FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Valentine's Day to-morrow. Many children are afflicted with colds and coughs. Frederick a Tribune is the new governor of Arizona. President Taylor delivered a fine and instructive discourse yesterday afternoon, in the Assembly Hall.

The 14th Ward, located in the city of Salt Lake, yesterday afternoon, in the Assembly Hall, delivered a fine and instructive discourse.

William Baschich, of Butte, died yesterday morning from injuries received at the hands of Michael Kelly, in the course of a dispute.

No man ever became great, or great except through many and great mistakes. If this is true, then many are on the high road to greatness.

It is said that the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe will build a line of road through the Purgatoire Valley, through Cimarron and into the San Juan country.

A couple of martial bands, in gaily decorated wagons, enlivened the streets today. Colors of the People's and Independent tickets were both drummed up.

If a man expects to be remembered, he must do something else besides his own name. —Josh Billings. —Transcriber notes for instance.

Nothing is more injurious to a man than the dead level of prosperity. —Meadell. We presume that Meadell's dead level is the antipode of what is termed the ragged edge.

A man named McGuire, living at Pueblo, went on 4 spree, pounded his wife, threw furniture into the street and is supposed to have fired his house, which burned to the ground.

If Dakota is not admitted into the Union it will not be for the lack of a powerful lobby. Two hundred citizens of the prospective state are now in Washington pressing the matter.

We think it well to state before that we do not want more of a "bait" than we are getting. We are not in favor of retaining anything but the original subject till after the Fourth of July.

Boys should be cautious about climbing over fences. A little lad in the Ninth Ward was amusing himself in that fashion on Saturday, when he fell upon the point of a stake, hurting himself severely in lower part of the body.

A man cannot prosper until he gets his wife's consent; a thrifty wife is better than a great income. —Sydney. Perhaps this may account for some men wearing such long faces and short purses.

Frank Lynch, aged 20, and Geo. Meeker, aged 15, burglarized the residence of J. W. Burke, of Frisco, on Wednesday, and carried off a considerable quantity of goods. They have been bound over to await the action of the grand jury.

The Denver and Rio Grande grade is completed from the Cimarron to about two miles below the mouth of the Cimarron, and several camps are working between that point and the Utah line. Extra force has been put on the Black Canyon section.

The next excursion from Salt Lake to California will leave here about the 15th of March, and will take the route, Santa Cruz, San Jose, Palmar and all other points on the C. P. R. R. The time will be for 10 days, including the most beautiful part of the year in California.

At a meeting of the Presidency and Bishops of Weber Stake, held at Ogden on Saturday, it was decided that the proposed new tabernacle, previously mentioned in the News, should have a seating capacity of 13,000. The precise location for the building has not yet been decided.

A man who delights in large mountains. The tall mountains are the sublime spots of nature, whose surpluses are snow, and whose storms are avalanches. That is all true. Storms of that sort are not very comforting, a fact which the residents of Alta can verify.

A correspondent of the Cheyenne Sun, writing from Buffalo, Wyoming, says: "Considerable excitement was caused here on the 29th inst. by the self-murder of Mrs. H. H. H. who shot herself while in bed. She was under arrest for having forged the name of Henry Devoe to a check for $100."

We have from Dwyer's book store, Harper's Weekly for last Saturday, containing vivid pictures of the late great fight, No. 1, vol. 1 of "Our Country," by Allen W. T. Jones, editor, a most excellent periodical, 10 cents a copy; Puck for February, which hits as hard as need be, dealing with the absorbing topics of the hour.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS. Enlarging.—The range of the telephone continues to enlarge. There are now 294 exchanges in this city.

Elders in Ohio.—Elder George O. Noble writes from Tilton Farm, Noble County, Ohio. He and his companion had held meetings in ten counties. They had succeeded in making an opening, having baptized one good man, while a number of others were investigating.

Obsequies.—Yesterday, the 14th District School-house was crowded on the occasion of the funeral services over the remains of the late W. J. Player. Addresses were delivered by Elder D. O. Calder, Counselor D. H. Wells and Elder James Cummings. The cortege that followed the body to the cemetery extended over a distance of a block and a half.

AN EXPLOSION.

FIVE BOYS FEARFULLY BURNED AT SALT LAKE. The following special to the News was received to-day: Salt Lake, Sevier County, Utah, February 13th. A fearful accident occurred here about 4 p.m. yesterday, by which four small sons of Brother Elias Crane and one of Brother Christian Sorenson, came near losing their lives. A can of blasting powder having been obtained by them, they proceeded to set fire to it. The result was an explosion, by which they were all seriously and two it is feared are dangerously burned. Three of the boys present a most wonderful spectacle, two being unable to see.

FATAL AFFRAY AT FRISCO.

ONE MAN KILLED AND TWO WOUNDED. The Southern Utah Times, of Saturday, publishes the following account of a tragic occurrence at Frisco: "Between 2 and 3 o'clock, this morning, a fearful row occurred which resulted in the death of Charles Stone, a young man who has only been in camp some five or six weeks, and who is said to be a son of Col. Stone, a prominent citizen of Denver, Col. Charles came here in company with two companions, and made themselves conspicuous by passing themselves off as 'cow boys.' The trio, by bragging, had excited the ire of divers and sundry men of our camp, who pride themselves on their ability to hold an even hand with any man on earth. The deceased met his death in front of one of our saloons, by receiving a shot which entered at his right arm and passed through his lungs, killing him instantly. This morning an inquest was held and the evidence only disclosed the fact that the deceased was named Charles Stone, and that he 'came in his death by a pistol shot in the hands of a person unknown to the jury.' In view of the fact that Stone was shot in the presence of a large crowd, and that the inquest was unable to find any person who knew who did the shooting, 'this passing strange.' In the affray, however, it is known that James Kelley received a shot through the wrist, and the partner of deceased got badly used up by being fearfully beaten about the head and face. Geo. Weaver had a close call by having several bullet holes through his coat this morning. This is a lamentable affair, brought on by the vicious character of the parties engaged, superinduced by the effects of drink."

SUICIDE.

PAUL HOGAN SHOTS HIMSELF THROUGH THE HEAD.

As the morning passenger train was passing a point about three miles north of the Hot Springs near this city, a gentleman on board saw an object lying upon the snow, about six rods from the track. Upon a critical examination as the speed of the train would admit of he became convinced that it was the body of a man, and that a quantity of blood bespattered its surroundings. Conductor Chugg, of No. 10, going north, was instructed to ascertain the facts and report. He telegraphed back that the statement of the passenger was correct, and that the man had evidently come to his death by a pistol shot, judging from the character of the wound. Word of the matter reaching Captain Bart, he at once dispatched officers Andrew Smith and Heleman Pratt to the spot where the body was reported to be lying. Later—Our latest information is to the effect that the name of the deceased was Paul Hogan, a resident of Bountiful, and that he committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. He made two previous attempts upon his life. The body is in charge of the coroner of Davis County.

A "Bolt" from the People's Party.

It was generally believed that there would be no opposition to the People's Ticket, at the election. This view was dispelled by the appearance of an "Independent" in the early part of the day. It was of the same size as the People's, in similar type and printed on paper of like quality. These features combined with the fact that the candidate for the mayoralty and those for several other offices were not changed, rendered it likely to deceive the casual and unsuspecting elector. The differences between the People's Ticket and the "Independent" consisted of the placing upon the latter of the name of W. W. Ritter upon it, instead of E. F. Sheets, for Alderman from the First Ward; Amos Howe for A. H. Raleigh, Alderman from the Third; James Sharp, in place of D. O. Calder, from the Fourth. The changes in the matter of Councilors consisted of Jas. T. Little in place of Samuel Peterson; L. S. Hills for T. E. Taylor, Francis Cape for James C. Watson and James Watson in place of James P. Freeze.

We do not know whether all the parties whose names have been used in this connection were consulted on the subject. However this may be, those who have instigated this movement have made a split off, or a division of the People's Party, which is a matter of regret. All the gentlemen whose names appeared upon the "Independent" Ticket are highly respected in the community, but this does not alter the fact of what is termed a "bolt" being introduced. Divisions of this nature operate to the direct detriment of the community.

Later—Three other tickets were placed in the field, two with an "Independent" heading and one with "People's."

Not Our People.—Some time since the dispatches stated that "Mormon" Elders had, while attempting to hold a meeting near King's Cross, London, been mobbed and roughly handled. We have before us an extract from a London newspaper, sent by one of the brethren there to Brother John Cook, of Mill Creek, from which, and an accompanying explanation, we learn that the objects of mobocratic violence did not belong to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, but to the sect commonly known as "Josephites."

Congeaed Crystals.

Our city readers doubtless feel as if winter had commenced its reign anew, the late downfall of snow having again covered the earth, giving every object a chilly, wintry aspect. But a reference to the calendar assures us that the advent of spring is close at hand. This is confirmed by noticing how rapidly the rays of Old Sol disperse "the beautiful." The fall of snow has been rather light during the present winter, as compared with previous years. More especially has this been the case in our neighboring canyons and more northern portions of the Territory. Little Cottonwood Canon has so far, we are reliably informed, experienced a deposit of from 12 to 18 inches on the level, a circumstance unprecedented in the history of Alta City, where winter has usually found that burg buried under from six to twelve feet or more, presenting the novel sight of houses and stores covered up to the roof, with chimneys just projecting out, while smaller buildings and cabins were entirely hidden from sight, the entrances thereto being by steps or winding paths cut out of the solid and chilly crystals; giving one an idea of a Siberian or Arctic residence.

Bingham Canon has also had but little downfall, permitting as yet, facility in moving around, as enjoyed by us metropolitans. Away in the north in Cache and Bear Lake Counties a rather light snowfall has been experienced, the latter county having about one foot on the level country. In the mountains, of course, it has "piled up" to greater extent, but there is room and need for further and heavier deposits, to ensure a liberal water supply for irrigation purposes; therefore we would prefer to experience further storms; although we do not anticipate many to visit us residents of the valleys, being perfectly satisfied to have it storm vigorously in the mountains. However, some weather prophets predict a late spring here, while others say that the end of this week will witness climatic changes in the amelioration of the "cold snap."

In Pennsylvania.—Elder J. W. Thatcher writes from Philoth Battle Ground, Hardin Co., Penn.: "Notwithstanding all the opposition we meet with, the truth leaves its impress on the minds of all reasonable, thinking people, and we have had the pleasure of baptizing seven of the honest-in-heart within the last month, who were bold enough to come forward amid the sneers and frowns of friends and relatives. Although at times the clouds gather and rumblings are heard, by earnest prayer and a firm reliance on our heavenly Father and His promises, the gloom is dispelled, friends are raised up, and we realize that the kingdom of God is advancing."
