CHOLERA SPREADING

Inhabitants of Austrian Galicia in a State of Panic.

THE PLAGUE IN HUNGARY.

Facts Suppressed in Holland.—Germany Stricken.—Jesus Pilgrimage Began.

VENICE, Sept. 1.—Twenty-eight deaths from cholera have occurred at Udine, Austrian Galicia. The disease is rapidly spreading to that country. The Turkish name of Tokay is said and all references to the building of Tokay, or several officers who have quarreled in it have been struck with the malady. The face seems to be also affected. The inability appears to be a cause of death, while the disease is more rapid than the plague. Various medical reports a similar state of affairs there.

ALARMIN REPORTS.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—Several deaths from cholera occurred at Naples yesterday.

Report from Hungary continues alarming. In sixteen counties of northern Hungary 118 new cases and 47 deaths were reported yesterday.

Reports from Austria say the rate of mortality of the cholera in the cities is being suppressed by the authorities. The situation is much worse than admitted.

Six cases were reported in Berlin yesterday, and nine more on Sunday during the past five days, in a large number of places along the Rhine surveillance has been established to prevent the introduction of cholera. It is reported from Augsburg that the cholera is still among the Jewish citizens, an alarm at the city of Magdeburg.

AKTEN DER PROZESS.

Berlin, Sept. 1.—Trouble Accepted as Evidence.

KARLSRUHE, Ky., Sept. 1.—Officials of the Louisville and Nashville railway have ruled the sheriff had preferred for the new men to take the position of chief of police before the old men got to work, certain trouble is anticipated.

SE ALVING, THE.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 1.—Up to the offices of the Louisville and Nashville railroad had come a telegram from a third party before this city and New Orleans, the chief of the railway companies who are men of wealth, certain trouble is anticipated.

SHAW MANSFIELD.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 1.—Six hundred Louisville and Nashville shop hands at Decatur, Ala., struck at midnight. The trouble is still at work.

STILL CONSULS.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 1.—The chief of the Louisville and Nashville officials of the Louisville and Nashville railroad are still in consultation, having reached no agreement. It looks like a general strike.

KELLYVILLE, Ky., Sept. 1.—The trainmen of the Louisville and Nashville was sent to demand a modification of the order reducing the pay of the men ten per cent. What kind modification is not learned. It probably will be a definite percentage of the operation of the road. One grand strike will be called if the railroad before the officials of the road intercede.

A PLAN FOR FARMERS.

How to Hold the Wheat till the Price Increases.

TACOMA, Sept. 1.—The business agent of the Northern Pacific railroad has suggested a means of holding the trains to carry their wheat till the price improves, that the bulk of the crop be stored and mortgaged for about six months.

A Meeting Announced.

QUERESON, Sept. 1.—The long overcast clouds finally arrived this morning in tow of the steaming Mississippi. Marne's last smoke Aug. 31st, the year, struggled against adverse winds till the wind which it was taken in tow. All well.

A Young Body Blasted.

CHESTER, Wyo., Sept. 1.—Miss Mary Orneill, aged 16 years, residing at Wyo., twenty miles southeast of Cheyenne, was killed yesterday afternoon by the accidental discharge of a gun. Miss Orneill was passing her home when she saw a gun which was standing in the corner of the room, was knocked down, and discharged. The shot struck the young girl in the breast, killing her instantly.

CLEVELAND GETS BACK.

He is Said to Each Strong and Vigorous.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—President Lincoln and family arrived at 4 o'clock this morning.

The party remained in the sleeper until 6 o'clock, when they drove to the White House, a dreary, cold, silent place.

Private Secretary Trowbridge says the President is in excellent spirits. His eye is bright, complexion clear, and looks vigorous and strong.

After breakfast the President went off to his office, where he worked very hard, disposing of accumulated public business. Then he took part in the cabinet meeting till 11 o'clock.

The other question was discussed with reference to the chances of repeal by the Senate. Mr. Trowbridge stated his belief that his recommendations would be carried out. The cabinet was considered the committee of the treasury. No definite plan of reorganization was decided on.

To Secure the Veterans.

DEARBORN, Sept. 1.—Preparations for the Grand Army annual meet are going rapidly forward and will be completed in time for assembling. The numerous delegations are the first over coming to the city and the meetings are rapidly increasing.

The naval parade under command of Rear Admiral Dahlgren takes place tomorrow. Other events are set for Tuesday and Thursday.
