EDITOR & PUBLISHER.

BREVITIES.

An Indiana groom was 91 and the bride 106. They were married without the consent of their parents.

The first ingredient in conversation is truth, the next good sense, the third good humor and the fourth wit.

An Ohio young man had a girl whom he was courting arrested for biting his lips. The fool couldn't he bite back? We would be chawed into hash before having a girl arrested for that.—Gold Hill News.

Two commissioners appointed to investigate the sanitary state of Liverpool, made their report, in which they said hardly a fifth of the population lived under any kind of restraint, or with decency, and the dock laborers were worse off with respect to houses than common tramps.

The present style of shoes is crippling the women of our day. Ladies' shoemakers say that there is hardly a young woman now who regards herself at all fashionable who has not bunions, callosities, corns and enlarged joints; and that the crop of these ornaments developed within the past four or five years is astonishing and pitiful.

A good story is told of a Nashua, N. H., physician, who recently vaccinated a family of twelve persons and charged twelve dollars. A few days thereafter he took a dozen cabbage plants in part pay, as he supposed, but upon final settlement learned to his surprise, that Mr. Farmer charged doctor's prices—"one dollar a-head."

Spurgeon tells the following: "I like the story of the servant maid, who, when she was asked, on joining the church, 'Are you converted?' 'I hope so, sir.' 'What makes you think you are really a child of God?' 'Well, sir, there is a great change in me from what there used to be.' 'What is that change?' 'I don't know, sir, but there's a change in all things; but there is one thing, I always sweep under the mats now!'"

A New York wholesale grocer who has become rich in his business, lately gave one of his fundamental rules of action. When he sold a bill of goods on credit it was his custom to immediately subscribe for the local paper of his debtor. So long as his customer advertised liberally and vigorously he rested, but as soon as he began to contract his advertising space he took the fact as evidence that there was trouble ahead, and he invariably went for his debt. "For," said he, "the man who feels too poor to make his business known, is too poor to do business."

Mr James Brooks, of the New York Express, writes as follows of Japanese farming: "Proud as I am of the arts, sciences, and marvelous doings of my own country, I blush when I compare American farming with this! Here are the rice fields artificially created, luxuriant in beauty now, terraced from hill-side, up and down, and watered by the hill streams, or not watered, as the husbandman wills. There are barley fields, and bean fields, and fields of all sorts of Japan agricultural productions. Forests cap all the hill tops. Two crops are raised in Japan in one year, even on the rice fields, where the first crop is grain. The grain harvest is over in April or May. The rains come on in June and July, and now the new crops are up, and the whole country is one beautiful landscape of green."

Sleepless people—and they are many in America—should court the sun. The very worst soporific is laudanum, and the very best sunshine. Therefore, it is very plain that poor sleepers should pass as many hours as possible in sunshine, and as few as possible in the shade. Many women are martyrs, and yet they do not know it. They shut the sunshine out of their houses and hearts, they wear vails, they carry parasols, they do all possible to keep off the subtlest and yet most potent influence which is intended to give them strength and beauty and cheerfulness. Is it not time to change this, and so get color and roses in our pale cheeks, strength in our weak backs, and courage in our timid souls? The women of America are pale and delicate; they may be blooming and strong, and the sunlight will be a potent influence in this transformation.—Rural New Yorker.

The London Daily Telegraph thinks that if the new feats of the metropolitan spirits become common, the difficulties of London locomotion will be quickly solved. We need have no disputes about bad cabs, narrow omnibuses, underground rails, overground tramways, or even traveling balloons, if it be true that Mrs. Guppy, described by her friends as "one of the biggest women in London," can be carried through the air from Highbury to Lamb's Conduit street, in the course of a few minutes. This remarkable event took place 3d of June, 1871, eight witnesses, not including the transported lady and the two mediums, testify to it; and those eight include Mr. Henry Morris, described as "a Manchester merchant of high standing," Mr. Edward, B. A., of Cambridge, and others, ladies and gentlemen, who sign their names and addresses to the statement.

SPECIAL TO THE DESERET NEWS.

By Telegraph.

Per WESTERN UNION Telegraph Line

WASHINGTON.

Embezzler Sentenced.

WASHINGTON, 20.—Second Lieutenant Ferno, tried at St. Paul's for embezzling public funds, has been found guilty, sentenced to be cashiered, to re-fund fifteen hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for five years in the penitentiary.

NEW YORK.

The Municipal Troubles.

NEW YORK, 20.—Ex-Sheriff O'Brien has published a letter denouncing Tweed, Hall, Sweeney and Connolly, denying the statements made in some papers that he was secretly in league with the "ring." The Post to-day announces, on the highest authority, that the vouchers stolen from the comptroller's office on Sunday night week, are not the only ones missing from that office. Early in the summer, it is said, city vouchers for three million dollars, were suddenly missed from the comptroller's office, though it is only very recently that the mayor or any other officer outside the comptroller's office knew about it. The auditor through whose hands these vouchers passed, and who was responsible for their accuracy, was J. Townsend Connolly, son of the comptroller, and who has since left the country and gone to Europe, Mr. Herring taking his place. The Post, however, says it has not learned whether the vouchers were missing immediately after Connolly's departure or not, nor has it any facts directly or indirectly implicating him in the theft. The man who stole the vouchers from the comptroller's office, on Sunday week, is known and will be arrested in the morning. It appears Connolly had nothing to do with the affair which was instigated by the head of another department.

The department of parks to-day renewed its requisition on Connolly for money with which to pay the laborers on parks and boulevards. The total amount of requisitions since June 9th is $1,100,000, of which only $27,000 has been received.

NEW YORK, midnight.—Nothing more has been developed during the evening, regarding the truth of the Post story. It is reported however, on good authority, as only another dodge of Mayor Hall in his fight with Connolly.

INDIANA.

Fatal Caving Accident.

INDIANAPOLIS, 20.—By the sudden caving of a sewer in course of construction, on the Kentucky Avenue in this city, a number of men, supposed to be twelve or fifteen, were buried under ten or fifteen feet of gravel and sand. Every effort was immediately made to rescue them, and two were soon taken out alive and one dead. Afterwards five more dead were recovered. Two other men known to have been at work in the sewer are still missing, and are supposed to be at the bottom of the sewer, making the total number of killed eight. One man was buried in several feet of sand and received slight bruises, three others escaped with slight injuries.

FOREIGN NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Another Fearful Explosion.

LONDON, 20.—While the workmen were reopening the shaft of the Wigan coal mine to-day, another explosion took place with terrible results. Five men were blown to pieces and many injured. Flames have burst forth from the openings, and preparations are making to flood the mine.

FRANCE.

Not Hostile to France—Trial of Rochefort.

PARIS, 20.—Thiers has been assured, through a circular from the Austrian cabinet, that nothing was done at Gastein hostile to France.

The trial of Rochefort is now in progress before the court martial at Versailles. The accused is making a vigorous defence.

CANADA.

Boat Races.

QUEBEC, 20.—In the four-oared race to-day, five Quebec crews and the Renforth crew started, the Renforths winning by two minutes. In the single scull race Kelly was first and Chambers second.
