

ANTI-AMERICAN FEELING IN CHINA

It Grows Rapidly as Expressed
In Edicts in Various Parts
Of Empire.

MINISTER ROCKHILL IS BUSY.

Keeps State Department Posted, Which Does Not Admit Situation is One Of Immediate Danger.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Reports continue to pour into the department of state from diplomatic and consular agents in China regarding the rapid increase of feeling against America and things American, as expressed in edicts issued by local authorities in various parts of the empire.

For six months the situation in China has been the subject of very genuine concern to the department, and Mr. Rockhill, the American minister at Peking, is under instruction to keep Washington thoroughly posted and frequently informed of the situation. He is also working himself at the Chinese capital in an effort to check or allay the anti-foreign feeling that appears to be growing.

While not admitting that the situation is one of immediate danger, the officials here would not be at all surprised at any developments a month may bring forth.

Although at the outset demanding only a return to the provisions of the original exclusion treaty of 1880, which excluded from this country Chinese laborers without specifying the classes of Chinese which should be admitted, in some provinces manifestos have been issued declaring that if the boycott is rigidly adhered to, Americans will be forced to forego any exclusion at all.

Such expressions have been immediately denied by Mr. Rockhill at Peking. Although directed primarily against the Americans, the feeling of ill will that seems to be growing in various parts of the empire is interpreted by orientalists to have a far deeper meaning.

In a word, it is declared to be anti-foreign, and there are indications that all foreigners, with the possible exception of Japanese, will soon be as keenly affected as Americans.

Informal representations regarding the Chinese situation already have been exchanged between some of the European powers.

Thus far this country has not called foreign nations into consultation, because there is a general feeling among the European powers that the Chinese are unjustly discriminated against by the American government, and so long as the anti-foreign feeling is confined to Americans the Europeans are expected to hide their eyes.

The dispatch from Peking published yesterday regarding the activity of Russia in Mongolia has been taken note of by the officials here.

OUTLOOK VERY SERIOUS.

London, Feb. 7.—J. C. Hoare, bishop of Victoria, Hongkong, in an interview today on the situation in China, expressed the view that the outlook was more serious, in the south, at any rate, than before the Boxer rising.

"The persistent American boycott," he added, "is stirring up much trouble, and there is danger that the Chinese may extend the boycotting principle, inevitably leading to a general anti-foreign feeling among the more ignorant classes. The attack on Dr. Andrew Beattie (the American Presbyterian missionary at Fati, whose residence was looted on Feb. 5), was particularly daring, as it occurred just across the river from the Canton settlement and within a few yards of European gunboats. It is also significant that such a pro-foreign official as Viceroy Yuan Shi Kai should have discharged Prof. C. D. Tenney (an American and director of education, who organized the new school system in Pe Chi Li province).

"The spread of the boycott will be more difficult to contend with than the Boxer movement. As the exclusion of the Chinese from the United States and Philippine Islands caused the boycott of American goods, their exclusion from Australia and Canada will cause a feeling against Great Britain."

THREE BOYS KILLED.

St. Louis, Feb. 6.—Three boys of Meriden, Conn., who were killed by a passenger train today. The dead: John Gill, aged 13.

Edgar Cosgrove, aged 16.

Raymond Quinn, aged 15.

REVOLUTIONISTS EXECUTED.

Libau, Feb. 6.—Thirteen revolutionists were condemned to death by a court-martial and executed in the Kanodin district. Among the number was the murderer of the superintendent of the Grabinak district.

W. B. OGDEN ESTATE.

Suit Begun to Set Aside Decree Approving Executors' Accounts.

New York, Feb. 6.—Frances S. Whitehouse, wife of William F. Whitehouse and a niece of William B. Ogden, has begun proceedings in the surrogate's court to have set aside a decree signed Nov. 25, 1901, by which the accounts of the executors and trustees of the Ogden estate were approved.

Mrs. Whitehouse bases her application on the admissions made by a clerk in the employ of the late Andrew H. Green that he had forced certain deeds and mortgages and so defrauded the estate out of about $110,000.

William B. Ogden, who was the first mayor of Chicago and also president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company, died in 1877, leaving a large fortune, which he bequeathed to his widow who died in September, 1904. She and Mr. Green were the surviving executors and the property had increased under their management until it amounted to $2,275,000. When the accounts of the executors were last passed upon they were made up in Mr. Green's office and when the clerk confessed after Mr. Green's death to his forgeries, it came out that the falsifications had entered into the Ogden accounts. Green was murdered by a negro in November, 1903.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The president has accepted the resignation of First Lieut. Kent Browning, Fourth U. S. Infantry to take effect at once "for the good of the service."

Lieut. Browning, recently stationed at Fort Stanwix, Ill., was convicted by court martial of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman on account of intemperance.

NEBRASKA CONVICT WINS $25,000 PRIZE.

Lincoln, Neb. Feb. 6.—The winner of $25,000 prize for correctly naming the murderer of the St. Louis exposition in 1904 was Frank Campbell, a convict in the Nebraska state penitentiary, who still has one year more to serve for embezzlement. The winner, however, will receive only $12,500, fearing that he might have difficulty in securing the money while imprisoned, he agreed to pay a lawyer half of the prize in case he was successful in securing it.

GEORGE C. COLEMAN'S WIFE.

He Has Her and His Chauffeur Arrested for Grand Larceny.

New York, Feb. 6.—George C. Coleman, said to be the president of a gold mining company in Colorado, Nev., today caused the arrest of his wife, Mrs. Mabel Coleman, aged 19, and Frank Stanley, a chauffeur, and by Sheriff Mansfield on a charge of grand larceny. Coleman alleges that he was deserted by his wife Jan. 15 last, at which time his chauffeur left him, and he discovered the loss of $5,000 shares of a gold mining company with a par value of $1 each. Mr. Coleman has been living at a hotel in this city for several months.

When he came here with his wife, who was Miss Mabel Zimmer of Philadelphia, who he married Nov. 26 last, he leased an automobile and employed Stanley as a chauffeur.

Stanley was arrested during the early afternoon, after a lively chase which lasted for 20 blocks. He said he lived at 102 West Sixty-first street, tonight he told local Mrs. Coleman's address at that address. She denied any knowledge of the missing bonds. Stanley was held in $5,000 bail for further examination. Mrs. Coleman will be arraigned tomorrow.

AFTER SENATOR'S ALGER'S SEAT

Detroit, Feb. 6.—Arthur Hill of Saginaw, a wealthy lumberman, today made formal announcement of his candidacy for the United States senate in opposition to Senator R. A. Alger, in 1907.

GEN. S. S. SUMNER RETIRED.

San Francisco, Feb. 6.—Major-General Samuel S. Sumner, commander of the Pacific division, today retired from active service in the United States army and his command was taken over by Brig-Gen. Frederick Funston, commander of the department of California, who will have charge of both commands until the return of Maj-Gen. Arthur MacArthur, who is at present traveling in oriental countries in the interest of the army. Gen. Sumner will leave for Santa Barbara, where he will spend the winter.

MOVE TO REMOVE INTERNAL TAX FROM ALCOHOL.

New York, Feb. 1.—A number of prominent manufacturers and representatives of various industries interested in securing the removal of internal revenue tax from denatured alcohol, left this city yesterday for Washington to attend the public hearing before the committee on ways and means on the various untaxed alcohol bills now pending in Congress.

Automobile manufacturers and owners are also interested in the matter, as it is said that the supply of gasoline for mechanical purposes is threatened with exhaustion and a substitute may be found in alcohol if the latter can be had at a practical price. In addition to the manufacturers from this city the hearing will be attended by representatives of the National Manufacturers' association of Connecticut, the New England Society of Chemical Industry, the Furniture Manufacturers' association, of Gardner, Mass.; the National Association of Engine and Boat Manufacturers, the Detroit chamber of commerce and various other business and commercial organizations who will urge a favorable report on a bill removing the internal revenue tax from alcohol made unfit for beverage purposes.

The National Grange, representing about 800,000 organized farmers, will be represented by N. J. Rochester, former governor of New Hampshire; F. F. Ingram, of Michigan, and other representative farmers. The American Chemical society, which has a membership of nearly 2,000 will be represented by President Ira Remsen, of Johns Hopkins university, and other eminent chemists.

Representatives of temperance associations of the country will also testify at the hearings in favor of the proposed legislation, as being what they consider the proper use of alcohol. A delegation of five painters from Lynn, Mass., urge upon Congress the necessity for legislation which will enable them to use denatured grain alcohol instead of the dangerous wood alcohol now in general use.

THE END OF "FRENZIED FINANCE"

The whole final chapter (in Everybody's for February) is as spicy and dramatic a fact-story as any of the series.

What could be bolder than Lawson's plain exposure and ringing denunciation of the Bay State Gas tricksters?

What could be more dramatic or more exquisitely pathetic than his contrast of a miserable criminal court-scene with the gorgeous offices of frenzied financiers, "paid for out of dollars blood-and-tear-soaked, wrung cent by cent from the honest toilers of the land."

TWO INCIDENTS AT ALGERIAS.

They Show Germany's Desire to Avoid a Rupture With France.

GLIMPSE BEHIND THE SCENES

Count von Tattenbach and Marquis Visconti Venosta the Dramatis Personae.

Algerias, Spain, Feb. 6.—Count von Tattenbach, the German minister to Portugal, and the second of the delegates of Germany to the Moroccan conference, and the Marquis Visconti Venosta, the head of the Italian mission to the conference, figured in two little incidents this evening which show Germany's desire to avoid a rupture with France and the neutral powers' desire to maintain European peace. The count, who was chatting with the wives of the ambassadors, remarked:

"I have been painted as a sort of devil throughout this Moroccan affair."

One of the ladies replied that if the people could see him in his present amiable mood it would remove such an unfavorable impression.

"Perhaps so," replied Count von Tattenbach, "but this legend has become so firmly fixed that I fear history will picture me with horns."

Just after this Countess von Tattenbach passed her autograph album, which she was taking the signatures of the ambassadors, to the Marquis Visconti Venosta, who leads in the efforts of the neutral powers to effect a reconciliation. He took the album and wrote in Latin the following:

"Peace on earth, to men good will."

The marquis passed this pacific inscription to Count von Tattenbach, who smiled grimly at his rival.

This glimpse behind the scenes gives the keynote to the present efforts to reconcile the Franco-German relations.

The discussions going on between the German and French delegates to the Moroccan conference begin to disclose their respective positions and how each side is willing to yield upon the main Franco-German controversy.

When France indicated a desire to control Morocco's police, Germany objected upon the ground that it would permit France to obtain complete political mastery of the country. France has now sought to meet this objection by suggesting certain guarantees limiting the scope of the police in such a way as to guarantee against their use as an instrument for France laying hands upon the Moroccan empire.

There is reason to believe that the foreign capitals have been advised of these guarantees and that some countries, but not all, have responded favorably. However, Germany doubts the sincerity of any guarantee, and continues to resist French control of the police as contrary to the spirit of the open door, the German conception of the open door being that it should be a safeguard against exclusive local as well as commercial advantages.

METEOR FALLS NEAR RHOYHYTE

Reno, Nev., Feb. 6.—Word has been received in Reno to the effect that an immense meteor fell a few miles north of the town of Rhyolite this week.

E. Turner, well known in this city, together with others witnessed the descent of the meteor. It fell at an angle of 45 degrees and left a trail of fire a yard long in its wake. The heavenly visitor was seen and heard to strike the ground and though every effort has been made to find its location since it has been without success.

CONSTABLE ARRESTED FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

San Mateo, Cal., Feb. 6.—Constable R. Carroll of Colma was arrested today by Sheriff Mansfield on a charge of manslaughter for his alleged part in the prize fight tragedy last night. It is charged that Carroll is one of the promoters of the amateur fights which have been held at Colma at frequent intervals for some time past.

James W. Coffroth has a lease of the Colma pavilion and pays the county an annual license of $50. Carroll was never granted a license. It is said that the contest between Devin and Johnson was held in his custody. Judge Bradley of the supreme judicial court today issued a temporary injunction against the Hanover bank, a West Virginia corporation, which has its main office at 125 Hanover street, this city. All the officers and directors of the bank are residents of New York.

One of the directors, Robert C. Ruxton, was arrested yesterday in New York with John S. White, president of the Metropolitan Securities company and Clyde Holt, a New York broker, by United States authorities on indictments charging them with using the mails to defraud. Foster Hooper, who has been known as the vice president of the Hanover bank, was also arrested yesterday. Hooper is charged with using the mails to defraud. The question of making the injunction against the bank permanent and the question of appointing receivers will be heard tomorrow in the supreme court.
