The General was met by the officers of Camp Douglas, and was serenaded by the Fourteenth Infantry band. In response to a call from the large crowd of citizens who gathered in front of the hotel, he appeared upon the balcony, and, after excusing himself from mak-ing a speech, thanked the people for the kindly reception they accorded him. He was to visit Camp Douglas to-day.

> Trip to St. George.-Mr. Nathan Davis, of the firm of Davis, Howe Co., of this City, reached home last evening from a trip to St. George, Southern Utah, for which placed he started on the 12th of July. During his absence he put in its place the font in the St. George Temple, which building is being pushed forward to completion as fast as possible under the circumstances. All the sheeting was on the roof before he left and it was expected that the west gable end would be completed last Saturday, and that in about four weeks the two side walls would be finished. Mr. Davis says the people there are very energetic in this matter, and are evidently very desirous of having the House of the Lord completed. Mr. Miles Romney was sick for a week during Mr. Davis' stay at St. George, but he was getting around again when he left. The weather in that region was very bot, and general business dull, Some little was being done in min-ing matters, and in the Grapd Guich District an engine had been pur-

Horticultural.—The attention of the Descret Horticultural Society and the fruit growers of the Terri-tory is called to the importance of making a display of their fine fruitat the biennial meeting of the American Pomological Seciety, which is to be held in the West for the first time, in the Exposition Buildfirst time, in the Exposition Building at Chicago, Sept. 8th, 9th and 10th. The last meeting was held at Boston in 1873, at which time the exhibition of our fruits attracted marked attention and received encommuns from the most prominent sestern fruit growers. Last year a collection was sent by our Horti-cultural Bociety to the Nebrasks S ate Fair, and received a resolution of thanks and the Society's sit ver medal was awarded for the "excilent display." Mr. T. J.
