Old People Made Young.

J. C. Sherman, the veteran editor of the Vermontville (Mich.) Echo, has discovered the remarkable secret of keeping old people young. For years he has avoided Norvousness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, Heart Trouble, Constipation and Rheumatism, by using Electric Bitters, and he writes: "It can't be praised too highly. It gently stimulates the kidneys, tones the stomach, aids digestion, and gives a splendid appetite. It has worked wonders for my wife and me. It's a marvellous remedy for old people's complaints." ELOPERS BROUGHT TO GRIEF.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock John Howarth and Mrs. Maud Ince, the two arrested on Sunday by Deputy Sheriffs Bally and Golding, for occupying the same room, were arraigned before Jus-tice Breeden on the charge of adultery. They both pleaded guilty and were bound over to the district court, How-arth under $500 bonds and the woman under $250 bonds, they have not been able to furnish bonds and were therefore committed to the custody of the sheriff to await trial. John A. Living-ston, the brother of Mrs. Ince, was also arraigned before the same court on *******************************

LOGAN. Divorce Suit of Mrs. Elizabeth Lang-Stake

Conference Will be Held Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache County, Jan. 22 .- The divorce suit of Mrs. Elizabent Lang against her husband, Albert Lang, has occupied the entire day in the district court, and is not yet done with.

The parties to the suit are both Germans, not thoroughly conversant with the English tongue, and in addition to prolonging the trial, mix matters considerably, creating consternation among the attorneys at times by characteristic replies to the lawyer's queries, Apostle M. F. Cowley was in Logan

The report that the Cache Stake conference would be postponed proves to be unfounded, as President Issac Smith gave out this afternoon that the conference would be held next Sunday and Monday as announced.

KANOSH. Description of Missing Men, E. W. Penney and Son George.

Special Correspondence.

Kanosh, Millard County, Jan. 21, 1890 -Will you kindly publish the following description of my husband and son George, who left home on the 14th day of November, 1899, for Wha Wha Springs. They left that place five days later to return home, and no further tidings have been had of them. I fear they have perished in the mountains: E. W. Penney, my husband, is 49 years old, weight 208 pounds, fair complexion, blue eyes, one false tooth in front. Son George, 26 years old, weight, 145 pounds; fair hair. They had a 2% Studehaker wagon, one roan horse, about 900 pounds, branded A. P. com-bined on left thigh; one dark sorrel horse, 800 pounds, blotch brand on right shoulder, big scar on left hip. There were new bits and checks on old harness. Both horses shod. The men had with them one large demin quilt, tied with white cord, on quilt blocks set together with blue finanel lined with striped bed-tick; one quilt lined with red finanel blanket one blanket; one pair grey blankets, one quilt made of tailors' sample cloth. MRS AMANDA PENNEY.

MANILA. The Antipodes of Far Off Manila - A

Peaceful, Prosperous Ward. Special Correspondence, Manila, Utah Co., Jan. 22.-The names of our village has a far away sound, and is apt to remind one of the boom and county over the division of the ran-ning expenses of the court house came up again and called forth a great deal of discussion. C. E. Loose, A. M. Car-ter, Alex Wilkins, and Mayor Taylor were appointed a committee to wait upon the commissioners with a view of adjusting the matter. The committee was instructed to hold out for an agreement whereby the city should pay one-fifth of the experises. The city owns only one-sixth of the building and has been charged one-fourth of the ex-penses, which they think unjust. The last encode has the same trauble due last council had the same trouble dur-ing their entire administration. An amicable settlement is hoped for. The Council decided to allow the marshal one policeman at a salary of $45 per month. It was also agreed to allow two of the regular nightwatchmen $10 per month to act as special policemen under the direction of the marshal.

sewer of District No. 1 was ac-The cepted by the Council, and the contrac-tors were allowed the balance of the contract price.

A long petition was presented from citizens asking that the riders of bi-cycles be allowed to ride on the east side of J street between November 1st and April 1st of each year. The pe-tition was denied.

On recommendation of the marshal the Council decided to repeal the ordinance now in effect prohibiting card playing, etc., in the saloons or pool rooms and enact a new one that no card playing, etc., should be carried on behind closed doors or screens.

The Mayor' appointments of W. W. Conover as fire teamster and Wren Wilkins as city teamster, which were taken under advisement, were firmed and their salaries were fixed at $40 per month.
