LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—In the morning Elders Albert Carrington and Joseph W. Young addressed the congregation. In the afternoon the speakers were Bishop John Sharp, Elder John T. Caine and President Brigham Young.

THE BLONDES.—An audience that only such a troupe as the British Blondes could draw during the present warm spell, filled the Theatre on Saturday evening. "La Sonambula," performed with the same pleasing effect that has characterized all their productions, was the attraction, followed by selections from "Luna," "Miss Woe," and "Elvina," as well as a bewitching song by her, "Beware," and a cornet solo drew rapturous rounds of applause. "Alesio" (Miss Massey) in the popular "Love among the roses" forcibly reminded us of the "Jurons" the same song created here some time since.

A great feature of the different performances by this troupe is the superb dancing of Miss Ada Harland, her quick execution and different steps always ensuring a hearty encore. Messrs. Becker and Ketchum kept the house in a continuous roar by their laughable rendition of "Amalia" and "Count Rodolpho."

To-night the "Blondes" repeat "Sinbad the Sailor," and selections from "La Sonambula" with all the original music, and the nursery rhymes. Miss Massey as "Sinbad," and the darling girl of the period.

On Wednesday evening the Blondes appear in Ogden for one night only, producing two of their best pieces.

CHILDREN'S SUMMER DISEASES.—The time at which the terrible class of Summer diseases, the cholera infantum, dysentery, and diarrhoea, usually makes its appearance, is now close at hand. To-day is the first of August, the month in which these diseases commence their attacks upon the children. Would it not be well for parents to bethink themselves and adopt every possible precaution to ward off their ravages and preserve the health and lives of their children? The garden or orchard, surrounding nearly every house here, is one feature specially attractive in our city, and the abundance of the various kinds of fruit grown therein is a great blessing to the people. But valuable and healthful as fruit is, when matured or ripe, it is very different when green or crude, and here is where the danger to children comes in; for they must play and wherever fruit is grown they will pluck and eat, regardless of its being ripe or unripe, healthy or dangerous.

This danger is heightened, as it has been in the past two or three seasons, by the tainting of the fruit by the locusts, and hence the tremendous necessity for the strictest watchfulness on the part of parents to prevent their children being injured by the produce of the orchard. The greatest of care should also be exercised by mothers who are nursing children that no food be eaten calculated in the least to lay a foundation for or to develop the germs of these terrible summer complaints through which so many have to mourn.

Another precaution within the reach of all, is not to partake of water too plentifully, especially while very hot. Parents must use their judgment for and on behalf of their children in this respect. Where creek water has to be used it might be very beneficial to have the water filtered, which may be very easily done in the following manner: procure three, burned but unglazed, flower pots, or vessels similar to them. Fill one with pulverized charcoal, another with charcoal and sand, and the last one with sand, and place them one over the other, the one containing the charcoal at the bottom, the sand and charcoal in the middle, and let water for drinking or culinary purposes be poured through this filter, and it will be cleansed from all organic impurities.

These precautions are within the reach of all, and if followed will tend to preserve health, and it may be life. The trouble is not much and when placed in the balance against the health and lives of children is not worth mentioning.

CO-OPERATION IN SANPETE.—A letter from Bro. Roes R. Llewellyn, dated Fountain Green, Sanpete county, says:

"Bro. Nelsbitt gave a most excellent discourse on co-operation here last Tuesday evening, which was very interesting and to the point, and gave entire satisfaction to a crowded house."

"Grasshopper in countless myriads for the last week; they are damaging what little crops we have left. They are traveling south."

AMOUNT OF ORE MINED.—The shipment of ore from the following districts shows approximate by the product from our mines for the month of July (i.e. to the 27 ult.).

Little Cottonwood,	314 tons,
Ingham,	6 "
Parley's Park,	40 "
Rush Valley,	70 "
Deep Creek,	10 "
Tintic,	30 "
Total,	470 tons.

In this amount about eighty tons remain in the Territory at the smelting works of Woodhull Bros. About the same amount has been shipped per schooner Pioneer across Salt Lake to the railroad, at Monument Point. Some ninety tons from Cottonwood are now being shipped to the new smelting works. From returns given by Meader, Woodhull and others, the average value of ore exported is $100.00 per ton or a total for the month of $49,350.00.

JOSEPH E. TAYLOR, Sexton.

THE FUNERAL OF Major James B. Lewis took place on Friday afternoon last, from the 20th Ward School House, whither the body was conveyed from his residence by officers of the 3rd regiment, N. L., of which he was a member. The exercises were of an impressive character. Bishop Sharp and Elders Joseph W. Young and George Q. Cannon addressed the assembly. The officers, as pall-bearers and escort, marched on either side and in rear of the hearse to the cemetery. The body being interred and the procession still in waiting, Colonel Sharp called the officers around the grave and briefly addressed them. His remarks were pointed and appropriate and will not soon be forgotten.
