CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

Selling a Cadetship—Speech by Dawes.

WASHINGTON, 10.—Stowell, rising to a question of personal privilege, referred to a charge made against him by one Porter, of having sold a naval cadetship for a thousand dollars; he denounced the charge as false, and asked an investigation by a committee of the House; referred to the naval committee.

Willard, of Vermont, offered an amendment providing that greenbacks shall not be a legal tender in payment of debts contracted after July 1, 1875.

Dawes opposed the bill in a long speech. He said he rejoiced that the hands of Congress were being held up in the effort, if it had courage to make it, to bring the country back to the laws of trade, and argued that the direct, inevitable consequence of the pending bill, instead of being a relief, by appropriating greenbacks to gold, would be to sink it ten to fifteen per cent, thereby taking from the laborer that per cent of purchasing power in his day's wages. He concluded as follows: "Those who are responsible for public affairs have no time to lose; we can put off our duty in the premises no longer. The republican party has just three months to save or destroy its existence; no other power than itself can accomplish its ruin. It will pass out of mind and memory in the politics of this country if at all by its own hands. It has the power and privilege of accomplishing either of these results. Whatever awaits that party in the near future, let it not die for want of courage."

EASTERN.

Coolies and Prostitutes.

WASHINGTON, 10.—Page has arranged with the foreign affairs committee to be heard on Tuesday next, in reference to the resolution directing that committee to inquire what legislation is necessary to prevent the importation of coolies for servile labor, and Chinese women for prostitution.

Dead—Arrived.

Johan C. Kondrup, Danish vice-consul here, died this morning.

V. V. Smith, claimant to the governorship of Arkansas, arrived to-day.

Big Lawsuit.

NEW YORK, 10.—A suit has been entered in the Supreme Court, in the name of the people of the State of New York, by Attorney General Pratt, against Hugh J. Jewett and the Erie Railway Company. It is stated that while Jewett was elected in July last, president for the year, he, as director, made a contract with the directors of the company to act as president for ten years, and the company became bound to pay him for his services forty thousand per annum, a portion in cash, the rest in notes. The Attorney General says the contract is illegal and void, and that the salary is grossly exorbitant, though the company has paid $20,000 in cash, and has paid one note, and intends to execute the contract unless legally restrained. The Attorney General also alleges that the Erie Company and the New York Central and Hudson River Company have combined on uniform rates for the transportation of live stock, and have agreed, after a certain time, to increase the rates and pool the earnings. This was known to Mr. Jewett, and is wholly illegal and prohibited by law. The Attorney General also alleges the existence of a combination of the above roads and the Penn. road, for uniform rates of transportation between Buffalo and New York and points westward. This is also illegal, and the people of the State pray that said contract and proceedings be declared illegal and void, and that the contracts and notes be cancelled, and that the defendant Jewett be compelled to account for the moneys received and return the same to the company, and be suspended from office, and that each of the defendants be debarred from receiving any sum under said contract, and that a receiver be appointed to hold the notes and for such further relief as may be just. This summons was served on Mr. Jewett and the directors this evening.

Kalakaua at Chicago.

CHICAGO, 10.—King Kalakaua and suite arrived here at 3.30 this afternoon, over the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road. His majesty was indisposed, and didn't stop; he was suffering from a bilious attack and kept his car by the advice of his physicians, postponing his inspection of the city until his return. The King left over the Pittsburg and Ft. Wayne road, at 5.15., p.m.

Less Iron to be Made.

PHILADELPHIA, 10.—At a meeting of pig iron makers, held here to-day, it was agreed to reduce their production of iron to one half the capacity of their furnaces during the year 1875, providing an agreement be signed by at least two-thirds of the furnaces, exclusive of the charcoal in use, and that the signers may withdraw and be relieved from the same on giving two months written notice to the secretary of the American Steel & Iron Association. A resolution was adopted, protesting against the ratification of the Canadian reciprocity treaty, as destructive to the commercial interests of the U. S.

$50,000 Fire.

SAVANNAH, 10.—A fire destroyed the P. O. building and other buildings at Dairen, Ga.; loss $50,000.

Trial of Jesse Pomeroy.

BOSTON, 10.—The trial of Jesse Pomeroy, the boy murderer, was concluded to-day; the jury brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree, with a recommendation to mercy.

Condemned—Ready for a War of Races.

NEW ORLEANS, 10.—A Jackson, Miss., special says the proclamation of Governor Ames, convening the legislature is almost universally condemned. T. W. Carlton, than whom no man has done more to create this trouble, declares that a race conflict is now on us, and that the negro women are ready to commence with ax and knife to slaughter white women and children. One remarkable fact should be noted—that this is the only county in which the negroes have been drawn into these demonstrations; the town negroes are too smart to be duped by their leaders. The actual number of negroes killed in Monday's fight was probably one hundred and fifty. Forty-eight were buried in one field yesterday.

More About Madame Venus.

Telegrams, in regard to the transit of Venus, say the observations failed in Ormusk, Orenberg, Uralsk, Astrachan, Kertch, and Tiflis, but were entirely successful at Yokohama.

PRUSSIA.

Arnim's Trial.

BERLIN, 10.—The trial of Von Arnim was resumed to-day. The report of Prince Hohenlohe, the German ambassador at Paris, on the documents missing at the legation, was read; also the correspondence between Arnim and the foreign office concerning the loss of the several papers. The report of the Prince declared that the documents unaccounted for numbered 86, and they referred to missing soldiers, the ill-treatment of German subjects and violations of the frontier.

The examination was resumed. He acknowledged the accuracy of the documents which had been read, and his former statement, that certain papers which he had appropriated were abroad, he meant that they were not in Prussia. In consequence of a suggestion made to him he had purposely set apart some documents, which he considered private property, and which on that account and because of the language they contained were unfit to be communicated to third persons. As, since June, he had been generally pointed out as an enemy of the Empire, he had not kept these documents in Germany, but beyond the Prussian frontier.

The reading of the papers in the case was continued. One was Manteuffel's report concerning Arnim's conversation with Stevallier, which was followed by Arnim's report, in which he admitted the truth of Manteuffel's assertions. The prisoner here said that he rejected Manteuffel's report which had been read, as it laid the first stone of the conflict.

The reading of the documents of the 2nd class was then proceeded with. The most noticeable one was the reply to Arnim's report on the German ambassador system, in which Bismarck reproaches Arnim with a defective knowledge of his own country. The accused explained to the court that he naturally took grave offense at this dispatch, because it questioned his attachment to the empire. The court granted the application made by the defense, to call Professor Lewis, by whose advice Arnim appropriated the documents. German officials adhere to the mode of conducting business. Count Wesdeklen, counsellor to the embassy, deposed that the archives were complete when handed to Count Arnim, after a temporary absence. Another attache deposed that it was not impossible that a few documents might get mislaid.

At the close of the sitting the public prosecutor complained that the Voss Gazette of yesterday published a report of the private deliberations of the court, apparently emanating from the counsel for the defense; he reserved the right to take further steps in connection with this matter.
