

SOCIETY

The largest event of the week and one that will be long remembered as one of the most brilliant affairs of the social season was the lawn party given by Miss McCormick. The beautiful grounds were arranged with bunting, flags and rugs, while tri-colored lights were used everywhere. The outer edges of the lawn were inclosed by white awning and over the entrance to the grounds was a large arch of red, white and blue streamers, draped with bunting. In the interior of the handsome home flowers, palms and ferns were used profusely. There were about 125 guests present. Miss McCormick was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. W. S. McCormick.

The lawn was illumined by vert-colored lights and adorned with flags and bunting. A Dutch supper was served at 11 o'clock, about twenty-five guests being present.
