LOCAL BRIEFS.

The boys of H and D companies did well at Tuesday evening's regimental inspection.

Sergt. Rodebeck of H company, First Infantry, has been promoted to be sergeant-major.

Henry Jackson, an erratic colored man, was arrested last night, on charge of beastly conduct with boys.

Local marketmen claim that the principal offenders in the matter of short weights are peddlers and hucksters.

Local architects say that the open hallway sitting room is becoming quite a feature now in more pretentious residences.

The Indian war veterans will meet tomorrow night, in the Thirteenth ward meetinghouse. Members of the Nauvoo Legion are invited.

Former U. S. Senator George L. Shoup is at the Knutsford from Idaho. He is here on a brief business trip, and says there are no politics stirring up in the Gem state; but all the farmers are looking for an unusually prosperous season.

The university preps elected yesterday, these officers for the ensuing scholastic year, president, D. O. Harris; vice president, J. C. Wood; secretary and treasurer, J. E. McKim; student representative, Francis H. Platt.

Members of the local Grocers' association say that they do not propose to close up on Wednesday afternoons, and a prominent meat marketman says there will be no general closing on any half holiday among the butchers and grocers.

All Veteran Volunteer firemen are requested to attend a meeting in the Veteran Volunteer firemen's hall, 271 Canyon road, at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, May 29, to month visiting among the different colleges there. Prof. Judson has written important works on history and the science of government.

Corp. P. McConnell and two privates of the Twenty-second battery, left last night for San Francisco, having in custody Private Tallman Thibault, sentenced to three years at Alcatraz for stealing a revolver. In civil life such an offense would result in perhaps a 30 days sentence.

Companies K and M of the Twenty-ninth infantry camped last night at Price, and started this morning on their 90 miles' hike to Fort Duchesne. The march will require six or seven days, and the troops will sleep at night, in dogtents. The men do not relish going to Duchesne, and the families of the officers are quite dejected over the prospect.

The Salt Lake chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy will conduct Memorial day exercises at Mt. Olivet next Monday at 2 p. m., when there will be addresses and music, and all Confederate veterans are invited to be present. The chapter will meet tomorrow at 2:30 p. m., in the Kenyon hotel parlors, where all meetings will be held hereafter.

Rev. Dr. Paden will deliver the annual address before the graduating class of the Salt Lake Collegiate institute on the evening of Sunday, June 5, in the First Presbyterian church. The school commencement comes the following Thursday evening. The commencement exercises of Westminster college will be held on the evening of Monday, June 6, in the First Presbyterian church.

menement exercises of Westminster college will be held on the evening of Monday, June 6, in the First Presbyterian church.

Detective E. A. Franks says that while in Carbon county, he heard an Italian strike declare that Denonville was a much better man than George Washington. Mr. Franks and one or two of his brother guards were not long in sending the Italian lying down the canyon, and ran him out of the settlement. Officers of the national guard who afterwards came along expressed deep regret that they had not been on hand when the foreigner made his boast. The strikers are mightily sick of their strike now, and the detective believes they will all shortly leave the country.

The commencement number of Red and Black, the official publication of the students of the Salt Lake high school, has been issued. Without doubt it is the finest magazine of the kind ever issued in Salt Lake. The book consists of 80 pages of reading matter, in addition to this are 20 pages of advertising matter, besides as many more containing embellishments in the way of half tones and cartoons. The publication is truly a work of art; the members of the staff of 1904 have reason to feel proud of the success they have achieved. Corydon W. Higgins, with the assistance of Harry Blintz, has displayed marked ability as a youthful journalistic manager. The art cover, as well as the numerous cartoons contained in the commencement number were the product of R. L. Gibbs, one of the students. As an artist Mr. Gibbs has displayed talent which bespeaks for him a successful career.

Webster Stake High Priests. The regular monthly meeting of the quorum will be held in the Third ward meetinghouse, Ogden, on Saturday, May 28, 1904. Members, please take notice.

LORIN FARR, President. An Open Letter. From the Omaha, S. C. News: Early in the spring of 1903 I was taken with diarrhoea and so severe were the pains that we called a physician who prescribed for us, but his medicines failed to give any relief. A friend who had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand gave each of us a dose and we at once felt the effects. I procured a bottle of the same and the entire contents were entirely cured. It is a wonderful remedy and should be found in every household. H. C. Bailey, Editor. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

PUNCHED THE PREACHER.

Man in Crowd Took Umbrage at Remarks of the Evangelist.

Two evangelists on the corner of First South and East Temple street last night opened their meeting with prayer and closed it with a "rough house." The cause of the disturbance was that the preachers proceeded to pitch into the residents of Salt Lake and incidentally class them among the blackest of sinners en route to the Pit of Tophet. Then the large crowd surrounding took a hand and proceeded to lay the preachers, who in turn became very choicely in their epithets and denunciations. The affair terminated with an excited individual stepping into the ring and flinging a bunch of knuckles into the evangelist's face. The teacher of humility when he recovered from his surprise, did not turn the other cheek. He simply contented himself, by saying: "This is what I get among the Mormons; I might have expected it." It is now on the cards that he will graduate as a fully qualified anti-Mormon lecturer in the east.

MYSTERIOUS ASSAULT.

Stranger Badly Beaten by Unknown Parties Near Postoffice.

A brutal assault that occurred in the heart of the city, within a few doors of the postoffice, was reported to the police by A. Dellanna, a stranger in the city, at 8:15 o'clock last night. The police are puzzled by the case, and have not yet determined whether the assault was with the intent of committing robbery, or whether Dellanna was taken advantage of by some of the men who were in the neighborhood of the postoffice at the time of the assault. Dellanna went to the police station at 8:15 o'clock, from where he had been received on the nose, and with his face and head covered with bruises. He was walking westward on Second South street, and had gone a few doors past the postoffice, when he was pounced upon by a man and began to beat him. Dellanna said that he had never seen the man before, and he had not noticed him until he was pounced upon. He said that he had not noticed him until he was pounced upon. He said that he had not noticed him until he was pounced upon.

Dellanna was badly beaten, and he was taken to the hospital. He is now recovering from his injuries. The police are looking for the man who assaulted him.

WASATCH SUMMER RESORT. Particulars, write, Alkire, Wasatch Hotel, via Sandy, or "Come see."

KEEP YOUR EYE ON CASTILLA. FOR SALE-REAL ESTATE.

CLOSE COMPETITION FOR LEASES ON "EMPIRE" STOREHOUSES CLOSING JUNE 6.

Not the least remarkable indication of the growth of business in West Temple street, "The Union Depot Highway," is the great demand for leases on the six stores in the modern building, which is being erected on First West and South Temple by J. Donnan Reavis for a period of five years for the purpose of a large private hotel. The fact that there will be 35 rooms above these stores, all occupied by tenants, will in itself stimulate the business of the storekeepers below.

The knowledge of the consummation of this lease has caused a great many applications to be filed for leases on these six stores, and it has been decided by Mr. Reavis' agent, Mr. Reavis, to postpone the stores to the applicants on Monday, June 6th. Priority of application will give the pick of the storehouses to the earliest applicants.

All those who are desirous of making application for one of these stores are requested to get their application in, if possible, before June 6, in order to be sure of securing one of the stores. The rent will be very reasonable to responsible persons, and long time leases will be made. The natural wood finish throughout can be secured at the rental value of the stores today, will in itself be a great inducement to those who are desirous of securing a store for their business. The rent will steadily increase in the business district in an assured fact.

Those who are desirous of leasing at the office of J. DONNAN REAVIS, GROUND FLOOR, SECURITY TRUST BUILDING, 201 Main St., TEL. 105-2. Get your application in early.
