PARDOE DIVORCE SUIT.

PARDOE DIVORCE SUIT. In the divorce suit of Ella Pardoe against L. G. Pardoe, the latter has filed his answer in the district court in which he admits that he has failed to provide for his wife but says that it was not wilful because his wife re-fused to live with him. Her actions he alleges were not caused by any fault of his. He further states that his wife is not a fit person to cars for their infant child and concludes with the request that the court dismiss the complaint filed by his wife.

son which caused the woman's death had been administered by her husband who Buck declares is "no good." There being absolutely no doubt about the woman's self-destruction the sheriff will advise the father to this effect. Since Wednesday morning there has never been any trace of Cress wro stated when he left the hotel that he and his wife could not get along to-gether and that he was going away. He left for the Hot Springs on a street car saying that he would take the train there for Seattle. The supposition was that he went to Butte on account of the opening of the tacing season, Cress being a "bookle." CHARGES AGAINST CHAS. BROWN In the police court tomorrow morn-ing before Judge Murphy, County Attorney Harris will call up the com-plaint charging Charles Brown who is now in the custody of the police, with the crime of assault with a dead-ly weapon. The complain is one which was drawn in November, 1906, by E. T. Hulaniski, who was then county at-torney, and was made at the time Brown is alleged to have made the first attempt to kill his wife in the woodmansee rooming house. Brown's arrest was made last Tuesday morn-ing when he returned to Ogden and made another attempt upon her life in the Denver rooming house. Ogden, June 29.-With an unusually large attendance, services of great in-terest were held in the tabernacle yes-trday aftrnoon. The fact that the weather was very cool most of the day was the means of attracting a very large congregation at the sacred edi-fice.

Special Correspondence.

Special Correspondence. Brigham City, June 26.—The ball game between the business men on the cast and west sides last Wednesday af-ternoon caused much amusement. Nearly all the stores closed their doors during the game, and the band played, heading the parade. The stores on the west side were decorat-ed with purple and white, while the east side color was dark red. At the end of the game the score was 12 to 10 in favor of the westiders. At a special meeting of the city council, it was decided to build a new reservoir for the municipal water-works system, 55 by 45 feet and 10 feet deep, just east of the present res-ervoir. The mayor and recorder will advertise for bids for the excavation. JUNE WEDDINGS.

Don't lose your temper.

Special Correspondence. Huntsville, Weber Co., June 26.— Judge Howell, with members of the court, came to Huntsville yesterday to inspect the Ogden valley fish ponds. The fish question in the valley is forever settled. There is no more need for court proceedings in the matter, for Judge Howell and his party ate all the trout and enjoyed themselves immensely at the home of Christian Wangsgaard. The remnants of the feast the judge took home in of the feast the judge took home in his hat. No doubt the court would like to settle all other difficulties in he same way.
