

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

"MACBETH."—This play was presented in splendid style to a good house, at the theatre last night. Of Warner's "Macbeth" it may be said, that it was not a mere playing at the character; but the real veritable "Macbeth" with all his ambition, murder and remorse, was presented in the most life-like and vivid manner.

He was well supported, and the piece, including music and choruses, went off smoothly, excepting in the first scene of the fifth act, which was marred by some inadvertence of "Lady Macbeth's" waiting woman.

Mr. McKenzie as Macduff, received a most flattering reception, showing that which he was one of the chief ornaments here, his numerous friends still hold him in warm remembrance.

To-night Sheridan Knowles' beautiful play of the "Hunchback" will be presented, in which Mr. Warner will appear as "Master Walter," and Miss Lockhart, as "Julia."

PERIODICALS.—We have received from Mr. James Dwyer, Harper's Monthly for October, and Appleton's Magazine for September 25, a very beautiful number.

STEPHEN MARKHAM may learn something of interest to himself by addressing a communication to C. C. Bartlett, Salt Lake City, U. T.

Rocky Mountain exchanges please copy.

Books RECEIVED.—We have received from the publishers, —the Chicago Western News Company, the well-known essays on Political Economy of the late M. Frederic Bastiat. The work comprises four divisions, the first and second being devoted to the "Sophisms of Protection;" the fourth to "Capital and Interest."

THE MURDERED MEN OF THE POWELL EXPEDITION. — President Erastus Snow telegraphs from St. George, our Deseret Telegraph line, that after making a thorough investigation through reliable Indians, of the facts of the murder of the three men of the Powell expedition, he is satisfied they did not molest the squaw, as the first Indian reported, but that they were killed by an enraged Shebitt, some of whose friends had, a short time previously, been murdered by a party of miners on the other (east) side of the Colorado river.

THE SHEBITTS have since returned to their own country, but the Piedras turned the papers of the expedition the man had with them, after killing them. President Snow concludes his dispatch by saying he will still continue the search.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.—The Court met according to adjournment at 10 o'clock this morning. The roll of the Grand Jury was then called. Only twenty-one answering to their names the Court was again adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

FROM CALCUTTA.—Elder J. P. Melk, who has just arrived in Utah from Calcutta, paid us a flying visit this morning in the company of Elder A. M. Musser.

THE AMPHION QUARTET.—Bros. P. O. Thomassen, John Sholdebrand, S. V. Youngberg and C. F. Youngberg, who style themselves the "Amphion Quartet," propose, with the assistance of other brethren, give a Vocal Concert, at the Seventies' Hall, on Thursday evening next, when they will sing English, German and Danish melodies. We presume they will be patronized by their Scandinavian brethren, and others who love to listen to the melodies of many lands. The Concert will commence at 8. Admission 50 cents.

A MONKON VISITOR.—The editor of the Circular, the organ of the Oneida Community, in his edition of the 13th inst., thus notices the visit of one of our Elders to the home of the Community:

"A Mormon called on us Wednesday afternoon and staid over night; we invited him to our meetings, where, in answer to our many questions he gave us quite an interesting insight into Mormon life. We were interested in the man's earnest faith in God and his loyalty to Brigham Young. If he is a fair specimen of the followers of Joseph Smith, there is no prospect of Mormonism being wiped out in our day. Among other things, he told us that hot drinks, tobacco and pork were falling into disuse among them; that they were paying much attention to education and manufactures; their women attend to business in their stores and take charge of the telegraph offices; they are more free and happy than any women in the world. The Mormons take care that there shall be no one in need among them, and though they now each own separate property, they are fast approaching a state of communism; for they believe that they cannot have community of property in heaven unless they have it here upon earth. Brigham Young has distributed abundance of mulberry trees, and they are going extensively into the growth and manufacture of silk. According to this man's statements, the Mormons are a healthy, prosperous and happy. One of the principal objects of their lives seems to be to build Zion, in Jackson County, Missouri."
