warm when this report closed; and the promise was that the discussion would nsume considerable of the convention's time. CONVENTION NOTES.

German-American citizenship was well represented in the convention. Membership of the delegations was Banners were plentiful and sugges-tive of the lines upon which the com-ing campaign is to be fought out.

Ladles were quite numerous among the delegates.

"If a better man than I am is nom-inated I will take off my coat and help him—but they can't find a better man," —Morris L. Sommer. The floor of the convention hall was well crowded this afternoon and the first balcony contained a good many spectators. There seemed to be more trouble in the Third precinct delegation over the naming of its representation in the city campaign committee than was anticipated for the convention in nominating city officers. The band was not in attendance in the afternoon and its kind offices were sadly nussed during the deliberations of the Third precinct upon campaign
