

AN INDIAN PREDICTION OF HIGH WATER.
—The Mountain Messenger says: "We are informed that 'Indian Jim,' well known all about this vicinity, told a family in town that there would be several floods and much high water during the present winter. Pointing to the evening star, which has been exceedingly brilliant, he said: 'Star mucha wet; hold heap water;' and pointing to the trees told very nearly the depth of snows here and of water in the valleys."

NOTES.
Proposals must be to carry the mail with "celerity, certainty, and security;" using the terms of the law, and they must be guaranteed by two responsible persons, certified to as such by a postmaster or judge of a court of record.

No pay will be made for trips not performed, and for each of such omissions not satisfactory if explained three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connexion with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be satisfactorily explained, for neglecting to take the mail from or into a post office; for suffering it to be injured, destroyed, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running vehicles on the route. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for violation of the post office laws, or for disobedience of the instructions of the department. He may alter the schedule, and also order an increase of service by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on the contract pay. He may also curtail or discontinue the service in whole or in part, at pro rata decrease of pay, allowing one month's extra compensation on the amount of service dispensed with. Bids should be addressed to the "Second Assistant Postmaster General," superscribed "Proposals Territory of Utah," and sent by mail.

For forms of proposal, &c., and other information, see advertisement of this date, in pamphlet form, at the principal post offices.

Blank proposals will be furnished on application to the Postmaster at Salt Lake City, Brigham City and Fillmore City.
25-12 M. BLAIR, Postmaster General.
