Secretary Richardson, in conversation with a representative of the associated press, to-day, stated—"I have every confidence in Secretary Fish. He will do just right, and you may rest assured that he will not be carried away with excitement, neither will he yield one bit of the national honor." In reference to the ability of the 'U. S. to warsuccessfully with Spain, should it be found necessary to resort to warsuccessfully with Spain, should it be found necessary to resort to arms, he said—"Should such a course be determined upon, the treasury department is fully prepared. We have enough money to commence with, but exactly as to what will be done afterwards depends upon the prolongation of the war, though I have no doubt it would be of short duration. As Congress will be here in two weeks, it is very certain that there will be no difficulty in raising all the means we want. War, of course, will be expensive, as it requires large sums of money to move armies and fit out ships, but we are equal to the emergency."

He was then asked the question—says that Captain Fry, of the Virginius, previous to his execution, wrote letters to President Grant, to his wife and father, and to Mr. Hubbard, of New Orleans, and Walton Fry.

The Voce de Cuba expresses sorrow that all hostile enterprises against Spain find favor with the majority of the American press. When young Crittenden was excepted the American papers took the same course as now, and enterprises arising between the two countries, there being no just grounds therefore.
