ing contemptously the Book of Mormon, tremble, but that all Europe is being rocked in the cradle of instability, and King looks to King and says, "Who next?" Napoleon looks to Elba, and the infallible Pope looks where he can for a home. What a finale to Æcumenical Councils and plebiscites! Yet, amid all these remarkable movements on the checker board, and the apostacy of men at home, many cannot see the hand-writing on the wall, "thou art weighed in the balances and found wanting."

It may sometimes take years to bring to pass a prediction and predictions have nearly always been treated as chimerical; but the results to-day, at home and abroad, are the beginning of the era.

If the foot-prints of the Deity were visible in days of yore, is He not to be recognized to-day among the faithful, in the sermons of earthquakes, of thrones tumbling, of the throwing down of splendid dynasties, and in the instability of everything, all moving to the one great and final decision-"who shall reign on the earth?"

Never since the organization of this church have so many portentous events been crowded together as now.

Infidelity, the rank and bitter offheaded form and presumptuously throws around the dust of sophistry and promises great light, but soon after leaves the dupes a prey to all the uncertainties of the fickle one,-Chance: where we thought there were cables of iron they prove but whisps of straw.

Does the true Latter-day Saint want any more evidence, just now, of God moving, of the determined hostility to this cause, of the ultimate results for the kingdom's growth? I think not. Be patient and the end of all who fight against Zion will come; no matter what weapon they use, it will fail!

EDITOR DESERET NEWS:

Dear Sir:-Having been a silent observer, for some time, a few thoughts have matured in my mind. The first question that presents itself is revenue and what is best calculated as an income, individually and to the mass. In days past it was necessary to "talk" wheat, farming, fruits and cereals. Those branches are well cultivated and it is not necessary to import in those lines, but we can export a little. So far so good. What next? Some say "Bees." Yes, get bees; but we can't beef them! Others say mining. Well, mining will do for those who will do nothing else. Well, now, what do I say? Stock. Horses, oxen, cows, sheep. There wealth in stock; it is Irishwhat "praties" are to an man - everything. Oxen we can work, eat and wear; cows: milk, butter nd cheese, as well as beef-good at home and to sell abroad. Instead of sending thousands of dollars to the States for these animals, let the thousands be sent to us. If we had ten thousand hoofs—and what does it cost to raise and fatten them? -we could drive them to Promontory and kill and ship them to the San Francisco market: better beef and at cheaper rates than they now have. That would be wealth indeed. But where are we now? I will tell you. Sending to Texas for cattle, to the States for cheese and many more things that could be produced here and save to the Territory thousands of dollars. di von vitto sinal Tilas

Form Stock Associations, if you please, in each settlement and let them take what cows we have and start dairies; and depend upon it investors will find out that money spent in that way is only loaned. Some will ask, who is a judge? Who will go? And as to that, we can send many men. Bro. W. C. Rydalch is going to Canada to buy some fine cattle, and he can bring all that will be wanted.

THE DEVIL AND THE LAWYERS.

The devil came up to earth one day, And into a court-house he wended his way, Just as an attorney with a very grave face, Was proceeding to argue the point in a case.

Now a lawyer his majesty never had seen, For to his dominions none ever had been, And he felt very curious the reason to know, Why none had been sent to the regions beten and published to the world. They

In the 19th Ward, of canker, Henry Louis son of William and Jemima Pinney, aged 1 weeks and 4 days.

Provo.-Elder A. F. McDonald, writing from Provo on the 14th inst., says: "Col. Morrow, from Camp Douglas, is at Fort Rawlings holding Court Martial. Himself and fellow officers express themselves as being very anxious to identify the parties who were engaged in the late 'raid.' Mayor Smoot offered the use of the Court House as being more convenient for the attendance of witnesses; orders, however, had been received to hold the Court at Fort Rawlings."

REUBEN ROCK.—A few days since we published a dispatch from Pleasant Grove, killing, on the 11th iust., of this voung man by the falling of a tree. We are in receipt gives some particulars of the occurrence. Deceased was chopping a tree when the thought struck him that if he continued he would get hurt and asked a companion to finish felling it, who readily assented. He was moving away when the tree unexpectedly fell in the direction where he was, crushing him to death. He seemed, for several weeks previous to the accident, to By-Laws.—The By-laws, with list of have a presentiment of his approaching officers, of the Salt Lake Exchange and end, having expressed himself several Reading Rooms, are now ready, having times, in conversation, to that effect. The been printed at, and issued in pamphlet writer of the letter says he was a young man form from, this office. They may be had of strictly upright character and was universally respected among his acquaintances. He was studious in his habits. De-

A good Suuday school is in operation; and in two weeks time a day and evening school will be started in the New Meeting House, which will then be finished. Co-operation is flourishing: On the 1st instant stock was taken and a dividend of thirty per cent in six months was declared in word I deede and DEPARTURE, - Chief Justice McKean left this city two or three days since, for his home in the East, and an official proclamation, appoints the celebrated Illinois expounder of the law to "sub" in the Third Judicial District Court during the absence of Judge McKean. Utah Territory, in days past, has had some very hard speci mens of human nature sent by the Government to "run" her judicial affairs, men whose sense of honor, and whose seeming acquaintance with the proprieties of life were so limited that they would have failed to do credit to the position of a public shoeblack or crossing sweeper, much less that of a Judge on the Bench; but we fail to remember one who was more thoroughly successful in winning the shoot of Spiritualism, lifts up its hydra- 'Twas hard to determine the one in the contempt of the whole community than the person now temporarily authorized to take the chair in the long room over Faust's stables.

"THE JUVENILE INSTRUCTOR."-No. 18 of the Juvenile Instructor is issued to-day. Its frontispiece is a large engraving illustrative of ocean life among the Greenlanders; the middle page illustration is the Walrus or Sea Horse. Both engravings have text explanatory; instructive and amusing to the young folks. Other reading matter consists of "Editorial Thoughts," "Biography, Joseph Smith the Prophet,' "Missionary Sketches" etc. It should be in the hands of every juvenile in the Territory. All persons alive to the best interests of their children will furnish them with healthful and instructive reading matter, and that is provided in the pages of the Juvenile Instructor.

Lost, on Friday last, by a lady, a Gold Cross, faced on both sides, and the name "Ella" marked upon it. The finder will confer an obligation by leaving it at the DESERET NEWS OMCE.

RATHER SORE.—The Reese River Reveille, of the 17th instant, seems rather sore at an account, recently published by a city contemporary, of an "assault" on somebody, for making himself too familiar with a "Mormon" girl. Who the fellow was, upon whom the "assault" was made, we do not know, but we presume the published report was founded in fact. The Reveille says he was a married man, and it terms the affair a "gross outrage." Now the Reveille is conspicuous, as a general thing, for its lack of anything like animus towards the "Mormons" when treating on affairs in Utah; but we think in this case it has swerved a little from its usual show of fair play. The Reveille is probably not well posted in Salt Lake matters; if it were it would know that some among those included among the "gentile" resi- THE following Davish Books (Danske Eöger) dents here not unfrequently boast of their libidinous designs and intents upon the "Mormon" girls; and in days past some of this class have acted the role of the seducer, and destroyed unsuspecting innocence, after having been made the recipient of kindness and hospitality by the parents of those whom they have wronged. Circumstances of this kind have engendered suspicion in the minds of heads of families here, who, as a general thing, view the purity of their children's character, and especially of their daughters as its chief ornament; and any attempt to sully that, or to take off their girls to parties, theatres, etc., when done clandestinely is viewed as an almost unpardonable breach of social etiquette. It is so viewed, and would certainly bring chastisement on the party offending were he a "Mormon," and more surely on one not in the faith and a "married man." No honorable man would act as the party did on the occasion referred to by the Reveille, and when men residing here, who know the unanimous sentiment of the community in this respect, lay themselves open, as this party did, they will certainly have to abide the results of the course they pursue. "Hands off, gentlemen!" is the united verdict of the people here when wives and daughters and the Utah County, announcing the accidental sanctity of the home circle are the least threatened or called in question.

THE NEW HIBERNICON.-MacEvoy's of a letter from Brother D. M. Smith, which "Pictorial, Musical and Nacional Entertainment," to be given at the Theatre for four nights, commencing to-morrow evening, promises to be more than usually attractive. Some fine panoramic views will be exhibited and an accompanying descriptive lecture given. There will be singing, dancing, dialogues &c. Remember tomorrow night, doors open at 7 o'clock and J. M. TOUCEY, performance commences at half pa-t.

TURNED STATE'S EVIDENCE.-The Reno! Crescent, of November 11th, says:

"It is reported that the railroad robbers are confined separately, and that every last one of them has turned State's evidence, each anxious to save his own bacon at the expense of his companions.

SANDWICH ISLANDS SUGAR,-We learn that a car load of sugar, consigned to Bro. Geo. Nebeker, has arrived in this city, from Laie, Oahu. Sandwich Islands. We have not seen the article, but are assured that it is superior to any previously forwarded hither from that place. It is gratifying to see the success with which this branch of industry is being prosecuted by our coreligionists there. We think that all the sugar manufactured on the church island there ought to find a ready sale in this Territory. The people of Utah should take a pleasure in encouraging the enterprise of the brethren on that distant "isle of the sea;" and especially when, in doing so they can obtain as good an article and at as low a figure as in any other market.

THE LOTTERY MANIA.-The lottery mania is spreading, Helena, Ma., is to have one,-a money lottery, to be gotten up and managed by Messrs. Molitor, Parchen and Sanders. The tickets are ten dollars each, the prizes eighty in number, the highest prize $1,250, the drawing to take place on the 24th of December. We hear there is to be a lottery scheme in Utah soon.

Music at home, in the school-room or meeting house, affords a charm that may be sought in vain without its influence, and in a family its power for good is inestimable. Among the people of Utah a rapidly growing taste for this divine art is being developed, and if the circumstan es of the people generally were such as to admit of it, we are satisfied there would be few homes without the organ or plane. But the high price of good instruments has been a bar to such a luxury hitherto to all except the few whose means were tolerably ample. The Calder Bros., however now offer great inducements to the public to invest in the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organ, an instrument of such acknowledged excellence that no word of praise on our part is necessary. Calder Bros. offer to take low monthly instalments, which will enable those possessing moderate means to gratify their taste in this direction, and will, we have no doubt, be the means of developing musical taste and ability in many families. The various wards throughout the Territory will now have a splendid opportunity to furnish their meeting-house choirs with one of these instruments, for which they are specia'ly adapted. Such a chance is not likely to present itself again, and all interested should take advantage of the one now offered. For full particulars see advertisement in this number of the WEEKLY NEWS.
