

BRITISH JINGOES ANXIOUS FOR WAR.

Must be No Delay and No Limit Set by the Russian Government in Its Apology.

DEEP RESENTMENT EVIDENT.

Hostile Demonstration Against the Russian Ambassador at Victoria Station.

London, Oct. 24.—Great Britain today sent a long urgent note to the Russian government officially detailing the circumstances of the amazing and unexpected attack by the Russian second Pacific squadron during the night of Oct. 21 on British fishing boats in the North sea. The text of the note has not been given out, but it is officially stated from the foreign office that it contains the significant announcement "the situation is one which, in the opinion of his majesty's government, does not brook delay."

Meanwhile the conservative public and press are remarkably undemonstrative. As usual the jingo element demands war, and even in official quarters some go as far as to say that it may be necessary to stop the Pacific fleet pending settlement of the whole affair, though this extreme measure, it is believed, will not be necessary.

Everywhere there is evidence of the positive opinion that this is no time for the usual diplomatic dilly-dallying, and there must be no delay and no limit set by Russia to the British in their demand for an apology of the Russian government.

Lord Lansdowne, in this interview, told M. Sarsenoff, the Russian ambassador, that he would be well if explanations were not sought for the "extraordinary incident" until the country had some authentic information. The whole affair, he said, seemed so unaccountable that one could not help feeling sure there would be an explanation of what must have been a singularly singular event. Lord Lansdowne added that the country might rely upon one thing, namely, that the emperor of Russia, "who is known throughout the world for his feelings of humanity, could not fail to be depressed by such an incident."

There was a hostile demonstration at Victoria station tonight upon the arrival of Count Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador to Great Britain. A crowd gathered and booed him and attempted to break the windows of his carriage.

The deep resentment of the whole British public, however, is reflected by the incident at the Victoria station on the arrival of Count Benckendorff from the continent. There is no attempt anywhere among the more of responsibility to magnify the occurrence into a deliberate act of war, but in view of the present inability to bid an explanation there is being poured upon the heads of the officers of the squadron a flood of invective and insinuation, though incompetence first and thereafter complete lack of the most generally accepted explanation.

Thus far no official word has been received from St. Petersburg as to the attitude of the Russian government. The fact that it had been decided during the day to prepare a semi-official note expressing the regret of the Russian government and its willingness to make full reparation as soon as the responsibility was fixed, was communicated by the Russian Press to Lord Lansdowne and was the first information on the subject he had received from St. Petersburg.

The absence during the day of Count Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador, necessarily caused some delay, but the Russian charge d'affaires, who called at the foreign office in request by not from Lord Lansdowne, unofficially expressed deep regret and, as far as it was possible for him to go, gave assurances of speedy action by the Russian government.

At the Russian embassy it was stated that "the whole affair was an obviously a mistake, from whatever cause, that Russia course was plainly dictated, namely, rapid and ample compensation. All over an hour turned toward St. Petersburg, and the Russian government."

Earl Onslow, president of the board of agriculture, speaking in Stirling, Scotland, said it would be well if explanations were not sought for the "extraordinary incident" until the country had some authentic information. The whole affair, he said, seemed so unaccountable that one could not help feeling sure there would be an explanation of what must have been a singularly singular event.

MARINES ON ISTHMUS.

Must Have Houses if They Are To Remain There.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Temporary structures for the health and accommodation of the marines on the Isthmus of Panama are necessary if the battalion is to be retained there, says Brig. Gen. George F. Elliott, commander of the marine corps. In his annual report made public today, he submits no estimates for this work. Estimates for the Philippines are also omitted, but the announcement is made that he later will submit "full and complete recommendations concerning the organization and disposition of marines in the Philippines."

The most important recommendation for improvements in this country is that for an appropriation of $350,000 for the construction of barracks buildings at the navy yard at Mare Island, and $50,000 for three additional sets of officers' quarters.

Of the trouble that has been experienced between the Marine band and the musical unions of the country the commander says that it is only by taking an outside work that the members of the band can make their emolument correspond to the amount they would be able to earn in civil life, and he earnestly requests the department's attention to this situation.

DUEL WITH REVOLVERS.

Balfour H. J. Gallahan of Federal Court at Butte Killed.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 24.—A thrilling revolver duel occurred tonight, in which Henry J. Gallahan, bailiff of the federal court and a well known citizen of Butte, was shot and killed after he had emptied his revolver at his assailant, who is thought by the police to be Miles Fuller, new under arrest. Trouble of long standing originating, it is alleged, over the alleged theft of gold by Fuller from the alleged boxes of Gallahan. Gallahan, it is said, caught Fuller in the act and gave him a beating. Fuller later threatened the life of Gallahan. The prisoner denies all knowledge of the shooting. A small boy was a witness to the struggle, though of the dark he was not able to get a good look at the murderer. The killing has caused a sensation.

Japanese Reservists Called Home

Honolulu, Oct. 24, 9 p. m.—A large number of Japanese reservist men reading here have received notification by cable from the military authorities in Japan calling them home for army service. It is believed that two or three hundred men will try to secure passage on the next steamer leaving here for the orient.

ANGLO-AMERICAN TREATY.

International Arbitration Society Of Chicago Wants One.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—To bring about the negotiation of a permanent Anglo-American treaty to provide for the settlement of all differences between the United States and Great Britain has been the object of an important meeting of the International Arbitration society of Chicago.

Dr. Edmund J. James, president of the University of Illinois, presided. Judging James M. Dickinson, counsel for the United States in the Alaskan boundary case, proposed the adoption of a platform indicating the precise objects of the society, and this was done. The resolution will be sent to the president, Secy. of State Hay and the chairman of the senate committee on foreign affairs.

It was decided to call a conference in Chicago later in the year, of commercial, industrial, municipal, legal and philanthropic societies and other organizations to adopt means to bring about a permanent Anglo-American treaty.

Valuable Cargo of Silks.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—The Occidental & Oriental steamer Doric has arrived from the orient, bringing 2,742 tons of cargo, the principal items being silks and teas, the value of the first being $1,800,000. The vessel also carried specie to the value of $500,000. This makes the Doric's cargo one of the most valuable landed here.

SCHOOLS IN GUAM.

Will Soon be Opened for Education of Native Children.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Commander Luby, in charge of the Chicago naval recruiting office, received a letter from Gov. Dyer of Guam announcing that public schools soon will be opened in the island for the education of 2,300 native children. The writer says he is experiencing much trouble in finding school books suitable to the needs of the work.

The governor asks for publishers' catalogues and adds: "Unless the books have more or less local color they practically are useless. As a concrete example, experience shows that it is impossible to teach the natives of the Pacific tropics the meaning of the seasons as we understand them in the United States."

L. T. FORTESCUE ARRIVES.

Was American Military Attache With Japanese.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—Lieut. G. R. Fortescue, Tenth United States cavalry, a nephew of President Roosevelt, arrived from the orient today on the steamer Port of Spain. He has been the American military attache with the Japanese army in front of Port Arthur. He returns now on account of the expiration of his leave of absence and is taking his report to the secre-lary of war. Lieut. Fortescue said the Japanese officers showed him every courtesy and furnished him with complete maps of the Port Arthur peninsula. While in Japan, Lieut. Fortescue was offered the decoration of the Rising Sun by the Mikado but was not authorized to receive it.

MRS. SURRATT'S DAUGHTER.

Mrs. Wm. P. Toney Dies in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Oct. 23.—Mrs. William P. Toney, the only daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Surritt, who was put to death for being involved in the Lincoln conspiracy, is dead here, after several years illness, resulting from her efforts to save her mother. She was 63 years old.

Exodus of Japanese.

Pendleton, Ore., Oct. 23.—With the departure of four Japanese for their native land to enter the army, an exodus of Japanese government has commenced. The order was received about a month ago and directed all Japanese to settle their business affairs and return to Japan at once. There are more than two hundred Japanese in Pendleton, a majority of whom it is expected will obey the order. The men who have just left were merchants and disposed of their stocks at sacrifice.

Kahyles Besieging Larasho.

New York, Oct. 23.—Larasho, a fortified seaport town of 4,000 inhabitants is now besieged by the rebellious Kahyles, says a Herald dispatch from Tangier.

The European residents, fearing an assault, have appealed to the foreign legation for auxiliary forces.

Delta Fraternity Convention.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—The seventeenth annual convention of the Delta fraternity will begin here tomorrow. The business sessions will be held at the Auditorium hotel.

Charles G. Dawes, former controller of the currency, is the president of the fraternity. Delegates from 35 colleges and universities will attend the convention.

THE EPISCOPALIANS.

House of Deputies Considers in Divorce Canon Amendments.

Boston, Oct. 24.—The Episcopalian house of deputies today concurred in the amendments to the divorce canon as made by the house of bishops with no debate and with hardly a dissenting vote.

The house of deputies refused to submit the minority for the majority report of the committee on prayer book adverse to the proposition to drop from the title page of the prayer book the words "Protestant Episcopal."

The majority report was accepted. The house of bishops the bishop of Dallas was chosen to prepare the pastoral letter at the triennial convention in 1907, and the bishop of California and the bishop of Vermont were elected to consult with the bishop of Dallas in preparing the letter.

The report of a special committee appointed early in the session to consider the subject of lynching was with almost unanimous consent, laid on the table.

A long discussion ensued on a resolution offered by Rev. Dr. W. A. Huntington of New York, seeking to establish the national reading Bible as the Bible of the church. The resolution provides that before the next convention the question should be submitted to the dioceses for their approval.

It was finally voted to put the whole matter over until the Richmond convention.

The deputies elected Rev. Francis M. Traill assistant missionary bishop of South Dakota.

The house of bishops today concurred with the deputies in appointing a committee to consider the question of electing a visiting bishop and report to the next convention.

Drowned in Truckee River.

Reno, Nev., Oct. 24.—Carl Adolph of Derby, Nev., was drowned in the Truckee river today while attempting to ford the river. A companion witnessed the accident and made a heroic effort to rescue the drowning man, but his strength failed him and it was with difficulty that he succeeded in reaching the shore.

GUATEMALAN ANTS.

Galloway Denies Saying They're
A Failure as Boll Weevil Enemies

Houston, Texas, Oct. 23.—Dr. B. T. Galloway has received a telegram from the agricultural department at Washington, asking if it were true that he had given out an interview stating that the Guatemalan ants were a failure as boll weevil enemies. Dr. Galloway promptly answered that the interview was not true, that Collins and Goll should go to Guatemala as originally intended and further study the ants in their native habitat. Dr. Galloway has just returned from Victoria, where he looked after the ants and expressed himself as satisfied with the work now being done with them by Dr. Weber and Dr. Hunter.

A GOOD ANSWER.

"The late Mayor McLane," said a Baltimorean, "told me last year of an occurrence that had befallen a well-known railroad man."

"A humble employee of the road called on this man and asked for a pass to a certain distant point. The official said, with a severe air:

"You have been working for us for some time, haven't you?"

"Yes," said the employee.

"You have always been paid regularly?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, now, suppose you were working for a farmer. Would you have the nerve to ask this farmer to harness up his horses and drive you a long distance into this country?"

"No," said the employee, "I wouldn't. But if the farmer had his horses already harnessed and was going my way, I'd call him a pretty mean fellow if he refused to give me a lift."
