LONDON, 23.-A Vienna corres-pondent of the Times says, accordng to advices from the Russian frontier, the Czar's troops are moving slowly on account of bad roads and bad weather. The Roumanian roads are in such a hopeless state that three weeks are named as the shortest time in which they can be made fit for heavy military transport. The conviction gradually dawns that a far larger force is re uired for the task which Russia has before her than was first pre pared. If the news from St. Petersburg is to be trusted, an order for the mobilization of the whole army was actually decided on before the Czar left St. Petersburg. Whether this be the case or not, it is certain that since the troops in Bessarabia began to move towards the frontier. a general movement of the Russian forces began southward and west-some advance toward a settlement. There is little ground to suppose that the Russians expect any more than others from such possible at-tempts, but they would have taken away every possibility of such an attempt being made if they had come forward with a manifesto immediately.

A dispatch from Pera says the Sultan, while still hoping for peace, definitely decided to-day, to go to the Danube and take command of the troops in case of war. The Post says: "We understand the English, Mediterranean fleet will shortly be reinforced by the Channel squadros,"

A Vienna dispatch states that the manifesto, by Roumania will be published immediately after Rus-sia's to the effect that Roamania acts in alliance with Russia in the war. The reason given is that Tur-key persists in denying Roumania her rightful privileges, and insult-ingly endeavors to designate her as an integral part of the Turkish empire.

The Times Vienna correspondent says the Russian manifesto is not likely be issued before the Czar's return from Kischeneff on April 29th. The same correspondent re-peats the report that Russis's circuiar note has been despatched by special couriers. He adds, "How-ever this may be, the note has not been received here." The conclu-sion is that there is to be a respite of about a week. Russia's reason for this delay seems rather complex. The apparent reason is that her preparations are not quite completed. The Times correspondent with the Turkish army says 10,000 men, from Widdin, have gone to the seat of war, despite the assertion that an understanding between Austria and Russia relative to Eastern affairs has been arranged. There is no doubt that Austria reserves ab-
