BREVITIES.

Perfumed toothpicks are a late novelty.
Baltimore has a homeopathic horse doctor.
Base inhospitality—turning out your toes.—[Judy].
Fun says politicians who get on don't get honest, but get off-iced.
Ice which was put up in America in 1865, is now selling in the East Indies.
Judy advertises for an undertaker to make coffins for the "dead of the night."
A "professor" in New York has accomplished the feat of hanging five minutes by his hands.
"Elegant bridal present to let," is an advertisement in an English fashion magazine.
Without counting Alaska, the United States has 1,500,000,000 acres of public lands.
A man in Lyndon, Vermont, while digging a well in his cellar, recently, struck a fine sulphur spring.
English capitalists have $90,000,000 invested in East India railways.
No President of the United States, up to the present time, has had a child born in the White House.
A Philadelphia German amused the Third Ward voters by asking for a "dickie mit Krant and Coalbox."
Iron mastic, the new material for making wooden buildings fire-proof and lasting is proving a success.
China and Japan exported 84,500,000 pounds of tea this year, down to the 20th of August.
Envy is fixed only on merit, and, like a sore eye, is offended with everything that is bright.
Two Haverhill (Mass.) boys emptied a jug of rum, the other night, and one filled a grave two days afterward.
St. Louis, which now carries a city debt of $13,000,000, has issued $850,000 in bonds to pay for a new park.
A marrying man in Brooklyn has now his fifth wife and five mothers-in-law in his house. "What is home without a mother?"
Man is like a watch: if at evening and morning he is not wound up with prayer and circumspection, he is unprofitable.
There is only one objection to people who mean well, and that is they never have time to carry out their meaning.
A late philosopher says that if anything will make a woman swear, it is looking for her night-cap after the lamp is blown out.
"I can forgive," says one, "but I cannot forget." Woe to us should God make the same distinction. But forgiving and a disposition to forget are the same. If the memory of an injury is cherished, it is not forgiven.
New York is to have street letter-boxes that will admit newspapers and parcels, that cannot be stolen from, and that will indicate on a dial the hour of the next collection.
A baby six months old, and fast asleep, was recently found on a train arriving at Troy from the East, which it is supposed had been deserted by its parents.
The lava thrown out by Mount Vesuvius, during the present eruption, resembles the common glass seen in wine bottles.
Many varieties of Alaskan birds are most beautiful in plumage. Two thousand specimens are on their way hither for museums.
Paw-Paw, Mich., hopes to rival Saratoga. A mineral spring, possessing the qualities of Congress water, has been discovered and its medicinal qualities have been proved to be excellent.
A celebrated wit was asked why he did not marry a young lady to whom he was much attached.
"I know no reason," replied he "except for the great regard we have for each other."
A Wisconsin paper, in describing a large farm advertised in its columns for sale, adds:
"The surrounding country is most beautiful; also two wagons and a yoke of steers."
The Mississippi valley contains 788,000,000 acres of the finest land in the world, or space for one hundred and fifty States of the size of Massachusetts.
The Prussian Arctic expedition, when last heard from, had already penetrated beyond the eightieth degree of latitude and had a long range of clear water ahead.
Some farmers who have had trouble in getting single men as hired help, are finding out that it pays to build plain, comfortable cottages, for tenants, and hire married men.
Among other wonderful things announced to be exhibited at the country fair about to be held in Allentown, Pa., is "the great Notlazzomahuitzleopixcatzine, just received from New Mexico."
Personal advertisements are sometimes as amusing as they are absurd. One of these recently stated that if a certain party would communicate with his brother "he would hear something to his advantage—his wife is dead!"
An Irish emigrant, hearing the sunset gun at Portsmouth, asked a sailor, "What's that?"
"Why, that's sunset," was the reply.
"Sunset!" exclaimed Pat; "and does the sun go down in this country with such a bang as that?"
