

our characters and course of life are going to affect our posterity, but they will. The seed from a good ripe cucumber will produce good fruit, like that which produced the seed. Has the woman an interest in this, as well as the man? She has. The tree that bears the fruit affects that fruit for better or worse. The Savior says that a good tree will produce good fruit, and a corrupt tree cannot produce good fruit, but it will produce corrupt fruit. Upon the same principle, how can a woman produce a good posterity when she is corrupt? She cannot.

If we will do right, will do just as we have been told in all things, we will dwell in peace and quietness from this time henceforth and for ever, and I know it.

For some time past the weather has been warm and the ground parched by heat, and now the Lord has again given us rain. What a beautiful shower we had last night! Do I not feel thankful? Yes, as much so as for anything of this nature I ever received. Did it bless me? Yes. It also blessed every one of you, whether you have any grain, fruit, and vegetables growing or not. Why? Because if you have not, you have to live upon the products of the fields and gardens of some of your neighbors. It affects every one of you as much as it does me; you are blessed as much as I am; I can only eat what one man can eat. I cannot partake of these blessings to any greater amount than you can, and all that I expect while I dwell in the flesh is what I want to eat, clothes that are comfortable to wear, houses to live in, and what I want to drink; I cannot drink all City creek myself; I can only just partake of enough of those blessings to sustain myself.

My feelings are that we are blessed above all the people that ever did live, that we read of. We are blessed above the people of Enoch; and far beyond the people in the days of Jesus for they were driven, scattered, and peeled throughout the world, and they have never yet been able to gather again. But we are gathered, and we never will be scattered again, no never while the earth stands, if you will do as you are told. Will we go to Jackson county? Yes, we will go there, just as we will to the city of Fillmore, independently. We will go and come at our pleasure, and no one to molest us; and we will build up that city, and that too upon natural principles, just as we go and build up Farmington in Davis county, or this city, or any place we occupy.

How will it be with our enemies? The Lord deals with them and leads them, just as much as he does you and me. Can he hold them as with a bit the same as you can a horse? Yes, and he can put it into the hearts of that people to send up a petition here for the Mormons to buy that whole land, and we will be under no necessity of shedding blood. God does not want to shed blood without it is necessary, any more than he wants us to go and slaughter a beast when we have no need of it. But when we have need of meat, and are driven to it by necessity, then it is all right. If it is necessary that we should shed blood, then it is right. All things are right that are done according to the will and pleasure of God.

My feelings are to exhort you, to pray you, be ye reconciled to God and to his servants; and if you will be reconciled to his servants you will be to God, and you cannot without. How can you be reconciled to a Being you never saw and not be to a Being you do see? If you cannot love those you see and associate with every day, how can you love a Being you never did see? It is impossible. And one of the greatest sins you commit is to sin against those you do know, those whom God has sent and authorized, for it is his authority which you rebel against, and in sinning against it you sin against God the Father who sent them. Upon the same principle, when we send br. Bernhisel to Washington, should they take him and misuse him they show despite to the authority that sent him. You send a minister to Europe, and should they cast him out and whip him they show despite to the authority that sent him, to the whole United States, in case they had sent him.

Our Father and our God has sent Brigham and his brethren; if you rebel against them you rebel against the authority that sent them. You sin not only against the authority or servants he has sent, but you sin against God who authorized them. If br. Brigham sends br. Wells to me as a delegate to authorize me to do a thing and I refuse, I sin against br. Brigham and against the one that sent him. Now, brethren, what are we told to do? Read a revelation that Joseph received of the Lord to Thomas B. Marsh concerning the Twelve; he told them to go forth and preach the gospel to every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, or cause it to be done, and after your testimony cometh the testimony of earthquakes, of famine, of fire, and of desolation. It shall come upon the world, and it shall begin at my house, saith the Lord, that is, with that portion who rebel against him in the midst of his house.

You can also read other revelations wherein the Lord says that after you have done so and so He will send famine, and earthquakes, and desolating sickness, etc., etc.; and that he who rejecteth you rejecteth me, and he that rejecteth me rejecteth my Father and my God. When you do this you do it at your own risk, and to your own sorrow and distress, and the Spirit of God will so teach you all the time.

These calamities are coming, go and read for yourselves. If you do not believe me and br. Brigham and the Twelve, believe the revelation that God gave to Joseph. And then if you do not believe Joseph, believe Isaiah, Jeremiah, and the Prophets; and if you cannot believe them, believe Jesus Christ; and if you cannot believe him, believe the Father. [Voice: "And if they believe the Father, they will believe all the rest."] Yes; br. Brigham says that if you believe the Father, you will believe all the rest. You can believe Jesus, and if you can believe Jesus you can believe his Apostles, and then you can believe Joseph and his Apostles, and br. Brigham and his Apostles. Has br. Brigham got Apostles? Yes, he has ordained Twelve. Br. Joseph ordained Twelve, and so did Peter.

Br. Brigham is an apostle of Jesus and I know it, just as much as ever Joseph was. I do not ask you to believe that for me, I know it is true. Br. Brigham, myself, and some others walked with br. Joseph in his regeneration, but we do not know whether we shall sit at his right hand or his left or not, that is for the Father or others to dictate. It mattereth not, however, for if we keep the commandments of God we shall triumph over the world, the flesh, and the devil, and over every person living upon God's footstool that does not surrender themselves and all they have to Him.

Brethren and sisters, this is the time in which to prepare. If you are not saved temporally in these valleys, I shall not be. If you will take a course to bring distress on this people, we shall have to be distressed. I have learned enough to know that when we were in Kirtland and distress and desolation came upon this people, I had to suffer with them. I fled for England, br. Joseph and br. Brigham fled to Missouri, and every man that would honor 'Mormonism' and sustain it had to flee. Why? Because some would not honor it. The righteous had to suffer with the wicked; and it is the ungodly who bring trouble upon the righteous, and they have to pay that debt. If it is not in ten thousand times ten thousand years, they will have to pay the debt for unlawfully bringing distress upon the righteous.

What shall we do? The Lord is blessing us, and such a time of blessing I never saw. We never have been blessed so much as we are this year. Go to the north, to the south, to the east, and to the west, and you will see the earth matted over with vegetation to such an extent as I have never before seen. Go into our gardens and orchards, and you will find our trees even now actually breaking down with fruit. We shall have to thin out the peaches on the boughs, or they will break before they can ripen the load that is upon them. The limbs are breaking down with apples, plums, currants, and every kind of fruit that we are raising; and the strawberry vines would break down, if they were not already on the ground. I never saw the like in the States, nor in England, nor anywhere else.

The people are doing right, they are waking up, and the Lord looks upon us as a good father looks upon his boys who are in the field at work digging and watering the ground in the hot sun up to the knees in mud with their wives and their children. Says he, "My boys, you are good boys; I will give you some rain, I will wet your crops and rest you a little while; but I will not let you have but a little water, for if I send the rains here the devil will come upon you with his gang. I will not let you have much rain, only enough to ease your labors a little while." That is the way my Father feels, and I feel so, when I have his Spirit; and that is the reason I can comprehend him when I have his Spirit. You have heard me say that I felt joyful, funny, jocular according to the portion of the Spirit of the Lord I enjoyed. Do I feel like dancing and jumping? Yes, and like doing everything else that is good and comfortable. When I have the Spirit of the Lord, I feel so, and that makes me think that my Father in heaven felt so before me.

Brethren, go and build your store houses before your grain is harvested and lay it up, and let us never cease until we have got a seven years' supply. You may think that we shall not see times in which we shall need it. Do you not comprehend how comfortable it will be for us to know that we have grain enough to last us seven years? But it would make me feel bad for br. Brigham, myself and a few others and the Tithing Office to have our granaries full, and the rest of the people have none. Why? Because we should have to hand out of our granaries as long as there was a kernel left. [Voice: "We should have to buy the whole of them."] Yes, we should have to buy your fine dresses, your jewelry and everything you have got; which we shall do, if you do not lay up in store.

I ask, would things have been with us as they are now, if we had not repented and commenced anew? Now 7 tons, or 14,000 lbs. of flour are dealt out of the Tithing Office every week to the hands upon the Public Works, and can they reduce the supplies that are in that office? They have not been able to yet, for some of the cellars are being dug out to put in grain. We have not store-room enough to hold it, and we are obliged to go to the flouring mills to get storage for it. And the men who deal out the flour say that they have not reduced the supplies on hand, that they continually keep about so, and a little more so. If you can account for that, go at it.

Does the Lord cause our grain to increase? He does and that too upon natural principles. Sow one bushel of wheat, for instance, and when you harvest the product of that you get, say, from 25 to 50 bushels. Where do those 25 or 50 bushels come from? Say that I go and put 100 pounds of flour into my bin, and that I afterwards take out forty times more flour than I put in, how did it come there? Upon the same principle that one bushel of wheat increased to forty. I will take one peach stone and plant it, and in about four years that peach stone will produce a tree that will bear from 500 to 1000 peaches. Where did they come from? There was only one planted. They all come from the elements. Then cannot God increase our grain in the bin, as well as he can increase it in the field?

Br. Brigham and I once started with $13.50 and traveled 500 miles, paying $16 for every hundred miles travel, and paying for from two to three meals of victuals a day, and once in a while paying 50 cents apiece for a night's lodging, and when we got through we had not quite as much money as when we started. But if we had not any, it was quite a miracle, though we had some money left. We performed that journey with the means I have mentioned. That money we spent was in the elements, or else an angel of God went where it was and got it and put it into our pockets. Br. Brigham kept the purse; I put my money with him, and he kept paying out, and if it had been in the line of our duty to have kept traveling to this day, we should had money unto this day. And once in a while we would take a weak sling, for we were so weakened by disease that both of us could not take a common trunk two feet long and ten inches square and put it in a wagon. We were feeble, and we continued so until we landed on Europe's shores, and then disease left us. The devil meant to afflict us to see whether he could not back us out, but he had two hard fellows to deal with.

The Lord was with us, and his angels went before us. And when we went to Kirtland the people would not let us preach there only once apiece. I preached once and compared them to a mess of old cracked pots, and every thing else I could think of, and declared that I would not preach there again. I never wanted to. They said that we were under the censure of the Almighty, because we were sick and afflicted. The Lord suffered it to be so, that he might try their righteousness and virtue.

Let us go to work, every man and woman of us, and lay up our stores, and build good store houses, and increase. If we will do this, brethren, we will have some of the finest seasons you ever saw. Our grain will increase, and we will lay a foundation for the world and the ungodly, and we will buy them for our servants. They will be glad to come and work for us for bread and each one of us will be like Joseph in Egypt was to his father's house. They will come to us and buy grain and the good things of this world, for I know that we are the people who have got to do that thing.

Will you be slack, brethren, and let the evil come upon us when we forewarn you of the future events that are coming? Now supposing that I had not the spirit of prophecy upon me, then I had better sit down. If a man gets up here and lets the Spirit of God dictate him, he cannot help prophesying, for the Holy Ghost is the spirit of prophecy, and he will foretell future events, and you cannot help it. We are telling of what the prophets have said, of what the Lord has said to Joseph. Wake up, now, wake up, O Israel, and lay up your grain and your stores. I tell you that there is trouble coming upon the world. They have a pretty good drouth in some places this year. I do not know whether br. Amasa has told you, but almost everything is burnt up in southern California. They have got to live there and get bread, and probably will be glad to take a hand cart.

Is it so in the United States? It is. They have got to eat that dish, and when famine, pestilence and starvation come upon us in a small degree, it will increase upon them four fold, packed down and running over, and they cannot help it. Let them exult. There never was such a prejudice existing against this people, as there is a this day. The devil is stirring them up because we have commenced that Temple, and we will build it, and they cannot help themselves. And we will lay up the grain for seven years, and thousands of them will worship us for a little Johnny cake, and I will live to see it, and so will you. And when you see it, you will then have knowledge, won't you?

We do not so much care whether you have any confidence in our being Prophets or not, but if you go to and do as you are told you shall see these things, and have a knowledge of all we tell you. That is practical religion, if all men go to work and till the earth, raise grain and live our religion, and not come up here as a few of you dandies do and suck our vitals out of us by getting into fancy shops and this and that and the other. You are no better than we are, and not half as good. We are the saviors of men, and we have got to work for it, to dig and scrape; and the harder we scrape the quicker it will come about. This people work, and they are the best people that ever did live, but there is a great chance for improvement.

I improved yesterday; I worked and made all the improvements I could, and did the best I could, but it came night and I laid down to take a nap, which is typical of death. This morning I have risen up and again commenced my labors, and I am going to improve to-day and do better than I did yesterday. But in comes another night of sleep, I lay down, which is typical of death, and I rise in the morning, which is typical of the resurrection, and I renew my labors. I have to begin where I left off, but you cannot realize but that you have to take one jump away ahead, when you come to leave your bodies and go into the spirit world. That is not so, for you will have to commence to hoe your row where you left off.

People talk about running races for a wager. No person can gain the wager, only those that run lawfully through to the place appointed. These half runs will not gain the prize. There are a great many that turn back and run the other way, but their road will be a thousand times longer than ours; and the straighter we run the nearer we get to the point we have to gain.

As for our store house ever being empty again, if we will take the course laid down to us it will never be. And we have to increase our store houses more than a hundred fold; and if this people take that course the granaries will be fuller than they are now, and they must be built in a more substantial manner. And when we have built this Temple it is hardly a comparison to what we will build the next time, and the devil will still rage worse and worse, and he will rage and rage and foam, but if we will do right he never can come over those mountains, or in other words, he may get here, but the tabernacles he wants to come here never can, no never, for they will fall without our touching them. [Voice: "And it will be laid on the 'Mormons.'"] Yes, they lay the killing of Babbitt and Gunnison to the 'Mormons,' and they say that Dr. Bernhisel will kill Brigham in one year, [laughter in the stand and in the congregation] because he has got jealous of him. I must confess that would be the biggest miracle that I ever saw. Almost every evil that has been committed during the past twenty years has been laid upon the 'Mormons,' and they are trying to make themselves believe that the 'Mormons' have Danites or destroying angels in every nook and corner.

Now you may call that extravagant, but the world believe it. I never saw people so foolish as are the world at this time, and they never can affect us; I want you to keep that in view. That is my text, they never can trouble us, if we do as we are told. And when br. Brigham crooks his little finger, let our hands move. I am preaching what they say.

We shall prosper, and the soil and the mountains will grow rich, and we will never lack for anything. We may draw wood out of the mountains continually, as we need it, and there will still be as much as there is now. We will eat bread to all eternity, and our bins will still be full. You may wear dresses to all eternity, if you will make them, and there will always be plenty.

I am in my element when I am among this people and speaking to them, and my prayer is, by night and day, that I may be as simple as a child in my communications and speak the truth. As for my praying that God will make me eloquent, as the world call it, I never want it, but that he may make me eloquent in the truth to speak it in its plainness and simplicity.

Brethren and sisters, here in these mountains is the centre of government, here is head-quarters for the whole earth, and this will be head-quarters until this head-quarters make another. And when head-quarters are made at Jerusalem, we shall make them. Why? Because this is the dispensation of dispensations, and where Israel has dropped down we have got to build them up and establish them, just as much as men and women have to be raised in the resurrection where they lie down, by the authority of God.

The earth is the Lord's and we are his servants, and let every man, according to the authority he possesses, dedicate his houses, the material of which they are built, the earth they stand upon, and his orchards and fields, and they will be blessed, and I know it. We are in the best place on the earth in which to sanctify and bless the earth and the inhabitants upon it, and the mountains, and the little hills, and the fountains of water. That is our business, and to bless each other and build each other up, and raise up a pure and a holy people. That is what we are here for, and if you do not honor the calling you are called to you will be good for nothing.

God bless you, brethren; God bless you, sisters; and God bless your children, and the earth, and all there is in it, for your sake. Amen.

REMARKS

By President Brigham Young, Bowers, a. m. of June 7, 1857.

REPORTED BY G. D. WATT.

I am thankful for the privilege of assembling with the congregation of the Saints on another day that is set apart to worship God. I delight in hearing the servants of the Lord speak of those things that pertain to life and salvation. Practical religion is what we all need, to prepare us to enjoy that which we have in our anticipations, that which we hold in our faith. Merely the theory of any religion does people but little good; this is the great failing of Bible Christians, as they are called. They have the theory of the religion of which the Bible testifies, but the practical part they spurn from them. This is why the Latter Day Saints have become so obnoxious to the christian world, they believe in the practical part of the religion of which the scriptures are a history. You may take the plan and details of former christianity, but unless it is reduced to practice it will not benefit the people.

I delight extremely in plain simplicity. Br. Kimball desires to be plain and simple, even like a child; I delight in this. I believe, according to my feelings, that if I had all the mastery of language that has ever been obtained by the learned, my spirit would delight more in childlike conversation, and that too in a simple language, than in the most learned literary style that is used. A plain clear method of expressing ideas is the most pleasing to me. I always delight to hear br. Kimball speak, and I will take the liberty of saying to this congregation that br. Heber C. Kimball in his spirit and in his faith, I do believe, is as true, as faithful, as correct, as any man that ever lived; but he has not that peculiar mastery of language that some have. He does not tell the people all that is in his mind, that would be impossible. He conveys a great deal in a few words.

There is no person that ever heard me complain of or disapprove in the least anything that br. Kimball says. The reason is simply this, I do know his spirit and what is in his mind, whether he tells only one fourth of it, or speaks it to the right or to the left, or whether he hits a particle of it, I know what he means and know that his meaning is just right. If he was blessed with the talent to clearly convey and explain the ideas that are in his mind, I will venture to say that he would be one of the greatest speakers that ever spoke on this earth, for true knowledge, sentiment and principle. We need the spirit by which he speaks and lives in order to understand all that he means by his expressions. I say this not having any fear in my mind that br. Kimball will, in his feelings, cast any reflections upon me for thus expressing myself.

I know that I am a great many times placed under difficulty to bring before the people the truth in a manner plain and simple enough to reach their understandings, and I know that this is the case with others.

I have seen Joseph when it was impossible for him to give the people his views upon a subject that he designed to speak upon.
