SALT LAKE CITY, April 21.—George E. Atchley, who was arrested at the State Penitentiary in Salt Lake City, last week, was condemned to death while he was serving his sentence for the murder of his wife, was executed yesterday morning at the state prison at 12 m. He was condemned to death for the killing of his wife, which he committed in 1855.

Atchley, 50, was born in New York, but had resided in Utah for about 10 years, having been brought here by his wife, who was a widow when he married her. They had two children, a son and a daughter, when he married her.

The son, George, 18, was arrested in New York, and is now serving a life sentence for the killing of his mother.

The daughter, Mary, 16, was condemned to death for the killing of her mother.

Atchley's wife, Anna, was condemned to death for the killing of her husband.
