

FRAGMENTS.

SUMMER has undoubtedly come for the season.

F. A. WILCOX, of the Ogden Herald is in Salt Lake to-day.

MEMORIAL services will be held at the Fort on Monday morning.

THE City Council meets this evening to consider the revised ordinances.

W. C. BORDLAND, Esq., is now city passenger agent for the D. & R. G.

The principal business houses of the city will be closed on Decoration Day.

WOODEN culverts are being placed in the water ditches on East Temple Street.

PATRICK POOLE is in the city jail awaiting trial for indulging in a prolonged spree.

HON. L. W. SHURTLEIFF, of Weber County, was down from the north to-day on a visit.

THE G. A. R. will go to Lake Park after the memorial services on Monday next.

JUDON SUTHERLAND's law lecture at the Deseret University to-morrow will be on the subject of Contracts.

OUR dispatches to-day indicate that the French crisis is drawing to a speedy and unsatisfactory conclusion.

THE atmosphere in the Third District court room is decidedly smoky now-a-days, owing to a big smoke stack on a building near by.

THE inevitable circus is wending its way hither, and all the small and not a few of the large boys are commencing to count their nickels.

THE Bijou Opera Company, headed by Adelaide Randall and which is well spoken of elsewhere, is coming this way and will be here in a few days.

JOHN MALVIN was sentenced, at Ogden, yesterday, to six months' imprisonment in the county jail, and to pay a fine of $100. He had been convicted of battery.

It has threatened to rain nearly every day for a month, and the amount of build disbursed by Jupiter Pluvius so far would hardly make a good drink.

NOGALES, Arizona, had sixteen distinct shocks of earthquake within three hours, last Tuesday night. No damage was done, but the people of that district do not feel comfortably settled.

WE are requested to state that there will be a meeting of the Orphan's Home and Day Nursery Association at the Nursery, 1154 East First South Street, on Saturday, May 27th, at 2 p. m. All interested in the work are cordially invited to be present. First South Street car passes the door.

K. H. KIMBALL, Secretary.

THE Ogden eleven who will play the Salt Lake cricketers at Ogden on Monday next will be selected from the following: Geo. Parker, T. B. Evans, N. J. Thomas, Wm. Vaughan, J. Stitt, J. M. Thomas, Wm. Shipley, John Shipley, Chas. Shipley, Geo. Shipley, Thomas Smurthwaite, Alfred Smurthwaite, Harry Jackson, R. D. Sherwin, Chas. Kent and Wm. Haddenham, Jr.

R. O. GILROY, of the Adelaide Randall Bijou Opera Company, is in the city. The organization comprises twenty-five people, and appears in the Theatre on Friday and Saturday, June 3rd and 4th. The opening piece is "Girofio-Girofina," which gives Miss Randall a fine opportunity. "The Bridal Trap" will be given for a matinee, and "The Princess of Trebizonde" on Saturday evening.

TAN Ogden Herald is calling on business men of that lively burg to start a shoe factory. A good idea. And if the Ogdenites utilize the resources they have at hand for the establishment of manufacturing industries of various classes, they will, by securing the volume of trade, inflict severe rebuke and punishment on Salt Lake boys who have neglected this branch of business, though their opportunities have been far better.

PARTIES going on the European excursion May 30th, can have a choice of routes. Those going east by the U. P. will return by the D. & R. G., while those going out by the latter will return by the former. The arrangement is for all of the excursionists to pass over both roads, going east over one and returning over the other. East of the Missouri River, excursionists may choose between a route via Chicago and Niagara Falls, and one via Chattanooga, Tenn., and Norfolk, Va., to New York.

MRS. FRANCES MILLER, the woman who was before Justice Pyper a few days ago, and who was released because of her age—67 years—and her promises to go to her friends, was up again this morning on a charge of drunkenness. The offense was proven and a fine of $20 imposed. In default of payment she was given into the Marshall's custody. It was learned that she had relatives in New York State, and as it is not unlikely that her mind is affected, efforts will be made to acquaint her family of her condition and whereabouts.

Tipped Over.—Last evening Mr. Miller, of the Brighten Ward, and Mr. Jones, of Brighton, with their wives, were driving up Cañon Road. The ladies were in the back seat of the wagon, and when near the silk factory the horses gave a sudden jerk forward. The seat in which the ladies were, tipped over backward, and they were thrown to the ground and severely bruised and shaken up. Mrs. Jones' injuries were especially serious, and what their full extent is has not yet been definitely ascertained. One of the ladies had a child in her arms, but it escaped unharmed.

The Vermillion Canal.—A correspondent of the Mantel Herald, writing from Aurora, Sevier County, says: "The people in the north end of this county are interested in making a canal which when completed will cover about two thousand acres of good farming land. It is an extension of the Vermillion canal. Over three thousand dollars in labor was expended this spring in enlarging the canal to make it of sufficient dimensions to carry water for three settlements north of it, Aurora, Salina, and Redmond. The work is almost completed to the end of the Vermillion canal, and it is the intention of the people to complete it to Redmond in the fall when it will be the longest canal in the country, its entire length being about twenty-three miles." The people on the border have a great work in getting the water of the river out for irrigating purposes. As to the length of the canal referred to, twenty-three miles, leaves it still several miles shorter than the canal conveying the waters of the Jordan into Salt Lake City.

SHOT IN THE THIGH.

TWO BOTS LEAVE HOME—ONE OF THEM RETURNS HOME WOUNDED.

On Sunday morning Thomas Lorenzo Vaughan left a comfortable home in the lower part of the city intending to beat his way to Evanston in company with Isaac Carr. Thomas is a boy about twelve years of age. His parents are very respectable and hard-working people, and are highly respected among their neighbors and friends.

They came to this country about three years ago from England. But Thomas had been a wayward son and capricious father name trouble and his mother a great deal of pain. He has refused to go to school or to work around home and he has away on one or two former occasions.

On Sunday last with fearful eyes he left home. He had announced his intention of leaving on Saturday and finding he was determined to go his fond mother, regretfully put clean clothing upon him and he departed from home with his humble yet comfortable surroundings on the bright Sabbath morning of May 22nd. He and his companion, Carr, made their way to Almy ranch, reaching there on Monday evening. They camped out and made a fire.

In the morning, however, an accident occurred which terminated their trip so far as Vaughan was concerned. While sitting on the ground, Carr was loading his pistol, a .32 calibre, and the weapon was discharged. The bullet struck Vaughan in the left thigh of Vaughan who was sitting near by.

Vaughan determined to return home. His companion decided to accompany him. The wounded boy walked to the cars and the two succeeded in returning to Ogden the same way they came.

Vaughan went home. His parents obtained surgical attention and the bullet was extracted. Thomas now requires upon a couch with ample time to think of his waywardness.

When a representative of the Herald called at the house to-day, the boy was resting easily and his mother joyfully stated that he had promised to go to school as soon as he recovers. (1) His recovery there is no doubt; the wound is only in the flesh and with proper care nothing serious will ensue.

Carr left his home under more suspicious circumstances. He obtained a week's wages and purchased a pistol for $3, cartridges $600, watch $100, and a few other things. He left home unaccompanied to his mother and brother-in-law's home and now it is stated he has gone north.

Mrs. Vaughan distinctly stated to the reporter that the shooting of the boy was purely accidental. She attaches no blame to Carr, and that she was supported by the wounded boy.

It is to be hoped that Thomas' experience will be a lesson to him, and that he will not want to leave home and parents on a half-brained trip again. The boy stated that he and Carr were going to Evanston to herd sheep.—Ogden Herald, May 26th

Working on their Sympathy.—The Denver News of May 24th, has the following:

"An able-bodied citizen brought a slightly-built 13 year-old boy late police headquarters last night and said another boy who was with him had asked him for ten cents, and he had asked as special detective and caught the nearest one to him. The boy said his name was Daniel Fisher and that he had been driven from Salt Lake City, his home, by his stepmother, and in company with a companion had been sent to Denver. He is a bright-looking boy and carries a good-looking outfit. He was given a place to sleep for the night."

The boy is evidently trying to gain sympathy from kindhearted people in Denver. He probably belongs to the gang of young toughs that has been committing depredations in this city, as one of them was named Fisher. If he is the same person some strict schooling in a reformatory might benefit him, as he is pretty shrewd, but he needs watching.

A Traveling Fraud.—Chas. Guslain, claiming to represent J. K. Gill & Co., Portland, arrived at Boise on Thursday morning last, canvassing for the International Encyclopedia. His action while here made it evident that he was a fraud. The Portland house he pretended to represent is well known by business men here as a responsible firm; and this, together with the fact that he is acquainted with agents recognized by several drummers here, gave him greater plausibility to his representations. He finally borrowed some money from different citizens and then disappeared. (It was afterwards discovered that many stories told by him were fabrications, and that he had adapted the country to his own use.) He is a young man, heavy set, light complexioned, with a few feet six in height and a light colored mustache. This is published for the protection of citizens in other localities that he might attempt to work. He was last heard of at Caldwell.—Idaho Democrat.

Want to Celebrate.—There was a meeting in the Federal Court room last evening to consider the subject of celebrating the Fourth of July. Fred Simons was chosen chairman and S. L. Laney secretary. A finance committee was appointed to solicit the necessary means, the gentlemen chosen being George Arbogast, Jacob Moritz, A. C. Bixen, A. E. Hyde and C. M. Brown. Sergeant Byrnes moved that it be the sense of the meeting that a celebration be had; carried. George Arbogast, Jacob Moritz and A. E. Hyde were appointed a committee to confer with the City Council with reference to making the celebration general. The chairman was instructed to appoint a committee of seven on arrangements, and the meeting adjourned to Tuesday evening.

Return of the Remains.—A telegram received last evening from J. E. Lockwood, General Passenger and Ticket agent of the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Gulf Railroad, dated Kansas City, yesterday afternoon, and addressed to J. H. Bennett, Esq., of the D. & R. G. as follows:

"I regret to advise you that Elder Kimball died about noon to-day. Mr. Cannon will likely leave Hammond this morning and will be in Ogden in time to connect with the west bound train from here for Salt Lake. I will advise you if he should fail to do this. Should the connection above referred to be made, and no delay occur, the remains would reach this city next Sunday at 4:35 p. m."

A Judge Murdered.—Escobedo, the Alcalde at Inarita station, thirty miles south of Nogales, Arizona, was assassinated on Sunday night by unknown parties. At a late hour he was called out of his house and shot through the breast. He died almost instantly. The murderers are unknown, but officers are on the track. Judge Escobedo was one of the best known lawyers in northwestern Sonora and has held several high judicial positions. He was, however, disliked by an opposing element and hence the tragic ending of his career.—B. F. Chronicle.

Bound Over.—Last evening, Thos. H. Smart, a resident of Union, Salt Lake County, was brought in on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. When taken before Commissioner May, he pleaded guilty to living with his two wives, and was placed under $1,000 bonds to await the grand jury's action.

"Storm Beaten."—The Theatre office opened to-morrow morning for the sale of tickets for the Home National drama, to be given by the Dramatic Club on Monday afternoon and evening. The best talent of the club appears in the cast, and the piece, which has been carefully rehearsed, will doubtless be presented in a style fully equal to anything yet done by the home company.

LETTER FROM INDEPENDENCE.

Items From a Historical Locality.

INDEPENDENCE, Missouri, May 22, 1887.

Editor Deseret News: This country is booming. Every body owning real estate is becoming rich. Land around here that one and two years ago sold from $50 to $100 per acre, is now selling from $100 to $150 per acre. It looks like the suburbs of Independence have been bought up at enormous prices and cut up into streets, lots and parks. Street railways have been projected in every direction and the lots are put on the market at from five to fifty and seventy-five dollars per foot. Speculators have made their

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS of dollars in six months. Work of every description is abundant, and every body is paid. It looks like the suburbs of Independence have been bought up at enormous prices and cut up into streets, lots and parks. Street railways have been projected in every direction and the lots are put on the market at from five to fifty and seventy-five dollars per foot. Speculators have made their

The prospects for an abundant harvest are most flattering. Fruit of all kinds is plentiful. Wheat is nearly all in head, and looks well, and everything is looking well. It is the most beautiful place in America it ought to be the capital, being so centrally located. It may be some day.

The Josephites are building quite an expensive house as near the temple lot as possible. (Just across the street.) The "Hedrickites," or followers of Hedrick, are very much in numbers, though fortunate enough to claim possession of the temple lot, are erecting a small frame structure on a corner of 121st historic spot, just opposite the "Josephite" site. These are the Josephites, and three houses of worship to the already well supplied town of seven thousand inhabitants.

I suppose some of your readers have seen the latest publication of

DAVID WHITNER, THE WITNESS.

He makes some startling (?) statements in regard to the revelations of Joseph Smith, charging him with being a fallen prophet, and accusing him of crime, rather than a prophet. He speaks of his (Whitner's) ordination under the hand of the Seer. The Seer, Joseph Smith, being a transgressor, and that part of his revelations are spurious, while part are genuine. He goes on to say that in the midst of the "Josephite" organization, and I will not be at all surprised to find that when it will be the policy of that body to just select what suits it, and call it the word of God, and what does not suit, call the word of the devil. Such is the condition of the professed believers in Joseph Smith, as coming to under the leadership of his son.

HELPED BY AN ENEMY.

SINGULAR WAY OF AIDING A "MORMON" FAMILY TO EMIGRATE.

The following letter is from Ashtabula, N. C., under date of May 18th:

Two "Mormon" Elders came to this town a few days ago and baptized three souls, Robert Kups and his wife, and a niece of mine, Miss Crosby. I soon leaked out that the Elders were here and at my house. I went to work this morning as usual and was met by the foreman of the job, who said: "Smith, you must hunt another job; you can't work here any longer." I asked him what I had done that was discharged. He said: "Mr. John Hart (the contractor) won't work a Mormon if he knew it." I told him I had belonged to the "Mormon" Church nearly five years and I thought that was a poor way to convince me that I was wrong. He said: "Smith, you are a good brick layer and a good man to work; but you can't work here any longer."

After while I saw Mr. Hart (the contractor) and he talked a long time with me, and said all manner of evil about Joseph Smith, Brigham Young and the present leaders of the Church. At length he said: "Smith, I like you as a man, but I am sorry for you, as I have heard most of the contractors say they would not give you a lick of work to do on account of your belief, and

YOU WILL HAVE TO LEAVE TOWN." I said: "Mr. Hart you are mistaken; I will get work in this town for I have not done anything to be discharged for, and the God that made the Latter-day Saints will raise up a man that will give me work in this town, and you may write that down."

There were several standing around who heard what was said. Mr. Hart then said: "Smith, I will give you a word of advice; you get on the train in the morning and go to Utah and take your family." I answered: "I came here to try to make money enough to go to, but now you have discharged me and now am I to go without money. My family are not able to walk there, and I can't go without money." He said: "Smith, I am sorry for you; I am satisfied that you are but you have been lead away by those infernal "Mormons." I will offer you work on one condition. Let's hear the terms," said I. He answered, "If you will save all the money that I pay you, over your support, and lay it up until you get enough to go to Utah, and leave Ashtabula, and not spend any of the money in helping to establish your doctrine here in Ashtabula, but will use it in going to Utah, you may go to work and work to that end."

I told him I would accept his offer, and save my money in the presence of witnesses, that I would save my money, and as soon as I had enough would give my family, leave Ashtabula, and go to Utah, and I will go to work again to-morrow.

They told me to tell the Elders if they did not leave at once they would cowhide them. I delivered the message to Elders Crowther and Hyner. They are making preparations to leave.

I guess I have been spending my money a little too freely, and the Lord wanted to bind me up to be a little more saving with it. It looks like that is the way of it, since I had to bind myself in the presence of witnesses that I would save it from now on. John Hart thinks he is working against the "Mormons," but he is doing just what I have wanted some one to do for a long time. He has promised to give me a job until I can make money to go west on, just what I have been waiting for a long time. It has been giving me two dollars per day, and from now on I look for my wages to be raised, as he seems to want to help me. I fully believe that he will raise my wages.

So our God raised up a friend for me, and Mr. Hart was the man, and my words came to pass, but he can't see it. If you see anything in this worth publishing you can do so; every word is truth, and I am responsible for it. Your Brother in the New and Everlasting Covenant.

JAMES ALLEN SMITH.

Impersonated.—The boy Harmon, who stole the money from the Art Bazar, was called up in the Police Court yesterday afternoon. He pleaded guilty to the offence and was sentenced to imprisonment for ninety days.

Convicted.—The trial of William Remington, on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder, was held in Ogden yesterday. Remington is the tramp who "runs" a Central Pacific train a short time ago, by the aid of a revolver and who fired several shots at the conductor. He also had a desperate fight with the officers at Ogden, and was wounded before his capture. He was convicted by the jury last evening.

Arraigned.—In the First District Court at Ogden yesterday, John L. Jones, of Lakeside, Box Elder County, was arraigned on a charge of unlawful cohabitation, and took until Saturday, the 26th, to plead.

John Pelt, of Emmerville, Weber County, was also arraigned on a similar charge, and pleaded not guilty.

Randolph Hochstetters, of Providence, Cache County, pleaded guilty to living with his wives, and sentence was deferred till the next term of court.

A New Project.—If there is anything in schemes, projects and talk, this coast will have before long a magnificent system of railroads. The freshest thing in the way of projects was unfolded to a Chronicle reporter yesterday by a leading railroad contractor. He said that a party of surveyors was in the field staking out a line from Boise City, Idaho Territory, crossing the Oregon Short Line and running southward into Nevada, traversing Elko and Lander counties in the latter state to Battle Mountain at the junction of the Central Pacific and the Nevada Central. The track of the Nevada Central would then be used to Austin, Nevada, where the line would be extended southward to Candelaria on the Carson and Colorado Railroad, which would serve as a passageway into California as far as Cerro Gordo, Inyo County, from which point an extension to Mojave, there to connect with the Atlantic and Pacific and Southern Pacific lines. Los Angeles and this city, would not be a difficult matter. By utilizing the two roads mentioned only about 200 miles of track would have to be laid. The new line would have a great extent of territory from which local traffic could be derived, and included in this is some of the best mining country of Nevada. It is doubtless in the interest of the Union Pacific, which is seeking for an entrance into California, and will not rest until it gets there. S. F. Chronicle.

Give us Moisture.—Next Monday will be Decoration Day, or, as Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R. General Fairchild, prefers to call it, Memorial Day. By whatever name it may go, it will be a public holiday and the greater part of our population will participate in the observance one way or another; and if the streets are then in the same condition they are now, the amount of discomfort that will be occasioned thereby will more than outweigh the pleasure gained by those who seek it. Let us have a thorough and complete sprinkling of the streets at an early hour in the morning.

Passed Examination.—Yesterday three members of Dr. M. C. Shipp's class in obstetrics passed an examination which was conducted by Doctors Anderson, Richards and Bowers. The names of the ladies are Mrs. Edna L. Smith, Miss Millie Reynolds and Miss Mabel Park, all of this city. These ladies have been studying about six months. The remainder of the class are continuing their studies.

Indian Council.—Great preparations are being made to have a large attendance from all the tribes of the Territory at the International Council, which meets in Eufaula, Indian Territory, Monday, June 6th next. Representative men will be here from all parts of the Territory to take part in the proceedings, of this the most important meeting ever held by the Indians.—Indian Journal.

A Long Fall.—The Tucson (Arizona) Globe of May 23rd says that Cyrus B. Tansiehl, of Gila County, was killed on that day by falling a distance of 150 feet in the shaft of the Howard mine.

A contract has been let for one hundred and fifty thousand tons, to be used in building the Boulder River Railroad.

Awards amounting to $21,000 have been made by the commission appointed to condemn the right of way of the Montana Central.

George B. Hartman, one of the leading fruit-growers in Missouri county, predicts that peaches will yet be grown in Montana profitably.

The wool growers of Eastern Montana met in session at Miles City last Wednesday, and passed a series of resolutions, including an endorsement of the inter-state commerce act, and a protest against the admission of foreign wools at low tariff prices, censuring the Treasury Department for its unfair rulings in this respect.
