LOCAL BRIEFS.

Honk! Honk!—The local chauffeurs will give their annual ball, Nov. 13 next.

Infected Sheep Killed—The state veterinarian returned Wednesday morning from Tropic where he killed six sheep infected with necrobacteraemia.

Science Club Address—N. B. Dresser will speak this evening, before the Social Science club on the economic aspects of the San Francisco earthquake.

Three Accepted—Of the 14 candidates for embalming licenses, only three passed, the examination, viz., William O. Erickson, John E. Young and Elmer M. Quattrough.

Another Typhoid Patient—Sadie Jones aged 26, was taken to the Granger D. S. hospital Wednesday afternoon, to be treated for typhoid fever contracted at Cedar City, Ia.

Cars Run Mondays—Trial runs of passenger cars over the new Ninth avenue line have been made, and the plant is found to work satisfactorily. Cars begin running there next Monday.

Fighting Against Bacteria—There will be a meeting of this city Nov. 20, at the health officers of the state, when a suitable program will be carried out, and the health conditions of the state discussed.

New Members—These resident college men have been admitted to membership in the University club, viz., N. M. Muir, B. J. Michelson, College of Mines, '07; and E. D. Conville, E. E. University of Utah, '09.

Will Inspect Sugar Plant—The teachers in the public schools are to inspect the sugar factory at Lehi Saturday next. The inspectors will be attached to the 8:10 a. m. train over the Rio Grande to accommodate the excursion.

Rectal Tonic—Rowland D. Williams, baritone, will give a complimentary vocal recital this evening, in the First Congregational church, assisted by Miss Roumania Hyde, violinist, Accompanists, Mrs. Skelton and Mrs. Williams.

Mr. Crafts Laid Up—Mr. Crafts, instructor of manual training in the high school, is confined to his room as a result of an accident which occurred last Friday afternoon. Mr. Crafts is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Weir Jr.

Milk Tests—Tuberculin tests have been begun on dairy cows over the state in accordance with the act of the last legislature to prevent tuberculosis among dairy animals. The government furnishes the tuberculin, while the state does the testing.

Worker Entertained—Vice-president Eugene Clancy of the Structural Iron Workers union entertained Wednesday night in this city by the local union, while en route to San Francisco, from attendance on the international convention at Minneapolis.

Quarantine Limits—The boundaries of the sheep quarantine west of the city are bounded on the south by Twelfth South street, between Redwood road and three miles west; thence north to west Second North street, and south to Redwood road again.

Parents' Class Party—An old time party will be given by the parents' class in the Twenty-first ward this evening, at the residence of Myron E. Crandall, Jr. Costumes worn 35 years ago will be worn. Old time character songs and games engaged in. The decorations will be pumpkins and cornucopias.

Signals For the Farmers—Section Director Thibault and his staff of office personnel taking up with the department the idea of having the morning trains out of Salt Lake carry weather indication flags at the rear, so as to meet the agricultural and suburban communities as to approaching weather conditions.

Hallow'en at Y. M. C. A.—The Y. M. C. A. will hold a Hallow'en celebration Saturday evening, at the association room. Members of the club only attend by appearing with a lady to help them enjoy the feast. Extensive preparations are being made to have a gay time with all the agricultural paraphernalia incident to such an occasion.

War Declared—The Y. W. C. A. is to indulge in a fiesta called "The Wars of the Roses" just what this may be or may not be, is not to be divulged until Monday morning, when "the war" is to start in. Announcement is expected from the city pupils Sunday morning, and the association ladies have a great heap of cards to mail at their Brooks Arcade rooms, with pictures of roses thereon and which are evidently to be put to some practical use.

High Jinks Scheduled—The Sons and Daughters of Veterans will indulge in a Hallow'en party of considerable dimensions Friday evening, at the residence of the Misses Bous, 441 south First West street. All participants are to appear in sheet and yellow face paint. Pumpkin pie, gingerbread, coffee and apples will constitute the festive menu. The Daughters of Veterans meet in the Market street hall, and the Sons at Eighth South and First West streets, whence all will proceed to the place of general meeting.

Mrs. Pratt Convalescent—Mrs. Charles Pratt, who for weeks was unconscious while ill with typhoid fever, has recovered consciousness, though as yet not able to speak above a whisper. It is well believed that convalescence will be rapid. A consultation of four doctors was found necessary at critical periods of the disease. The local medical profession has been much interested in the case. Mrs. Pratt's sister, Mrs. E. B. Cook, who has also passed through a long stage of serious illness, is now also convalescent and able to be up.

DISHOP SPALDING ON LAR POLYGAMY

Episcopalian Prelate Urges Writers to Refrain From Touching Upon Mormon Questions.

(Special to The News.)

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—Bishop Spalding of Salt Lake is in San Francisco attending the annual convention of the Episcopal church for this diocese. In an address before that body, he is quoted by The Call as saying: "Women more than men have been responsible for polygamy in Utah. Twice, while Utah was a territory, when women had the right of suffrage, 50 per cent favored polygamy, and not until their right of suffrage was taken from them was the territory admitted into the Union."

The Examiner quotes the bishop as saying: "Polygamy is dying out, but has disappeared, leaving not more than 400 polygamist families in Utah. Anti-polygamy literature is being spread by missionaries to Indian conditions, without regard to actual conditions, and without regard to whether it is written or spoken by a missionary or a writer."

Three Accepted—Of the 14 candidates for embalming licenses, only three passed, the examination, viz., William O. Erickson, John E. Young and Elmer M. Quattrough.

WELLS FAMILY REUNION.

Ninety-fifth Anniversary of Birth of "Squire" Wells is Celebrated.

The thirtieth reunion of the family of Daniel H. Wells, which took place last evening at the home of Joseph H. Wells, 32 Second avenue, was attended by 112 descendants of the pioneer "Squire" leader, who celebrated the ninety-fifth anniversary of his birth. The program last night consisted principally of games, tableaux and vocal and instrumental selections. In which the grandchildren took the principal part. Former Gov. Heber M. Wells acted as master of ceremonies, and at the close of the program refreshments were served.

OF INTEREST TO MOTHERS.

There is one subject which always interests the mothers of young children, and that is how to treat their coughs and colds, or to ward off a threatened attack of croup. For this purpose we can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It always proves beneficial. In case of croup it should be given as soon as the raucous cough appears, so as to prevent the child from getting a bad cold. Many mothers do so, and it saves them much uneasiness. For sale by all druggists.
