TWO SHOCKING FATALITIES

Two Railroaders Killed and Another Seriously Injured in Depot Grounds.

EARLY MORNING ACCIDENTS.

Both Men Met Instant Death Under Peculiar Circumstances—Took Risky Chances.

Ogden, April 4.—James W. Morgan, foreman of the car cleaning gang of the Harriman lines in this city, was killed about 5:30 o'clock this morning, by being crushed between two cars that stood about 12 inches apart, and asked Messenger Johnson for a drink of ice water. After taking a drink he was in the act of handing back the cup, when C. P. yard engine No. 3 drove the vestibules together and Morgan's head was caught and crushed.

The accident was not noticed until Sam Fowler, night depot master, was passing on his way to attend to another man who had been injured, when he saw the body of Morgan dangling between the cars. The body was at once taken from its position and removed to an undertaker.

The deceased was about 35 years of age and lived on Tracy avenue. His mother is Mrs. Agnes Morrison of Albion, Ida.

SWITCHMAN RUN OVER.

Ogden, April 4.—The man whom Depot Master Fowler was hastening to assist when the body of Morgan was accidentally discovered, was Switchman C. J. Lindale. The latter was walking on top of a line of freight cars, when by a sudden lurch he was thrown to the ground and partly run over. He was seriously hurt, but just the extent of the injuries had not been given out by the Ogden hospital physicians at a late hour. The accident happened shortly before 5:30 this morning.

JAP INSTANTLY KILLED.

Struck by O. S. L. Engine on Weber River Bridge.

Ogden, April 4.—A Japanese named Sensesu Nakamura was killed about 6:30 o'clock this morning at the O. S. L. bridge over the Weber river. As a train was pulling into the yard, Nakamura arose from under the bridge in time to be struck by the engine. His head was crushed in a terrible manner, and death was instantaneous. He was about 55 years of age, and was employed with one of the laboring gangs about the railroad premises.

The telegram reads: "Do not recognize picture as that of my son." It is now doubtful if the dead man's relatives will be located, and it has been decided to bury the man here some time this week and should his relatives be found later and they want the body sent home, he could be exhumed and shipped home.
