EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, . December 2, 1876.

The Pious Czar.

The threatened war in Europe presents itself under many aspects, from many different points of view, yet certainly there is nothing more novel or more strange in the whole question than the pious solicitude displayed by the Czar for the principle of nationality, the cause of justice and the freedom of religion. In this country, when a man claims to be a reformer, we at once accept him as a reformer, and as we ought not to treat his Russian Majesty less courteously than we treat Ben Hill or John Morrissey, we are bound to accept his professions, to believe that his heart is wrung at the sight of Slavonians subject to an alien race, of Christians bending under a Moslem yoke, of subjects exposed to arbitrary and vexatious laws, and of rebellions put down by fire and sword.

How tender must be the heart which is so easily moved by the woes of strangers and foreigners, and yet how strange it is that the power which threatens to plunge Europe into war rather than see the Servians oppressed or the Bulgarians punished with too much cruelty, has never felt any qualms of conscience over cruelties ten times more atrocious perpetrated on its own subjects. It has been less than twenty years since the last vestige of freedom disappeared from the Caucasus; less than sixteen years since this tender-hearted Czar was fusillading women and children in the streets of Warsaw, and lashing the bare backs of Polish ladies; less than five years since he placed on the wandering Kirfihiz of Turkestan the same alien domination which so suddenly moves his resentment, after it has lasted for 400 years, in the insurgent provinces of Turkey.

The history of Russian aggrandizement and of Russian aggression is one in which mercy, justice and humanity have not only been unknown, but in which cruelty, injustice and brutality seem to have been indulged merely to delight the stupid despotism which allowed them free sway. The partition of Poland is an old story, but the story of Russia's cruelty in Poland is renewed every day. It is a persecution of race, of religion, of language, of the family of humanity. The Polish language, which records the deeds of their ancestors and the history of their race, is forbidden in the schools and in the courts; their religion is suspected and persecuted—nay, even their private life, even the cut of their garments, is not safe from the uneasy jealousy which constantly casts about for some excuse for new punishments and new cruelties.

Turkey has never persecuted her Greek Catholic subjects as Russia has persecuted her Roman Catholic subjects, and to Russia the Catholic and the Mahometan are all one. The Kouban territory, on the Black Sea, which twelve years ago was the home of half a million of hardy Circassians, is to-day a desert, the entire population having taken refuge in Turkey after the subjugation of Schamyl, and the steady extension of Russian power across the great desert of Asia has made even the wandering herds of the Tartar pay their tribute in roubles and kopics to a tax-collector who visits delinquents with fire and sword. If their religion is spared, it is because the Government neither knows nor cares what it is, but it would be a very unhappy day for these poor Moslems if their Russian governors should suspect that that religion was any bond of union or any source of strength.

The cruelties of Russia do not, of course, excuse the cruelties of Turkey, and the demands which Russia makes may be no more than the demands of humanity; but in pretending that humanity is the motive behind her demands, Russia is guilty of a brazen hypocrisy which hardly cares whether it is detected or not. And there is a cynical defiance of decency not only in the contrast between her professions and her practices, but in the contrast between the motive which is assumed and the motive which has avowedly shaped her policy for 150 years. Citizens of the United States, who ought naturally to have a detestation of Russian tyranny, have only too much admiration for Russian power and greatness, an admiration which is not at all lessened by the circumstances that England and Russia are opposed in interest. We should be on our guard against this feeling, which is at best an unworthy one, and not allow our sympathy for the oppressed to be abused by a tyrant who artfully appeals to principles which he has never respected.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

PROTECT YOUR BUILDINGS

Which may be done with one-fourth the usual expense, by using our

PATENT SLATE PAINT,

MIXED READY FOR USE.

Fire-proof, Water-proof, Durable, Economical and Ornamental.

A roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slate be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better, and lasting longer than new shingles without the slate, for

One-Third the Cost of Reshingling.

The expense of slating new shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them. The paint is FIRE-PROOF against sparks or flying embers, as may be easily tested by any one.

IT STOPS EVERY LEAK, and for tin or iron has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold, and NEVER CRACKS nor scales. Roofs covered with Tar Sheathing Felt can be made water tight at a small expense, and preserved for many years.

This Slate Paint is EXTREMELY CHEAP.

Two gallons will cover a hundred square feet of shingle roof, while on tin, iron, felt, matched boards, or any smooth surface, from two quarts to one gallon are required to 100 square feet of surface, and although the Paint has a heavy body it is easily applied with a brush.

No Tar is used in this Composition, therefore it neither cracks in Winter, nor runs in summer.

On decayed shingles it fills up the holes and pores, and gives a new substantial roof that will last for years. CURLED or WARPED shingles it brings to their places, and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in Felt roofs, stops the leaks—and although a slow dryer, rain does not affect it a few hours after applying. As nearly all paints sold are black contain TAR, be sure you obtain our GENUINE article, which (for shingle roofs) is when first applied, changing in about a month to a uniform slate color, and is to all intents and purposes SLATE. Or our red color is usually preferred, as one coat is equal to five of any ordinary paint. For our BRIGHT RED is the only reliable Slate Paint ever introduced that will effectually prevent dampness from penetrating and discoloring the plaster.

CHOCOLATE COLOR,

TIN ROOFS

BRICK WALLS

These paints are also largely used on outhouses and fences, or as a priming coat on fine buildings.

Our only colors are CHOCOLATE, RED, BRIGHT RED and ORANGE.

TO CALIFORNIA.

We don't give this for un fait accompli, but it is very strongly rumored that Cedar Rapids is to be the half-way station between Chicago and Council Bluffs.

If this is to be, and some experiments have been made to that end, we suppose it is on account of the superior condition of the road. A trip on the steel railed and well ballasted road, is not any more now, if as much, wear and, tear on the employes and machinery to a train, from Chicago to Cedar Rapids, 218 miles, as it was on the iron rails from Chicago to Clinton, 138 miles, in the olden time.

It is not necessary for us to say that the C. & N. W. R'y is a first-class road in every particular, that it rides as easy as sitting in a "rocking chair," that its coaches are parlors, that its employes are the most polite and affable gentlemen the traveling public can meet or will meet in a lifetime of travel—the esprit de corps of the employes, if we may so say, is at a high standard; we say we need not say this in a newspaper, it is self-evident to every traveler on the road. But in the future these are to be increased; we suppose the speed will be increased; if possible, the superb trains will be more superb: there is to be no train more complete, either for comfort or safety, leave the world's commercial metropolis for the GOLDEN GATE, THAN THE GREAT TRAINS ON THE CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY—THE ONLY COMPANY RUNNING OUT OF CHICAGO THAT HAS A ROAD SO RELIABLE THAT THEY ARE NOT AFRAID TO RUN AT ANY SPEED CAPABLE OF BEING ATTAINED BY ENGINES OF THE MOST IMPROVED CONSTRUCTION, RUN WITH THE HAND OF IRON NERVE, AND A HEAD OF BRAINS, WITHOUT ANY FEAR OF ACCIDENT OR INCONVENIENCE.

Every employe on the road feels a personal interest in the North-Western Railway; it's the "clipper" road in the West, and so far as anything he can do it will continue so to be.

THIS IS THE TRANS-CONTINENTAL LINE FROM THE GREAT LAKES TO THE GREAT MISSOURI RIVER.

The old time traveler speaks in high glee of the "ease and comfort" of these days of steel in contrast with the pioneer days of this pioneer road in the days of iron. The comforts of travel on the North-Western Railway are in every traveler's mouth from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It must be a proud compliment to the efficient management, and that is the reason every officer or employe feels so happy and obliging.

It is with pride we mention these things, and join the general shout along the line, Hurrah for the "OLD RELIABLE."—Cedar Rapids Republican, Aug. 14, 1876.
