HOT SPRINGS GUEST ROBBED.

The members of the police depart-ment and sheriff's office have been ask-ed to locate one Tom Hawkins, former-ly porter at the Utah Hot Springs, who is charaged with stealing a pocket book belonging to A. B. Wagner, a guest of the house who was in the bathing pool at the time,

According to the story given to the officers it appears that Wagner who arrived at the springs a few days ago from Joplin, Missouri, had deposited his wallet, said to contain between $150 and wallet, said to contain between $150 and $200 and a valuable gold watch in the office while he went into a bath. Haw-kins sneaked into the office and stole the wallet and watch. When Wag-ner returned from the bath the theft was discovered and the authorities noti-fied fied.

W. Bashford, D.D., ELLD., who is pre-siding, delivered an address yesterday on "The Awakening of China," In the afternoon the Woman's For-eign Missionary society met and lis-tened to an address from Mrs. Bash-ford, wife of the bishop, who spoke en-tertainingly of the missionary work which is now being carried on in for-eign countries. As a good description was given the surrounding towns it is very likely that the man will be arrested within a day or so.

FAMOUS STAGEDRIVER DEAD.

Wm. F. Carson, Cousin of Kit Carson, Closes Adventurous Career.

Ogden, Aug. 21 .- William Franklyn Ogden, Aug. 21.—William Franklyn Carson, one of the western pioneers and a cousin of the famous Kit Car-son, passed away at the family resi-dence on Read avenue, yesterday morning. Mr. Carson was born in Ketucky, 68 years ago and at the time of the Civil war he served with the Fifth Louisions Tirgare. At the she of the Civil war he served with the Fith Louisiana Tigers. At the close of the war, Carson came west and drove the overland stage west of Cheyenne. Twice his stage was taken from him by the Indians, he only es-caped by cutting the traces and runni caped by cutting the traces and runni caped by cutting the traces and run-ning away on a horse. When the Union Pacific was built Carson had a con-tract and had charge of the advance

Yesterday afternoon the driver of a load of hay was driving down Twen-ty-fifth street hill with a ton of hay, and when he was crossing the car tracks preparatory to driving to the rear of the steam laundry, the load toppled over. The driver scrambled out beneath the load, and with the ald of a friend succeeded in getting the wagon righted and the load back on. He drove across the street car track and went down an alleyway when over went the load again. As a number of ladies saw the accident from the street, the driver considerate-ly went to the barn where the hay was to go-only about 20 yards away --and there he gave vent to his feel-ings. Later the hay was gathered up the second time and put in the barn. POLICE COURT. Yesterday afternoon the driver of a Circulator, - C. C. Brown, Jr.

Dist. Atty. Darrin Says it Won't be Repetition of Thaw Trial.

New York, Aug. 20 .- Dist. Atty. Darrin of Queens county, who has charge of the prosecution of the Hains brothers in connection with the killing of William E. Annis, announced today that Queens county could not tolerate a great expenditure of money in trying the case and that there was no necessity for a long drawn out trial. Mr. Darrin continued:

"The trial of the Hains brothers will not be a repetition of the Harry Thaw case. To begin with, I do not think a Queens county jury will stand for a brainstorm defense. The application which I have sent to Gov. Hughes, ask-ing for a special grand jury, will, I ex-port, be granted, and that the governor will name a judge to preside who will see that the Hains brothers have a forts and impartial trial, but at the see that the fails brothers have a fair and impartial trial, but at the same time with no unnecessary delays. I expect to be ready to try the case at the earliest date that can be fixed for the trial, which may be some time in October."
