MRS. HARRIET A. HARDY.

Death Claims Well Known Pioneer Woman-Funeral Tomorrow,

Mrs. Harriet A. Hardy, widow of t he late Bishop Leonard W. Hardy, died yesterday at her home, 330 north Third West street, this city, of pneumonia, in her seventy-seventh year. "Aunt Hattle," as she was familiarly called, was born in Lunenburg, Mass., March 9, 1828, and joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints when a young girl, emigrating to Utah in 1850 with her parents. They crossed the plains in the company presided over by the late President Wilford Woodruff, enduring with heroic fortitude all the hardships incident to such a journey. Mrs. Hardy was the mother of four children, all of whom died in infancy. For the past 20 years she has devoted all her time to the care of the sick, especially among her own sex. She was a faithful Latter-day Saint and passed away in the full hope of a glorious resurrection. Two sisters and one brother survive her.

The funeral will be held from the Twenty-second ward meetinghouse Wednesday afternoon at 3:30. Friend s are invited.

DESERVED PROMOTION.

Major Califf of Fort Douglas Now s Lieutenant Colonel.

Major Joseph M. Califf, commading the battalion or artillery at Fort Douglas, received notification from Washington yesterday, of his promotion to be lieutenant colonel of artillery, in the usual course of seniority; and he will be transferred to some other post where he will probably be the commanding he will probably be the commanding officer.

Lieut.-Col. Callff has been in the service nearly 41 years, beginning Oct. 8, 1863 as second lieutenant in the Seventh U. S. colored infanary. He was made first lieutenant in 1885, and was appointed from Pennsylvania in Aug. 1867 to be second lieutenant in the Third artillery. Lieut.-Col. Callff was an honor graduate from the artillery school in 1871, was made captain in 1896, and major in July, 1901. As he was born in 1842, he will be retired in two years for age, but will have was born in 1842, he will be retired in two years for age, but will have reached a full colenelcy by that time. Lieut.-Col. Califf saw active service in the Spanish war as well as in the war of the rebellion, and is one of the best posted officers in the artillery service. He came to Fort Douglas on promotion from a captaincy in the Third artillery when that regiment returned from the when that regiment returned from the Philippines, and has been stationed at this post for over three years, in command of the two light batteries of artillery which were organized here under the reorganization of the artillery arm of the service.

The old veteran has many friends in Salt Lake who will warmly congratu-late him on his promotion.

Association Gave One of its Most Delightful Banquets Last Night.

Last night the alumni association of the L. D. S. Univerity gave one of its most successful banquets in the memorial building on the university grounds. Eighty people sat down to the table. Toasts and speeches were given by prominent members of the association and of the faculty. The members present also took an important step towards aiding their alma mater and bringing their organization into closer connection with the school,

The guests were received in President Paul's office, the hallway and the adjoining rooms, going into the banquet room at 9 o'clock. The president of the association—John H. Evans—made a brief explanation of the condition of the association, referring to its history during the past few years; and also introduced the toastmaster, Prof. B. S. Hinckley, who in a brief, well-worded speech accepted the honor and bade the alumni partake of the banquet informally and with good cheer,

The toasts wer partly humorous.

The toasts wer partly humorous, partly serious, but all couched in choice and simple language. Elizabeth Cannon, (normal '04) toasted the graduating class. She referred very feelingly to the classes in theology which ingly to the classes in theology which the graduates had taken during their four years in the school. Prof. John M. Mills responded to the toast, "The Old Guards," in a humorous vein, in which he ransacked history for the purpose of getting information about "'old guards." Lutie Grant Cannon spoke to "Meat and Drink." This was in a serious wood and convered the in a serious mood, and compared the spiritual light which comes to men to food which sustains the body. Thomas told the alumni what would do "If she were a man." toast fairly sparkled with wit and hu-mor, and was an exceedingly leever thing. President Paul, under color of "Our Alma Mater," invited the co-operation of the alumni with the institution, and indicated the lines of influence that may be exerted over the policy and course of the school by its graduates. The toastmaster was in his happiest mood and kept things lively during the whole evening by his sallies of wit and The event of the evening, however was a motion to contribute $1,000 to wards erecting an annex to Barratt hall for a library stock room. No sooner was the matter mentioned than

The committee named con-sisted of Kate Thomas, Lutie Grant Cannon and Addie Cannon. Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock a business meeting was held at which the officers for the ensuing year were elected. They are as follows: For president, John H. Evans (re-elected); vice president, Mae Taylor Nystrom; secretary, Lille Shipp; assistant secretary, Lizzie Emery; treasurer, George C. Smith: executive committee, D. J. McRae, Ida Savage, and J. H. Garrett.

It was decided at this meeting to levy a small annual fee for current expenses, and to publish next year, if possible, a special edition of "The Gold and Hlue," the university paper, under the auspices of the alumni association.
