

TELEGRAPHIC. THE ELECTION NEWS Interest Manifested in Washington in the Results.

HOW THE SENATE IS AFFECTED.

Estimated Figures in Some of the Most Important States-Tammany Many Restrected.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Owing to the unusual conditions prevailing in a number of the states and the uncertainty regarding the outcome, intense interest existed at the capital in the results of the elections. Particularly watch the case with respect to the senates in New York, Kentucky, Maryland, New Jersey and Ohio, and the returns from these states were watched with the greatest interest.
Interest also gathered in front of the newspaper offices tonight and remained until the returns came in. Others more interested in various social and political topics, where special arrangements had been made, obtained the latest information.

President Cleveland did not make his appearance at the White House at any hour, but remained at his country home of Westfield, Private Secretary Thorne was on hand at the executive office, however, during the day and evening and received bulletins and newspaper telegrams. The president was seen in the district west Republican by a small majority. Community's plurality is estimated at 4000.

The Daily News says: "It is the beginning of the end." The cabinet is to be reconstructed. Lord Rosebery has now approved of that most extraordinary has approved of that diplomatic stroke. Turkey is now within a measurable distance of disruption and partition."

Madison, at the time of the March 10 election, was to be the seat of the American union; the distribution of supplies to the sufferers was stopped.

On account of the recent arrangements made by the American and English governments in regard to the Armenian question, the United States government has agreed to furnish supplies to the Armenians.

ruption and partition."

The election of Ames J. Cummings, Democrat, to Congress from the Tenth district is conceded. The Republicans, however, during the day and evening and received bulletins and
newspaper telegrams. The president
was seen in the district west Re-
munity's plurality is estimated at 4000.

The World tomorrow will say officially: "The reactionary result in this city yesterday was provoked by the pig-headed folly of the president of the police board. But for the exceptional efforts of Mr. Brown, who struggled for justice, honor and upright action, the Sunday excess law would have been as easy and as triumphant as it was last year. The predicted reaction has come."

LANDSLIDE IN MARYLAND.

MARYLAND, Nov. 6.—There are several returns in Maryland which have been a landslide in Maryland said that the Democratic ticket is favored by majorities ranging from 6,000 upward. There seems to be no room for any doubt that the Republicans will have the largest number of voters, and probably a majority in the next legislature, which will elect a successor to the late Senator Gibson. Even Howard county, the home of Senator Gibson, has apparently reversed its former Democratic majority and is supporting the Republicans and former friends, while Iowa cannot be sure.
