WOMAN MOTORIST HAS RETURNED TO NEW YORK

RETURNED TO NEW YORK (Special Correspondence.) New York, Aug. 15.—The first woman motorist to pilot her car from the At-lantic to the Pacific coast.—Mrs. Allee R. Ramsey of Hackensack, N. J., has just returned to New York, her com-plexion a deep and healthy tan, but otherwise none the worse for her ex-generes. The trip was nothing less than the outcome of a dars, which the plucky little woman driver declined to take. Mrs. Ramsey is a motorist of some note, who drove a Maxwell in the Mon-tauk Mechanical Efficiency run and a fit-tic later in the Midwinter run of the Vomen's Motoring club of New York, of which organization she is president. In the former event she was awarded a series superimendent of the Maxwell in discussing the staying qualities of woman in long runs, in a joking spirit dared Mrs. Ramsey to drive her car from New York to San Francisco--with the result that he was 'on' at once, the lady midntafning that she would not only drive her car across the continent but would undertake the journey ae-companied only by women passengers, thus demonstrating that it is possible for a woman to motor from one end of the country to the other.— Transisco on Aug 1 after 28 dars of driving According to Mrs Ramsey the state of lows was the only one which passengers and arrived in Sar Francisco on Aug 1 after 28 dars of driving According to Mrs Ramsey the state of Lows was the only one which passengers.
