So opens the Democratic address to the people which Ashby Snow, the new cliy committee chairman, has given out as a statement of why the Demo-cratic campaign will be vigirously waged, and why his committee thinks success should follow in the wake of its campaign. Sugar City, Idaho, Sept. 30.-H. O. Havemeyer, president of the American Sugar Refining company, with his party. is on a tour of inspection of the western sugar factories, in which he is interestand he visited Sugar City today in success should follow in the wake of its campaign. The address is given out on account of the fact, possibly, that at the diry convention the sounding of a "key-note" was not very successfully carried out owing to the unexpected illness of Former Mayor Morris. After the opening paragraph Chair-man Snow launches into the discus-sion of the city under the former Mor-ris administration, under the last Re-publican administration, and under the his special car. Accompanying him were Thos. R. Cutler, general manager of the Utah-idaho Sugar company; David Ec-cles, president of the Amalgamated Sugar company, and Dr. Hooker the sugar ex-port. The program comprises a visit to the three fractories in the Snake River valley. At 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the party laft for Nampa, after visit-ing the new factory there, they will go to Lewiston, Logan, Ogden, Garland and Leht, probably calling at the power plant at the Bear River canyon, en route. All the factories are now in full blast, except that at Elackfoor, which is a wait-ing the arrival of an engine from the east. The tour is being made in a rush, so that only a brief stop at Sall Lake is conformplated, and it may be necessary to omit it allogether. R. Cutler, general manager of the

WHY "AMERICANS" asked the train conductor to stop there FAVOR BRANSFORD

Bransford has not been approached to sign the humiliating pledge which nominees spurned with fierce words in the "American" convention, after having accepted it gracefully in the ward conventions, but this does not indicate ing in case of election. Knowing that they could not bring their own voters to support their own grafters, and self-seekers in office, the "American" party carries the banner of Mayor Bransford, for the opportuni-ty it affords to flock with respectabil-ity. Halloran, with Tribune endorse-ment, would not do for this leading position. Davis would not do for the same reason largely that Crabtree wouldn't, and Black wouldn't for the same reason Sheets wouldn't.

THE ONE BEST BET. But Bransford today stands with only one asset in his favor, as listed by the inner circles of the "Amori-can" party. It is this—Bransford will get the votes beyond the bopes of any other possible candidate and especially any candidate within the charmed circle watched over by Jos Lippman, and presided over by David C. Dunbar of street-sign notoriety. HOW TO DOMINATE.

How to DOMINATE. But this circle doesn't plan to use Brainsford, the Independent citizen, a day longer than Bransford is able to march into the camp with their camp-followers behind him, and the palm of victory in his hand. That Brans-ford will win, is the hope in which the circle is now tolerating him. That they will be able to control him after election is the hope in which they are now most hard at work. OPPOSED IN COUNCIL.

Several plans are mentioned, but the one most effectively being carried out, is to organize Mayor Bransford's pro-Is to organize Mayor Bransford's pro-specive council against him. In case of "American" party ward victories, the first move that will be made will be to bring the councilmen strictly un-der the thumb of the persuader city committee, and then with this whip on Mayor Bransford, to attempt to force him to play politics, a game in which he has not yet been dealt a hand, be-cause he says he knows nothing about it, although he admits he knows about honesty in office, efficiency in service, and integrity in citizenship, and finds all these qualities desirable among ap-arrested for perjury on a complaint worn to by Deputy Sheriff Axel Speele, The arrest follows his testimony in the use of Kunkel against the Utah Lumher company, involving the theft of a house, which has furnished more fun for many spectators, lawyers and juryment in many spectators, havyers and juryment in the court procedure than any other case which has ever come before the courts. Cain declares that the animus nack of the perjury charge brought against him is not spottess and that he will have his day in court in both civil and criminal actions. The Kunkel story is a peculiar one, in 1908 Kunkel, who was far from being a well-to-do man, hought a piece of ground on Eighth avenue and L streets. He borrowed the money through Cain to build a house upon the ground. The money was late in coming, but still the

Keith-O'Brien's Demonstration of Redfern and Warner's Corsets. YPE OF CO

Keith-O'BrienCo. cordially invites you to call at the Corset Department to be fitted to the latest models of Redfern Corsets by the expert specialist of New York, Miss Edyth C. Ohlsen, Commencing October First tor a short period.

A perfect fit of the new gown depends almost entirely upon the graceful lines of the corset The Redfern plays an important part in style, which woman of refined taste are quick to recognize.

A demonstration of Redfern and Warner Corsets opens Tuesday under the direction of Miss Ohlsen. The presence of an experienced corsetier is always an occasion of importance in a leading store. The ladies are correctly fifted, and at the same time valuable information is imparted. There are many kinds of corsets that fit, but fitting is not sufficient. A model must do more-it must build a specific type of form; must create, as it were, a base to accord with the gown style that is the prevailing mode. In our search for choice and accurate models for this season, we found Redfern and Warner's We will be pleased to have the ladies come in and and meet Miss Ohlsen. in a class to themselves.
